AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Pastime.
Friday's new program follows: "Gratitude," Selig drama. An attractive story realistic and true to life. A story of the red man and a miner. The squaw's successful effort to prevent the unscrupulous mine owner from taking away the miner's wife entrusted to her care form a strongly dramatic feature.

"The Way of Life," Kalem, drama. A drama of the present. Cast of characters: John Mason, George Bent, musicians, Mable Roberts, later Mason's wife. Jane Fuller, later Bent's wife. Felix Avery, a friend of Mrs. Mason.

Two maids.
An absorbing story of merit. "The Mystery of the Torn Note," Lubin Comedy. One of those exciting comedies in which a rejected suitor decides to drown himself. It is quite amusing.

"A Gambler's Charm," Lubin, drama. When considered from the standpoint of presenting a type that is fast passing away this film is interesting.

The Cozy.
Program changes four times each week. Sunday, Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

"The Ranchman's Bride," Weston. A western drama.

"Where Did I Put My Fountain Pen?" Comedy.

"A Sufferer from Insomnia," Not comical but real funny.

"Blasting Furnace," showing the interior of the great Besmer steel works. Interesting and educational. Our feature film.

"Indian Phantasy," The hand is quicker than the eye. A great black art and Hindoo voodooism picture.

Song, "Love Me As I Like to Be Loved."

Morrow County at standstill. Residents of Umatilla county who were disappointed by the slight increase which the 1910 census returns show for this county can take consolation in the fact that Morrow county gained even less than its sister county. According to A. Rood, a prominent stockman of Heppner who is in the city today, the gain of Morrow county in the last twenty years has been just 150 people. Mr. Rood is ordinarily a booster for his home country but he says that facts are indisputable.

FAST BASKETBALL GAME FRIDAY NIGHT

Tomorrow night will witness the formal inauguration of the interscholastic basket ball season in Pendleton when the ball tossers of the Pendleton and Athena high schools meet in battle royal on the floor of the gymnasium on the hill. There have been several preliminary games played in the city already but they were really in the nature of tryouts for the selection of five to represent the local high.

The first lineup for the contest will be picked from the following men: Houser, center; Chapman and Boylen, forwards, and Devine, and the Jordan brothers, guards. However, there will be a number of other men in suits who are of a scarcely inferior calibre and they will probably be given an opportunity to participate.

The boys are expecting a hard game because of the fact that the Athena players have been together for two years and have also the advantage of a long practice season. But whichever way the wheel of fortune turns, it is certain that a good game will be given to the spectators.

DUTCH TWISTS

It takes the Dutch to get things twisted. Just think of a clearance sale "as it were," at the time you need the stuff, but the time comes on our Tenth anniversary and we had to do it because we said we would, so we are going to cut every article in The Gift Room right square in the middle, and the only requirement that we ask of you is that you bring us the right kind of coin. So get in and hustle for them; turn things topsy-turvy to find them; round them up; we want the full issue.

Starting a Round-Up Sale

Everybody knows the success and satisfaction of the Round-up. Results have been felt everywhere, and we hope every citizen of Umatilla County has absorbed some of its good will spirit the Koeppens have, and they are showing it and their patriotism for Pendleton by opening within its limits one of the best, most complete, and up-to-date stores of its kind in Oregon, and it is going to succeed as the Round-up succeeded. It is going to satisfy as the Round-up satisfied, and we are going to fix it so that every person in the county will have cause to aid in the success and feel well paid for the opportunity.

Every coin bearing the date of 1900 are the ones we want and those will buy just twice the amount of goods at the Gift Room that coin of other dates will buy. It runs till Christmas. It means Christmas goods at half price, and it means that we want the Gift Room to be known by you, appreciated by you, and you benefited by it.
