PACIFIC COAST PRINTERS TO MEET

PORTLAND TO BE MECCA FOR MANY CRAFTSMEN

Invitations to be issued for General Convention in February—Portland Commercial Club Plans Entertainment for Hundreds of Visitors.

Portland will be the Mecca for employing printers of the Pacific Coast on February 22, 23 and 24, when a Pacific Coast Congress, the first in the far West, will be held. There promises to be a very large attendance of printers from all prominent cities from the Canadian to the Mexican border and from Salt Lake City to the Coast. Invitations to members of the craft all over the West will be issued in a few days and it is expected to have not less than 250 delegates in attendance.

The convention sessions will be held in the assembly hall of the Portland Commercial club on the night of February 23, the second day of the session, a dinner will be given the visitors at the Commercial club by Portland printers. Other entertainment will be outlined at a later date.

C. A. Whitmore of the Irwin-Hodson company has been chosen president of the preliminary organization and Robert Morrell of the Kilham Stationery & Printing company is secretary. William Davis, president of the Howe-Davis company, is treasurer. The following committees have been named:

Executive—S. C. Beach, Robert Morrell, Jos. Beveridge, C. A. Whitmore, Ed James. Entertainment—C. A. Whitmore, F. W. Baltes, Jos. Beveridge, W. E. Prudhomme, J. L. Wright and A. E. Kern. Finance—James Ball, O. R. Ball, L. A. Colton, and Milton Markewitz. Programme—S. C. Beach, Robert Morrell and F. W. Chausse.

Simplifying and standardizing printing methods by arriving at better facilities for making estimates and settling problems of internal economy of a print shop are the prime objects of the coming convention. Some of the largest printing men in the United States are to be on the program to help Western men in their work. Among these are Mr. Ellick, of the Omaha Printing company; A. H. Morgan of Chicago, secretary of the International Cost Congress; Mr. Nelson of New York City, president of the American Type Founders company; and Mr. Heath of Philadelphia, secretary of the Typotheta of America. Others will be added whose names are of national fame.

This is the first Cost Congress that the Pacific Coast has yet held. Portland, with the co-operation of Seattle and Spokane, through the local printers' association, took the initiative in calling the gathering. This city is considered the logical meeting point for the coast printers and those of the inland cities this side of the Rocky Mountains.

Chicago had the first International Cost Congress in the United States. Seneca C. Beach, the well known Portland printer, addressed the gathering. A similar gathering was held at St. Louis and F. W. Baltes delivered an address. The distance of the coast cities from the centers of the Mississippi Valley was the chief reason for holding the gathering here. Ideas gathered at the Eastern convention will be used at the coming convention by Portland men and many new ones are expected to be disseminated by the visiting speakers.

ECKERT NEAR DEATH.

Distinguished Telegrapher Slowly Passing at Summer Home.

General Thomas Thompson Eckert who was for many years the president of the Western Union Telegraph company, and who is one of the oldest and most distinguished telegraphers in America, is reported as being dangerously ill at his summer residence near New York.

The passing of General Eckert will no doubt also mark the end of the custom prevalent in New York since its earliest days of burying its dead within the heart of the city. The only catacombs in America, underneath St. Patrick's church in Mott street, are to become the last resting place of the distinguished telegrapher who, from the constructor and superintendent of the telegraph line from Pittsburgh to Chicago, one of the first telegraph lines ever built in America, rose to become general superintendent of the military telegraph during the war of the rebellion, with the title of Brigadier-General, and finally Assistant Secretary of War.

Beneath these catacombs General Eckert has had constructed one of the most unique as well as one of the costliest tombs in the world, built at an outlay of $50,000. It is fitted with a magnificent altar and electric lights. At the present time it is unattended. Within close proximity, within these catacombs, are the tombs of the Delmonicos, where sixteen members of the family are buried: "Honest John" Kelly, Countess Anna Leary, the great Charles O'Connor and others.

BEGINNING OF END.

Giant Task of Digging Panama Canal Drawing to Close.

Washington.—It may no longer be ascribed to an over-zealous anticipation to say that the beginning of the end of the giant task of digging the Panama canal is in sight.

The structure—it may be well called that for the digging of the great ditch is but one feature of the work—in taking such definite shape that an amateur without the trained imagination of the engineer for looking into the future, can see what the canal is going to be by running over the course through the zone from Colon to Panama.

In the Culebra and Chafres sections where the greatest amount of excavation is to be done there is a deep gash through the hills. In the Culebra section of the 94,000,000 yards of dirt and stone that were to be taken out, the steam shovels have already ground out more than 50,000,000 yards. In the Chafres section of the thirteen million yards of excavation, ten millions have been done. In the other sections the work of this character is almost complete with the exception of the deepening of the channel by the dredges.

In eastern sections of the great dam at Gatun has been brought up to the level of 33 feet above the sea. More than nine million cubic yards of wet and dry "fill" have been placed. The barrier which is to hold in check the waters to form the lake from which water is to be drawn to supply the locks, is now so nearly finished that a sight of it conveys an adequate idea of its tremendous bulk.

The gigantic locks are being outlined in concrete. The upper or lake level locks of the flight at Gatun is almost completed. The walls have almost reached their full height and the towering steel forms will soon be moved to the lower locks of which the floor has been practically completed.

A sprained ankle will usually disable the injured person for three or four weeks. This is due to lack of proper treatment. When Chamberlain's Liniment is applied a cure may be effected in three or four days. This liniment is one of the best and most remarkable preparations in use. Sold by all dealers.
