Newsy Notes of Pendleton

On Visit to Massachusetts.
 C. E. Macomber, the well known wheat buyer of this city, left Saturday evening on a trip to Massachusetts and will be gone about two months.

"Chicken Show" Orchestra Dance.
 The big United Orchestra that furnished the fine music during the Umattilla-Morrow poultry show all last week, have decided to give a grand ball at Eagle-Woodmen hall next Thursday night, Dec. 22.

Loses Wife, Seeks Another.
 William O. Jones, a well known young Indian of the reservation, returned today from a month's visit with friends in Montana and Idaho. He says his wife deserted him but thinks he can find another before Christmas comes.

Alberta Claire Leaves.
 Alberta Claire, the "girl from Wyoming" who has been appearing before the footlights for the past three nights in the Grand theatre, mounted her horse again this morning and, accompanied by her faithful dog, set out on the next lap of her journey from ocean to ocean.

Krutschmitt Was Here.
 J. Krutschmitt, director of maintenance of the Harriman lines passed through Pendleton about ten o'clock yesterday morning on a tour of inspection. He only stopped in the city for a few minutes, long enough to make a hurried inspection of the depot grounds. He was accompanied on his special train by J. P. O'Brien, vice president and general manager, J. D. Stack, assistant general manager, and W. Bollons, superintendent of the Oregon division of the O. R. & N. Their present trip takes them as far as Huntington.

Cupid Has Busy Day.
 Saturday afternoon was a red letter occasion for the little love god for in the space of a few hours six different couples had applied to the county clerk for tickets to the haven of marital bliss. Licenses were issued to the following persons: Robert Lee Pleshman of Union county, and Mintie Evalena Henderson of Umattilla county; Otis Hake and Della Robertson both of this county; William W. Brown and Eva Eldridge both of this county; Frank N. Smith and Ella May Piper, both of this county; Paul Bushman, Jr., and Irene Parr, both of this county; and Frank W. Breed of Walla Walla county, Washington, and Addie C. Davis of Umattilla county.

A Fake Fire Alarm.
 Somebody became unduly frightened at noon today when they saw smoke curling upwards from a trash fire in the rear of the house on the corner of Court and College streets occupied by some of the men in charge of the Twoby Brothers' construction work. A fire alarm was immediately turned in and the fire department followed by several hundred pedestrians, dashed up Court street, only to discover their mistake. A feature of the fake fire was the mad dash of Foreman Ryan in one of the Baker cabs. Someone had telephoned the young chief that his possessions were in danger of being incinerated and he was the first to arrive on the scene.

Dr. Smith Honored.
 At the meeting of the state board of health held in Portland recently Dr. C. J. Smith of this city was honored through being elected as vice president of the board for the coming year. Dr. Andrew C. Smith of Portland was made president. Dr. C. J. Smith took a prominent part in the proceedings of the board, he being the member to present the resolution asking the legislature to combine the offices of the state food and dairy commissioner and that of the state board of health. It is a move in the interests of greater efficiency and also greater economy. Other members of the state board are Dr. W. B. Morse, of Salem; Dr. E. B. Pickle, of Medford; Dr. Kinney of Astoria; Dr. E. A. Pierce of Portland, and Dr. C. S. White of Portland. Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian, also attended the session.

Slater Has Good Luck.
 It seems that Attorney R. J. Slater of this city had unusually good fortune in his mission to Washington, D. C., to urge the interior department to give him a favorable decision on the status of his desert land entry near this city. A Washington dispatch, in speaking of his visit, says: "As he entered the office of the department official who had the matter in charge, he found him in the act of signing a favorable decision. Slater had a desert claim of 320 acres, into which the reclamation service had cut with the Umattilla project and the service insisted that Slater must take water from the government project. The department of the interior rules that he need not do so. Many claims of like nature have been pending and will come under the ruling in Slater's case."

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orphan.
 Good program for Tuesday's change:

1. Shadows and Sunshine. Lubin, 1600 ft. long. An old man is dismissed from service in which he has been faithful for years, but he finds a large sum of money and is provided for the rest of his life.
2. Life of Mollere. Gaumont, 1000 ft. long. A sumptuous production, ranking high with other films and presenting features of staging which are remarkable for their beauty and truthfulness of their reproduction.
3. Love, Luck and Gasoline. Vitagraph, 1000 ft. long. A drama with a whizz, a flash and a dash that carries the audience, as well as the two lovers, to a happy finish. A motor boat race and a motor launch make things hum.

The Pastime.
 Tuesday's program follows. Four big reels for this show.

"The Roses of the Virgin." Kalem, drama. A sensational film depicting how some roses stolen from the image of the Virgin, where they had been laid as an offering, prevented the elopement of an innocent girl with a married man and restored her to her former lover.

"Romance on the Lazy K." Lubin comedy drama. A story of four loving hearts that for a time played at cross purposes but which were straightened out by a mock duel. Rex's arrival complicated the situation.

"The Secret of the Cellar." Urban drama. A truly impressive presentation of an old sergeant's devotion to his captain. Though blinded by the same shell which ends the life of his superior officer, he makes his way back to the captain's family in time to save them suffering at the hands of an impostor.

"A Trip Through Scotland." Eclipse, scenic. Some very interesting views of Scotland, including all the principal features encountered in a journey through Scotland.

"Won in the Desert." Selig drama. A story of much interest. Remember we have four reels 4000 ft. of latest motion pictures. "The Show of Quality."

The Cozy.
 The Gang Leader's Reform. (A Yankee film). Showing how a young society man had trouble over a gambling game and in order to get revenge he goes into the slums and employs a leader of a notorious gang of thugs to do the job for him, but after a long hard chase and some very hard fighting the officers finally capture him in his home under the docks, showing the pitiful scene of him being taken from his mother, wife and baby, and after 15 years of imprisonment he is turned out on the cold world, but by chance is met on the street by his daughter who has grown to young womanhood. She takes him home and there he is met by his wife and mother. The scene is very affecting. He at once reforms and goes to work at the trade he learned in prison. The reformation brings him happiness and respect from all. This a Yankee feature film.

shipwrecked; after floating on the wreckage for hours she is picked up by her former lover. (See "The result of Sunshine after Storm.") A very interesting drama.

Mistress and Maid. A young mistress and her maid arrive at a summer hotel to find out what strangers really think of her. The mistress changes places with her maid. The maid is now the mistress and the mistress is the maid. The life guard offers to teach the maid how to swim. Its fun being only a maid off for a row to the light house. She is made prisoner by the maid. "Keep that girl a prisoner and I'll pay you well. I am a prisoner in the upper room of the light house. Save me." The dog takes a message to her lover. This is very interesting.

Song, "When we listened to the chiming of the old church bell."
