

160 Acres Wheat Land

All fenced, good small house. Produced about 25 bu. per acre, $3000, $1000 cash, balance terms, or would trade for city property to value of about 1-2 the price of ranch. If you have trading property, call and see about this property.

112 ACRES on McKay creek, 10 acre orchard, 25 in alfalfa, fair house, good barn, fruit dryer, fine well water and plenty water for irrigation. This is splendid piece of property. Lee Cartwright formerly owned it and made money every year he was on the place. This place can be bought on easy terms; would consider small house in Pendleton in exchange; would require very little money to handle this piece; see about it today.

GOOD 5 ROOM HOUSE on Aura street worth $1650, can be bought for $1250. This is a snap; better see about it at once.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum.

1. Shadows and Sunshine. Lubin, 1000 ft. long. An old man is dismissed from service in which he has been faithful for years, but he finds a large sum of money and is provided for the rest of his life.

2. Life of Moliere. Gaumont, 1600 ft. long. A sumptuous production, ranking high with other films and presenting features of staging which are remarkable for their beauty and truthfulness of their reproduction.

3. Love, Luck and Gasoline. Vitagraph, 1000 ft. long. A drama with a whizz, a flash and a dash that carries the audience, as well as the two lovers, to a happy finish. A motor boat race and a motor launch make things hum.

The Pastime.

"The Roses of the Virgin." Kalem, drama. A sensational film depicting how some roses stolen from the image of the Virgin, where they had been laid as an offering, prevented the elopement of an innocent girl with a married man and restored her to her former lover.

"Romance on the Lazy K."

Lubin comedy drama. A story of four loving hearts that for a time played at cross purposes but which were straightened out by a mock duel. Rex's arrival complicated the situation.

"The Secret of the Cellar."

Urban drama. A truly impressive presentation of an old sergeant's devotion to his captain. Though blinded by the same shell which ends the life of his superior officer, he makes his way back to the captain's family in time to save them suffering at the hands of an impostor.

"A Trip Through Scotland."

Eclipse, scenic. Some very interesting views of Scotland, including all the principal features encountered in a journey through Scotland.

"Won in the Desert."

Selig drama. A story of much interest. Remember we have four reels 4000 ft. of latest motion pictures. "The Show of Quality."

The Gang Leader's Reform.

(A Yankee film). Showing how a young society man had trouble over a gambling game and in order to get revenge he goes into the slums and employs a leader of a notorious gang of thugs to do the job for him, but after a long hard chase and some very hard fighting the officers finally capture him in his home under the docks, showing the pitiful scene of him being taken from his mother, wife and baby, and after 15 years of imprisonment he is turned out on the cold world, but by chance is met on the street by his daughter who has grown to young womanhood. She takes him home and there he is met by his wife and mother. The scene is very affecting. He at once reforms and goes to work at the trade he learned in prison. The reformation brings him happiness and respect from all. This is a Yankee feature film.

Sunshine After Storm.

A young couple quarrel on the beach, she eloped with another man who promised to marry her—which he fails to do. After years of wandering she finally leaves him. In despair she is taken in by the salvation army, who sent her home and while at sea was shipwrecked; after floating on the wreckage for hours she is picked up by her former lover. (See the result of Sunshine after Storm.) A very interesting drama.

Mistress and Maid.

A young mistress and her maid arrive at a summer hotel to find out what strangers really think of her the mistress changes places with her maid. The maid is now the mistress and the mistress is the maid. The life guard offers to teach the maid how to swim. Its fun being only a maid off for a row to the light house. She is made prisoner by the maid. "Keep that girl a prisoner and I'll pay you well. I am a prisoner in the upper room of the light house. Save me." The dog takes a message to her lover. This is very interesting.

Song, "When we listened to the chiming of the old church bell."

Big Orchestra Dance.

In Eagle-Woodman hall, Thursday, December 22, 1910. Music by the big United Chicken Show" orchestra. Everybody invited.

AUDIENCE CALLS FOR MORE.

University of Oregon Men Make Merry With New Songs and Skits.

The Portland Oregonian gives the club the best write up ever: More! more! more!

That was what the audience at the Hellig theater demanded of the University of Oregon Glee and Mandolin club Saturday night.

Repeated encores of each number told the success of the university men, who are now in the middle of their annual tour. Theatrical stars have appeared at the Hellig this season; drama, musical comedy and opera have scored their successes; but no greater hit has been made than that of Saturday night. Every seat in the theater was occupied. It was a mixed audience of critical appearance and was swept away by college talent.

The performance and concert was not the average university "rah! rah!" and merriment of college life that carries with it recollections of youth and inspiration to the juvenile. It was a program of musical numbers, sketches and specialties that would give any audience its money's worth.

The feature of the entertainment was the presentation of William Lal, a Chinese tenor soloist. The audience looked for a comedy act, but when Lal appeared and sang it sat up and took notice. Lal not only has a fine voice but knows how to use it. In "I'll Sing Three Songs of Araby," Lal surprised the audience and received repeated encores. His nationality was not forgotten; it added to the enthusiasm.

The Suffragette Trio, written and sung by Rafael Geisler and Francis Curtis, both of Portland, and Jerry Martin, of Klamath Falls, was a sketch the audience appreciated with several encores. Attired in bloomers and peroxidized wigs, the trio appeared and the plaintive wail, "Oh, why don't Oregon let us vote?" at the end of each stanza, caused a loud demonstration in the audience. Their appearance in hobbies in response to one of the encores made a big hit.

In the closing sketch, "At Dope Center," the German bank, a good burlesque on "The Hungry Seven," minus one, was highly appreciated, and in response to the encore, Burns Powell played a trombone solo beyond the amateur class, and the audience was not satisfied until it heard more.

The sketch showed the Glee and Mandolin club marooned at a country tavern, the manager taking the best room in the house while "the boys" remained in the office, waiting for a train that was six hours late. To pass the time, the village constable was called, and as a joke he was introduced to the crowd as a congregation of German students. William Lal brought the house down when he answered the introduction in a palaver of Chinese.

I. M. Glen, the faculty member, who trained the club, also came in for his share of encores by singing in Italian, and each time the chorus and mandolin club appeared they were required to sing and play more.

If the University of Oregon and Mandolin club should appear it is safe to say that there would not be standing room.
