Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Leave on Southern Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. William Caldwell, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Blanche Caldwell, will leave this evening for a two months' trip through California and old Mexico.

Left on Goose Hunt.

Roland Oliver and Roscoe Frost left on the local this morning for the west end of the county where they will attempt to bag the wild geese in his native haunts. They have ordered a dray to meet their train tomorrow evening.

Newlyweds on Honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Walker, who were made man and wife yesterday in Weston, left on the local this morning for a short honeymoon trip. Mrs. Walker was formerly Miss Agnes Bullfinch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Bullfinch.

A Case of Measles.

Thelma Thompson, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thompson, is confined to her home on South Main street with an attack of the measles. According to Dr. C. J. Smith, who is attending the case, this is the first measles patient reported in two weeks.

Will Close Also.

By an unfortunate error, the names of Max Baer, F. E. Livengood, and the Boston Store were omitted in the list of institutions who will close their doors on the Mondays following Christmas and New Years. All three were among the first to sign the paper which gives the clerks two holidays.

Received Rice Shower.

Friends of Miss Helen Maud Terry that was, Mrs. W. F. Kull that is, gathered at the train this morning when the newly married couple left on their honeymoon trip and gave them a liberal shower of rice. The bride was formerly proprietor of the millinery department of the Peoples Warehouse.

Handed a Big Lemon.

J. S. Keys, district manager of the Bankers' Reserve Life Insurance company, is displaying a giant lemon which was sent to him from Houston, Texas, by Mrs. J. E. Miller, his mother-in-law. It is as large as a young pumpkin and would make enough lemonade for a score of people. Mrs. Miller also sent a box of persimmons which grow wild in the southern states.

Four Glory Tickets Issued.

County Clerk Frank Saling issued two marriage licenses yesterday afternoon and two more this morning, all the parties interested being from the county. Those yesterday were issued to Walter F. Kull and Helen M. Terry and Claude M. Eby and Pearl R. Morrow. Those this morning were issued to Charles Holmen and Dora Adams and Duncan McDonald and Maggie Watson.

Would Foreclose Lien.

Suit has been begun by Thomas Bros., against W. V. Norton to foreclose a lien which the plaintiffs have on the grain of the defendant. In the complaint it is alleged that the plaintiffs did harvesting work for the defendant to the amount of $350 and failing to collect that amount or any part thereof filed a lien on the latter's grain. Judgment for $50 attorney fees is also asked.

After Sacred Pictures.

At the story hour at the public library Saturday the story will be about the birth of Christ and the origin of Christmas, the story teller being Miss Waugh. To illustrate the talk it is desired to secure pictures of "The Three Wise Men" and of "The Nativity." Parties having those pictures and are willing to allow them used for this purpose are asked to notify Miss Fleck, the librarian.

Red Cross Stamps at P. O.

The ladies of the Current Literature club who have in charge the sale of the Red Cross Christmas stamps have established a station in the Baum's store in the postoffice building so that people who are mailing packages can procure the little seals without inconvenience. They have a large supply on hand and will attempt to turn over a large sum from the sales to the National Red Cross society to assist in the fight against tuberculosis.

Post Office a Busy Place.

The gift season is already on in earnest at the local postoffice where, during the great part of the day there has been a jam of people about the registry and stamp windows, all waiting to buy stamps or mail parcels, which for the most part had a Santa Clausian appearance. Yesterday was also a good day in the money order department, the sales being as heavy as those of any day for several weeks. Although there is a considerable increase of work in the office, the force of clerks is taking care of the parcels as fast as they come.

Sue to Collect Notes.

Two suits have been instituted in the circuit court for the collection of money due on notes given. The first was filed by Attorney James A. Fee for E. L. Smith against A. G. McCarty asking judgment for a balance of $1302.10 on an original note for $3,077.76 with interest, $150 attorney fees and disbursements. The second was filed by Lowell and Winter for the Commercial National bank of Fargo, N. D., against J. L. Coleman and F. E. Ball and asked for judgment against the defendants for $1325 and interest due on a note. The note was given by Coleman but was endorsed later by Ball.

Attorney J. P. Neal of Freewater, will arrive on the Spokane train this evening to attend the concert of the Oregon Glee club this evening at the Oregon theater.

COLLEGE WARBLERS APPEAR HERE TONIGHT

Fresh from their conquest of the Willamette valley and Portland, a full score of rah rah boys representing the University of Oregon Glee club will arrive in Pendleton at 5.15 this evening to sing their way into the hearts of Pendleton people. It has been two years since the city has been invaded by college warblers and their appearance tonight will be right welcome. The curtain will be held until 9 o'clock on the request of the merchants whose clerks are desirous of attending the concert.

Several of the glee boys are known in Pendleton. Glen Storie, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Storie, is a prominent member of the tenor section and takes a leading part in the closing sketch. Tom Burke, leader of the club, is a brother of Harry Burke, formerly connected with the East Oregonian, and has many friends in the city. Burns Powell, leader of the hungry four quartet, has been in Pendleton several times with McElroy's band, with which organization he plays each summer. Lloyd Barzee, a member of the bass section, visited with Principal A. C. Hampton and Harold Warner last fall and made many friends here.

Alumni of the University of Oregon in the city are planning to welcome the boys cordially. They will fill the boxes at the theater and will intersperse a few college yells between the numbers on the program. After the concert, the visiting collegians will be entertained at the various homes in the city.

R. W. Fletcher, circulation manager of the East Oregonian, left on the local this morning for the west end of the county, where he is spending the day in connection with his department of the paper.
