

160 Acres Wheat Land

All fenced, good small house. Produced about 25 bu. per acre. $8000, $1000 cash, balance terms, or would trade for city property to value of about 1-2 the price of ranch. If you have trading property, call and see about this property.

112 ACRES on McKay creek, 10 acre orchard, 25 in alfalfa, fair house, good barn, fruit dryer, fine well water and plenty water for irrigation. This is splendid piece of property. Lee Cartwright formerly owned it and made money every year he was on the place. This place can be bought on easy terms; would consider small house in Pendleton in exchange; would require very little money to handle this piece; see about it today.

GOOD 5 ROOM HOUSE on Aura street worth $1650, can be bought for $1250. This is a snap; better see about it at once.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Pendleton Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. Valentine Stroble, 738 Johnson street, Pendleton, Oregon, says: "About two years ago I suffered from kidney complaint and when a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills I did so. This remedy disposed of severe backaches that had kept me awake at night and benefited me in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

LIFE OF SOLDIER IS BEING DISCUSSED

MAJOR WOOD TALKS ON COMFORTS OF ENLISTED MEN

The Soldier's Canteen, Uniform, and Shoes are Principal Points Touched Upon in Elaborate Report—Would Have Men to do Non-Military Work.

Dropping from the heights of technical maneuvers and the finer points of the war game, Major General Leonard Wood has submitted an extraordinary report dealing with the common places of the enlisted man's comfort.

The report was written by General Wood as the commander of the department of the East but was submitted to the Adjutant General, after he became Chief of Staff and therefore is taken as criticism by the active head of the army.

Within the sphere of the enlisted man, General Wood in this report touches upon three points; the soldier's canteen or post saloon; his uniform—particularly his shoes—and the desirability of establishing a general service corps of men employed to do all the non-military work.

The crisp and blunt recommendation of General Wood that the army canteen be re-established is one with which most every army officer would agree but not one probably which all would incorporate in an official report. General Wood bases this suggestion upon the assertion that the canteen is for the best interests of the army.

Several years ago the W. C. T. U. and other temperance organizations succeeded in putting through congress an order abolishing the post saloon where the soldier bought light beer, tobacco and played pool and cards. Since then the American soldier has gone outside of his post when he wished to buy liquor. As a consequence the gates of the army posts are now fringed with a series of green swinging doors on buildings from which sounds the discords of electric pianos and in which the soldier is not limited to beer but is induced to drink cheap brands of whiskey.

The soldiers themselves are bitterly opposed to these parasite saloons outside of posts and in some instances have wrecked them. Charges of robbery have been made against the proprietors of some of them. Many officers of the army now believe that it is far better to allow the soldier to drink beer inside a post than to drink poor whiskey outside. General Wood openly declares himself an advocate of the post saloon.

Discussing the dress of the enlisted men, General Wood lays great stress upon the need of a more careful inspection of the soldier's shoes. He goes so far as to say that the present proportion of ill fitting shoes among the private soldiers of the infantry branch of the army seriously handicaps their efficiency in field service.

"Reports of feet inspection show a very large proportion of ill fitting shoes," says Wood, "with a resulting condition of feet which would quickly incapacitate these soldiers for duty in case of field service."

"This is so common an occurrence as to warrant the issuance of general instructions to apply throughout the army to the effect that the fitting of shoes shall be supervised by an officer, and that there shall be at least one monthly inspection of the men's feet by the medical officers with a view to correcting such conditions of unsoundness as exist and calling attention to those cases where it is evident that the men's shoes do not fit them. This is a subject which demands serious and constant attention."

The suggestion is made in the report that a third army reserve be established composed of men who have been honorably discharged from the regular service or the militia who could be paid nominal salaries by the war department. They would keep the department constantly advised of their addresses. The only duty for these reserves suggested by General Wood is that they attend a yearly maneuver. Thus there would always be at the call of the army a reserve body of men who in the past have received military instructions, freshened up every year with field maneuvers.

Severe condemnation is made of the too frequent practice of hauling a soldier up for trial for some minor offense.

"It indicates," says the report, "an incapacity on the part of commanding officers to understand the human side of command, and results only too often in breaking down the self respect of the soldier and rendering him careless of results. General Wood says that he favors the establishment of a system of discipline for unruly soldiers looking to their reform as well as their punishment. He objects to the application of the term 'convict' to soldiers who are dishonorably discharged from the service because of their having been convicted of five previous offences which are in many instances minor offences. This, he says, is apt to destroy in a large measure their future usefulness as citizens."

General Wood recommends frequent travel for field officers in order that they may observe the maneuvers of well trained bodies of troops. He suggests that as many officers as possible be given an opportunity of observing the work of the European armies.

PERIDOT STONES OF ANCIENT EGYPT

A deposit of "peridots" has recently been discovered in Alexandria within a stone's throw of where the Cleopatra's Needle, now in Central Park, once stood.

These stones, which are amber in color, for many years have been found in large quantities in Upper Egypt, but never before in this section of the country. The finder has secured a concession to work the ground, and has uncovered several thousand of these stones at a depth not greater than 10 feet. It is believed that the peridots were buried in the foundations of houses of the ancient Egyptians and in tombs as an omen of luck.

The stones now found are estimated to have been buried over 1500 years. Their value is not great, the price of the stone of the average weight of 3 carats being $1. The discoverers of the Alexandria deposit have also secured a concession to work ground on the islands of Rahamah and Kad-Ali near Assab, in Red Sea territory belonging to Italy. Some peridots have recently been found there and it is believed the deposit is a large one never before mined.

TAKE CARE!

Remember that when your kidneys are affected, your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "Foley Kidney Pills are a wonderful discovery and I heartily recommend their use. My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse each day. I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent with a fine sand-like substance. While the disease was at its worst I started using Foley Kidney Pills. Their prompt and efficient action was marvellous. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years." A. C. Koeppe and Bros.

Bird Men Out Early.

Los Angeles, Calif., Dec. 24.—Before sunrise today Domingues field was alive with scores of hurrying mechanics putting the finishing touches on aeroplanes for the Los Angeles meet scheduled to begin this afternoon. Bright sun and crisp air give promise of perfect aviation conditions.

It is believed that more open competition will result than has been offered in the eastern meets as the result of the valuable prizes offered for each day's sport.

The Wrights will be represented by such flyers as Hoxsey and Walter Brooks. Latham represents France, Bradley England. Glen Curtis has eight machines on the grounds.

It will be a battle between Curtis and the Wrights for supremacy.

A SIMPLE SAFEGUARD FOR MOTHERS.

Mrs. D. Gilkeson, 325 Ingles avenue, Youngstown, Ohio, gained wisdom by experience. "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat and after only one bottle her throat and lungs were entirely free from inflammation. Since then I always keep a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar in the house as I know it is a sure cure for coughs and colds." A. C. Koeppe and Bros.

O'Connell is Inspector.

Washington, Dec. 24.—Postmaster General Hitchcock announced today the appointment of James O'Connell of California as inspector in charge of the postoffice inspection division with headquarters at Spokane, Wash. The division comprises Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Alaska. Mr. O'Connell for several years has been ranking city inspector at San Francisco.

The Correct Time

to stop a cough or cold is just as soon as it starts—then there will be no danger of pneumonia or consumption. Just a few doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup taken at the start will stop the cough. ## STUDENTS ENJOY ATHLETIC TRAINING

(University Bulletin.)

The movement initiated at the University of Oregon last year to lay a greater stress upon a more general athletic training for all the students within the institution, with the possible ultimate end of limiting the official Director of Athletics, is already showing excellent results. Physicist Director Hayward reports one hundred eighty men regularly playing basketball alone. Between class recitations the students haunt the gymnasium, working out on the apparatus, on the mat, with the gloves, with basketball, handball, and on the indoor track. Work in the gymnasium for the girls is also a requirement, under the competent medical attention of the Women's Director, Dr. Bertha S. Stuart.

As a result of this general athletic activity, the students, as a whole, probably enjoy better health than at any other time in the history of the University. The departments also report better work in classes, which they attribute largely to the healthier physical and mental condition of the students. The University authorities are encouraging this general athletic activity as much as possible, as it is helping in the solution of problems which affect materially the welfare of the students. Beginning with the second semester in February, it is the plan of the Physical Training Department to get every man in the University actively interested in track, soccer, rugby, lacrosse, baseball, or tennis.

Two States Claim Town.

Citizens of Union City, Indiana, and several other towns on the eastern boundary of Indiana are anxious to learn just where they "are at." Surveyors allege that the strip of country along the Indiana-Ohio border in which these municipalities are located, now belong to Indiana, is really a part of Ohio. If this claim should be sustained, thousands of people who now consider themselves Hoosiers would be transformed into Buckeyes.
