

"Nature's Gift from the Sunny South"

Cottolene

Shortens your food—Lengthens your life

The source and making of Cottolene insures its purity. From the white, tufty tops of The Sunny Southland's cotton the seed is removed, the oil extracted, refined and made neutral in taste and odor. From Cotton-field to Kitchen—human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made.

Compare the source of Cottolene with the source of lard, and draw your own conclusions as to the comparative cleanliness, purity and healthfulness of the two products.

NEW SERVICE FOR TELEGRAPH PATRONS

Effective January 1, 1911, arrangements have been made to extend to every telephone subscriber of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company the privilege of sending and receiving Western Union telegrams by telephone. It has been the practice for some time for the Western Union to handle telegrams in the larger cities by telephone to as large an extent as practicable, but with the introduction of this new plan, it is intended to give subscribers of telephones at outlying points and those for whom the subscribers will vouch the privilege of handling telegrams over the telephone in a systematic and up-to-date manner, which will allow people, who desire to avail themselves of this service, a very much greater latitude than has heretofore been given and a much more satisfactory and complete service will be performed in connection with the arrangement.

The Western Union Telegraph company has established a number of new all night telegraph offices on the Pacific coast and within the state of Washington, Seattle, Spokane, Tacoma, North Yakima and Walla Walla, have been designated as offices which will remain open all night, and also on Sundays and holidays, and in the state of Oregon, Portland, Eugene, Baker, Ashland, and The Dalles, have been designated as central points for the purpose of handling telegrams.

It is the intention with in a certain area to have these all night offices handle telegrams which are destined to offices that have been closed for the night. That is, if a telegram is addressed to a person who is a subscriber to a telephone at some point within a limited distance of the Western Union all night office, such party will be notified that a telegram has been received for him and the city or town from which this telegram originates will be stated. Then if he desires to have the telegram forwarded to him by telephone, it will be done with the usual telephone rates added. Likewise should the subscriber wish to send a telegram in the middle of the night to some party at a considerable distance he may request the telephone company to connect him with the Western Union all-night office and the telegram may be started on its journey without the least delay. This virtually makes every telephone subscriber's residence an all-night telegraph office and he will have the privilege of sending and may receive telegrams at any hour of the night regardless of whether the local telegraph office is open or closed.

CARELESS ABOUT APPENDICITIS IN PENDLETON
Many Pendleton people have chronic appendicitis which is carelessly treated as if it were ordinary bowel or stomach trouble. If you have wind or gas in the stomach or bowels, sour stomach or constipation, try simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler's-I-ka, the new German appendicitis remedy. Pendleton Drug Co states that A SINGLE DOSE of this simple remedy will relieve any bowel or stomach trouble.

ABANDON COLLEGE YELL? NEVER, SAYS COLLEGIAN

Provost Edgar F. Smith, University of Pennsylvania, comes to the rescue of the college yell, recently condemned by President Lowell of Harvard. Dr. Smith says:

"I know little or nothing about music, but I do know that there is nothing more inspiring on fit occasions than the college yell, while the college songs always appealed to me. 'Abolish the yells?' By no means. As well think of abolishing the three cheers for the Stars and Stripes. The college yell expresses essentially the same enthusiasm and is equally inspiring. Some college yells are more inspiring than others, of course, depending largely on the institution to which one is attached, but all serve their purpose and I doubt if they do any permanent injury."

PART OF BRAIN REMOVED.
With Five Square Inches of Skull Gone, Patient Can Talk.

Although five square inches of his skull and a part of his brain are gone Claude Stafford, nineteen years old, of Peru, Kan., is recovering from a bullet wound received in Talala, Ok. Stafford is conscious and carries on an intelligent conversation. He was shot by the Talala town marshal.

The old saw says, "Let a sleeping dog lie." Right. Still, when there is much at stake, it is better to get a newspaper to do it.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum.
1. "Pale." Melies, 1000 feet long. There is something of the real sort about this picture that makes us feel the strength of real friendship and the vileness of enemies. It is altogether a fine and dandy picture.

2. "The Widow of Mill Creek Flat." Selig, 1000 feet long. To be married or not to be, that is the question—or is there more real happiness in conjugal bliss than single blessedness? This remains for you to judge after seeing how Sandy, a miner in a western placer camp, allows the ship of state to founder on the rocks of domestic unrest.

3. "The Tie That Binds." Essanay, 1000 feet long. A full reel of comedy drama with a strong appeal to every heart. The story is dramatic, but there are many little touches of comedy which arouse hearty laughter.

The Pastime.
"A Child's Stratagem." Biograph drama. A story of unreasonable jealousy on the part of a wife who imagines her husband is devoting too much attention to other women. How the little one prevents a domestic disaster is interesting to say the least. Without any semblance of dramatic crisis, the picture tells a story that can be duplicated often enough to appear real to a number in most any audience consequently it will prove attractive.

"A Western Woman's Way." Essanay drama. Big Bill Todd, a worthless wanderer from Dead Horse camp falls in with Dick Broadhurst a young miner. He arouses the sympathy of Broadhurst who takes him home, feeds him and gives him work, in return for his kindness he robs his benefactor, and is making a getaway when Mrs. Broadhurst acts with characteristic western expediency. Seizing a gun she starts in pursuit and it is an exciting finish.

"Who is Nellie." Pathe comedy. A story of injustice done an innocent man.

"Falls of the Imatra, Finland." Pathe scenic. A colored picture showing this little known rapids and falls. The mechanical work has been done well and the audience becomes most enthusiastic over the different effects obtained.

At the Cosy.
"The Wild Flower and the Rose." Imp film. The great aviation picture. See the aeroplanes in flight.

"Bachelor's Misfortune." Comedy. A button strainer. If you can't laugh

TWAIN

A New Edition

Now for the first time you get a complete set of all Mark Twain's writings at just exactly one-half the price they have ever been sold before. This is a new edition, just as complete as the old one, which still sells, by the way, at $50.00. This new edition is only $25.00—for the 25 volumes.

It had been Mark Twain's ambition to have his books in every American home, and he made a great personal sacrifice to bring about this remarkable opportunity—for the first time in the history of publishing, copyrighted books are sold at the price of non-copyrighted books—the chance will not come again.

But for Mark Twain's action this would have been impossible. Never before has a copyrighted library set of a standard author's works been issued at such a low figure.

His Complete Works—25 Beautiful Volumes

Brander Matthews says: "Mark Twain will be included in that group of writers headed by Moliere and Cervantes. With the exception of Count Tolstoi, Twain was the greatest of recent modern writers, and will be handed down to posterity through the trio of his works 'Huckleberry Finn,' 'Tom Sawyer,' and 'Pudd'nhead Wilson.' Twain is a greater stylist than Stevenson or Thoreau, and his 'Man that Corrupted Hadleyburg' is one of the finest works in English literature." Mark Twain himself wrote a preface to this edition. Brander Matthews has written the biographical criticism of Mark Twain and his work. There are portraits of the author at periods when the different books were in process of writing.

There are beautiful pictures by such artists as Frost, Newell, Smedley, Thulstrup, Clinebinst, Kemble, and Oppen. The binding is in rich red rep silk book cloth, with title labels stamped in gold. The books are printed on white antique wove paper, especially made for this edition. Each volume is of generous size and bulk, 5 3/4 inches.
