LOCAL ELKS ARRANGE FOR ONE BIG TIME

That the First Annual stag social by Pendleton lodge No. 288 B. P. O. E. will be an interesting affair is indicated by the program that has been prepared for the event. Here is the menu as announced by the committee in charge:

- What do you know about this? If you save money; YOU'RE A GROUCH. If you spend it; YOU'RE A LOAFER. If you get it; YOU'RE A GRAFTER. If you don't get it; YOU'RE A BUM.

So what the h— is the use, Bill; come out with the boys for one night.

Brother Frank Hennessey, a prominent German or Swedish member of Portland lodge will be here and will act as ringmaster. He will show you how to make the wheels go round and round and round—everything he says soes and everything he forgets to say soes just the same. Assisting him will be our own Exalted Ruler, Brother Frank Quinlan, in his new role, entitled "Toodles, the Original Candy Kid."

We will also have the noted Swede Singers and Yodellers, the famous Bro. O'Keefe, Bro. O'Connor, Bro. A. Sullivan in touching bullets and ballads.

Brother Tommy Thompson will come out of his hole and chirp like a gopher. This event will be framed and hung on the walls of the club.

Don't fail to come and see our own Bro. T. C. Taylor, as the original Bowery boy. He will attempt to smoke 10 cigarettes in one minute. Watch his smoke. Pools will be sold on this stunt before the event takes place, a percentage of all bets go to the house.

Bro. Stuffy Lampkin will appear in a cage and do the Sarah Bernhardt laugh.

Hear that famous recitation: "The Punk is on the pumpkin The ache is in your corns, The cabman drives the cabbage From the farm at early morn."

With the 99 other stanzas by Brother Charles J. Ferguson.

Bro. Thomas Smart, Pendleton's famous entertainer will recite: "When Ireland Shall be Free," and will respond to the encore with a song in his well-known falsetto (that has often drawn tears) "The Ache of the Irish Tooth."

Our own "Hanz," Bro. H. W. Collins, will sing, "Two Can Live as Cheap as One." He's convinced and intends to try.

By special arrangements, (keep it quiet and don't make it public so the cops get wise) a six round bout between the bantam champion of the Innaha Athletic Club, Brother J. Ross Dickson, and the noted feather-weight champion of the Coe Athletic Sanitarium, Bro. Jimmy Kyle.

Brother W. A. Brown, the man with the hair lip will tell the bunch the story of "Let'er Buck," and will respond to an encore, "You Wouldn't Know the Old Place Now."

Bro. Geo. Darveau and Bro. Gus La Fontaine, the acrobatic artists will do three complete evolutions on the trapeze and hang by their eyebrows from the horizontal bar, dressed in green tights with calcium light effect.

If you happen to get stung Don't get sore at the world And call it rotten; Maybe it's only your own judgment. Bro. Fred Judd will do the split act. Red Raven or any other kind.

Great hammer throwing contest, open to knockers only. This event will take place on the roof.

Bro's Spell, Buck and Earl, the store room trio, will appear in a comedy sketch—dressed in a silk hat.

Bro. Bill Dedman, the heavyweight will wrestle with a canary bird for points. Bros. C. Cooley and B. Bailey will be the judges.

Between events the famous "Stale Beer Orchestra," Parkes, Cheshire, Godeck and Folsom, will discourse agonizing strains.

The great mind reader, Bro. L. G. Frazier. He will tell the color of any man's hair, eyes, and teeth, simply by looking at him.

See that great mathematician Bro. W. L. Thompson. He will tell you at once how much you have in your pocket simply by the size of your wad.

Bro. Till O Taylor, the pursuit man will collect all concealed weapons at the door—cork screws, eggs, etc.

That wonderful Oriental danseuse, Bro. George Ferguson, the favorite dancer of the Sultan's Harem will dance "The Soul Kiss Waltz" in a neekie and red spats.

Bro. Doc Blakeslee, will address us on the subject, "The City Council Did Not Issue Enough Saloon Licenses, or Outside of That Everything is Alright."

Bro. Mark Moorhouse will bellow like a bull and try and make you realize the importance of the 8 per cent proposition.

Disasters Bros. McNabb and Lytle will be on hand in case of an emergency.

Brother George Strand, the famous hand-cuff and lock king. See him. He has been known to go in and out of the Umatilla county jail every day for a week.

To prevent a riot the committee have also secured the services of the artists of the "Stubborn Cinderella Company" who will be with us after the show.

See "Roosey" as the Okhoond of Swat, and Frank Frazier in the Salome dance.

Fix things at home so you won't miss it—what's the use.

Bro. Jack Watson, a rusty haired lad from Dublin who came over as understudy to a Dutch foreman in a cheese foundry, will discourse on "Milestones in Irish History." He will give special attention to the charge of the milk wagon brigade in the battle of the Boyne.

LIKE ESAU, SELLS RIGHT.

When He Hears of the Transaction Father Dishherits Son.

Sterling, Ill.—A story that parallels the Bible story of Esau's selling his birthright to his brother Jacob came to light when the records of the Circuit Clerk's office of Whiteside county showed that Thomas Broderick, son of John Broderick of Clyde township, sold his inheritance in his father's estate to his cousin, James Broderick of this city for $1,000.

The instrument was executed December 31, 1909, but was not filed until the other day. In this instrument James Broderick, Jr., of this city gives to Thomas Broderick, his cousin, $1,000 for Thomas' share of the property after the death of the father.

Following the filing of the document John Broderick went to the office of his attorney and had his will changed. In the codicil he gives all of his property to his daughter.

BALLOON TRIP THE CAUSE.

Romance of Flight Culminates in Wedding of Aeromauts.

Pittsfield, Mass.—A romance that began with a balloon flight from Pittsfield, July 17, 1909, culminated when Miss Blanch Edith Hulse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Schuyder Hulse, of Pittsfield, and Doctor Sidney S. Stowell, a Pittsburg dentist, were married.

Dr. Stowell met Miss Hulse for the first time that day at Aero Park. He dared her to take a trip with him in the balloon Pittsfield. She accepted. They reached an altitude of two miles. The doctor was pilot and he brought the balloon safely to earth at Shelbourne Falls, Mass., fifty miles away from Pittsfield.

The bride is a nurse, graduating from Bellevue Hospital, New York. She is about 30 years old. The doctor is 40.

ARGENTINE STUDENTS HERE.

Pennsylvania Gets First in Proposed Exchange of University Men.

Henry Gill, from the University of La Plata, Argentina, has arrived at the University of Pennsylvania to study advanced political science and institutions of the United States.

He is the first student to figure in the interchange of university men which has been so strongly advocated by Secretary Knox and which was the subject of a special resolution at the recent Pan-American congress held in Buenos Ayres.

It is planned to have students from United States universities go to Latin-American institutions and in exchange have Latin-American students come to the United States. This, it is hoped, will strengthen the intellectual ties between Latin-American nations and the United States.

Choir Benefit.

On Friday evening January 6, a musical will be given at the home of Mrs. J. R. Dickson, by members of the choir of the Church of the Redeemer. No tickets will be sold but a free-will offering will be taken. All are invited.

A sharp is not necessarily a man with good points.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum.

Good program for Friday's change 1. "The Preacher's Wife." Vitagraph, 1000 feet long. A drama in which the unyielding prejudice of self instituted morals came near wrecking two lives, and is corrected by the rebellion against them of a young wife. The picture teaches the harmful influence and effects of intolerance of the self-righteous.

2. "The Return at Midnight." Urban, 500 feet long. A French drama. A young man is cast off because he marries the woman of his choice and later he is taken in by the father and he and his Gypsy wife are made welcome.

3. "A Trip Through Ceylon." Urban, 1000 feet long. A travelogue of merit, presenting a series of interesting views of this island.

4. "The Cowboy's Vindication." Esanay, 1000 feet long. This is an excellent picture. The plot develops situations of intense and gripping interest, with a deep appeal to every heart. The atmosphere is typical of the west and the film contains glimpses of western scenes of great beauty.

5. "Train Wreckers." Edison film, 1000 feet long.

Pastime Theater.

A strong program for Friday's change.

"A Mountain Maid." The main idea of this story is original and a long way out of the beaten path of love stories and picture dramas. Although it is a theatrical story in the true sense of the word, many of the scenes are laid in the mountains of Tennessee, and they are exceptionally beautiful in their character.

"A Woman's Love." What man has sounded the depths of woman's love? Even though her former lover forgot her when he was prosperous she remembered him when he became blind and poor and sought him out, took him home and cared for him when all others forsook him. That is the interpretation put upon the depth of a woman's love by this dramatic photography.

"What Great Bear Learned." An Indian drama. The characters of the scheming Mexicans will be recognized as lifelike. The duel with knives is a thrilling bit of work and well executed.

"Teddy Bears." Edison, 1000 feet. Let the children see this. Four full reels, 4000 feet of latest motion pictures. "The Show of Quality."

At the Cosy. "In the Gray of the Dawn." A soul stirring drama that will keep your interest every second. Passion, love and sorrow so that you can hear a pin drop.

"Solving the Bond Hest." A melodrama of crookedness, wrong and great detective work. Something doing every minute.

"The Lock-Keeper." The great mechanical reproduction. See the canal, the locks, the great life saving act.

Illustrated song, "What's the Matter with Father?"

MORAL LOBBY UNPLEASANT FOR NEW CONGRESS

It is certain that the new congress will have an influence to combat of which it will not be fond. This influence will be exerted by the International reform bureau, which is at work with a militant spirit which refuses to be cast down. It has eight bills, by means of which, to use its own words, it hopes to make "the laws of Christ to some degree the laws of the world." Its peculiar application will take effect in persuasive arguments to Congressmen who always have ready pleas to be excused from legislative work because of lack of time, especially during short sessions.

The international bureau does much of its work by correspondence, a fact which is developing the knowledge that the influence of the letter writer is greater than that of the lobbyist who personally appears at the capitol. Ex-Senator Henry W. Blair is the president of the bureau, which has the support of churches, reform societies and all kinds of organizations whose purpose is to elevate the moral character of the upper and lower houses of congress.
