Trenton, N. J., Jan. 8.—Hearing in the United States circuit court of the habeas corpus proceedings instituted with a view to preventing the extradition to Italy of Porter Charlton, the self-confessed wife murderer, was resumed today. The main issue to be decided is the sanity or insanity of the young man who admitted, upon his return to this country some months ago, that he had slain his beautiful American wife at Lake Como, Italy. If necessary to prevent the extradition of Charlton, the case will be carried to the United States supreme court.

Saint Paul's School, Walla Walla, Washington, day and boarding school for girls. Second Semester begins February 1. (Miss) Nettie M. Galbraith, principal.
"Straight time" and $1500 are the terms of the settlement of the O. R. & N. company recently made with Cloyd Belts, the brakeman whose foot was injured in a railroad accident near La Grande, several months ago.
Belts is a Pendleton boy and it will be remembered that at the time of the accident the reports were that the foot was so badly crushed it would have to be amputated. Later, however, it was found that he could escape with the loss of the great toe. He was compelled to use crutches for several weeks and will probably be lame for the remainder of his life.
He contemplated bringing suit against the company, but as the terms of the settlement offered by the railroad are entirely satisfactory he will not file a complaint for damages.

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR THE ROUNDUP FUND

At 8:30 tomorrow morning the sub-committees appointed to raise the $12,000 fund for the Round-up will meet in the office of Secretary Gwinn and soon thereafter the big campaign for the fund will be undertaken.
That the committees will meet with success in raising the amount needed is firmly believed by George Hartman, Jr., chairman of the finance committee, who has been sounding out the situation some today. Already $1200 has been pledged with practically no effort on the part of the solicitors. Four local concerns, R. Alexander, The Peoples Warehouse, The American National bank, and the First National bank, all subscribed $300 each.
The following is the form of the subscription list to which local people will be asked to subscribe tomorrow:
"For the purpose of purchasing grounds, erecting a grand stand, bleachers and track and other improvements all of which are to belong to the city we hereby subscribe the amounts set opposite our respective names. The amounts so donated to be paid in five installments, one fifth on April 1 and one fifth May 1, one fifth June 1, one fifth July 1 and one fifth August 1, or sooner at the option of the subscriber."

RUBBERLESS AUTOMOBILE TIRES ARE INVENTED

Washington.—Tidings from England herald the invention of an automobile tire with all the good qualities of a pneumatic tire but containing no rubber. This remarkable step in the progress of auto improvements is conclusively described by Consul General John L. Griffiths in a report from London, as follows:
"The springs are made of slightly tapered strips of special steel coiled spirally in such a way that the greater part of each turn is within the preceding one, and that under sufficient compression the whole of the inner coils can be forced within the outermost one. To the surfaces of the links which roll on the ground are cemented blocks of a hard composition of fiber and gutta-percha compacted under pressure, and these it is stated, can be renewed when worn away at a cost of 97 cents to $1.22 for each wheel.
"The aim of the invention has been to imitate the action of the pneumatic tire. An obstacle such as a stone does not cause the whole wheel to rise, as in the case with an ordinary iron-tired wheel, but as it is, swallowed up, the link or links immediately effected yielding by virtue of the hinges and bringing into play the resiliency not merely of one or two of the springs, but of the whole of them round the entire circumference.
"The wheel is intended for use on heavy commercial vehicles and motor omnibuses, to give them the benefit of the pneumatic tire with the employment of no particle of rubber. Another advantage claimed is immunity from side slip, while dust is sucked up to a much smaller extent than with pneumatic tires."

BELTS PAID $1500 FOR FOOT INJURY

"Straight time" and $1500 are the terms of the settlement of the O. R. & N. company recently made with Cloyd Belts, the brakeman whose foot was injured in a railroad accident near La Grande, several months ago.
Belts is a Pendleton boy and it will be remembered that at the time of the accident the reports were that the foot was so badly crushed it would have to be amputated. Later, however, it was found that he could escape with the loss of the great toe. He was compelled to use crutches for several weeks and will probably be lame for the remainder of his life.
He contemplated bringing suit against the company, but as the terms of the settlement offered by the railroad are entirely satisfactory he will not file a complaint for damages.

THE UNITED PRESS SCORES ANOTHER BEAT

W. W. Hawkins, manager of the Washington bureau of the United Press, last Tuesday obtained from President Taft what his association thinks is the first personal interview on a question of national importance that was ever granted a newspaper man by a president of the United States.

In accomplishing this feat Mr. Hawkins gave the United Press the chance on that day of printing the personal opinion of President Taft on a permanent tariff commission.

Mr. Hawkins is well known in the newspaper field and has been with the United Press for a number of years. Before going to Washington he was with the Pacific coast bureau.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

At the Orpheum.
Vaudeville all this week in addition to the regular program for the same price of admission, 10c, children 5c. Program as follows:
1. Harrison and Harris, colored, in their laughable sketch, "Forty Miles from New York Town."
2. "The Stepmother." Selig, 1000 feet long. A good drama.
3. "Tale the Mirror Told." Pathe, 5000 feet long. A well arranged story in which a mirror plays the part of spy.
4. "What a Dinner." Pathe, 500 feet long. A comic presentation of the nightmare which followed the eating of a big dinner.
5. "Circle C. Ranch's Wedding Present." Essanay. A lively western comedy detailing the fortunes of a young woman who was called west to teach the cowboys on Circle C ranch the rudiments of learning. None of the boys fall in love with her but a young man from the east does and the wedding present is the teacher's little mother, to whom the boys send the money to come to her daughter.
6. "Davy Jones' Domestic Troubles." Vitagraph, 1000 feet long. A comedy taken from the life of an old friend, "Davy Jones," the celebrated fun maker. In the picture he ploughs the sea, runs the sand and gathers the wind in a net when he places his heart in a woman.
Pastime Theater.
"The Show of Quality." Tuesday's program:
"Love's Awakening." The story of a false young man who forgot his country sweetheart under the influence of a city girl, but when the city girl refuses him suddenly, remembered the girl he left behind him. And like many others he discovers that his memory came too late. A truer man was accepted in his place.
"Spoonie Sam." A snappy comedy, 1000 feet long, dealing very creditably with this well known character.
"The Death of Admiral Coligny." The story deals with the plans of the wicked queen mother, Catherine de Medici, aimed at the political influence of Admiral Coligny, leader of the opposition party. The first arranges an attempt on the life of Coligny. The crime goes unavenged and the Huguenots murmur at the death of their beloved leader. Catherine makes this the excuse for persuading her wretched son, Charles IX, to sign the order for their massacre. A wonderful scene shows the queen mother obtaining the reluctant consent of the unhappy Charles.

Monday and Tuesday we present in conjunction with our motion pictures, "On Top of the World with the Alaska Musher and His Eskimo Dogs." Hear his illustrated lecture on his many years' experience in the frozen north.

At the Cosy.
"A Ward of Uncle Sam." A story of two little Russian orphans. The little boy is raised in America, fights in the war against Spain and after 20 years returns to see his blind sister. He protects her from the insults of Russian nobility and is backed up by an American battleship. Something doing every minute.
"A Jealous Wife's New Year's Day." A screamingly funny comedy. Depicting the woes of matrimony when the green eyed monster of jealousy intrudes.
"Norwegian Water Fall." An exquisite subject beautifully tinted.
"Just Revenge." A story of the Alps. The rejected suitor by a dastardly trick causes the old guide's daughter to fall from a narrow foot-bridge to the depths of a ravine. See her lover's terrible revenge.
"Proscovia." A story of Russia. By saving the governor general's child from death in a deep chasm, Proscovia wins a pardon for her own father who has been cast into exile in Siberia. A picturesque story.
Song, "Good Night, Dear."

Noise proves nothing. Often a hen who has merely laid an egg cackles as if she had laid an asteroid.
