

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN

Women suffering from any form of illness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken.

Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

MANY MEN WORK FOR GOOD ROADS

Sixty-two men, representing 32 of the 34 Oregon counties, have been appointed members of a committee to insure success for the good roads campaign by securing adoption of the highway bills by the legislature, says the Telegram. The duties of this committee appointed by the Oregon Good Roads association will be many. Their combined influence is pledged to impress legislators with Oregon's need for a system of permanently built highways. Each county's representatives are expected to organize a good roads campaign in that county. The fact that the general plan of the Oregon Good Roads association contemplates first of all the organization of each county for the making of a good roads system therein, each county system to constitute, then, a unit of the state-wide system, is emphasized.

The work of this committee, the appearance to be made before the legislature, and other plans of campaign will constitute chief subjects for discussion of the meeting of subscribers to the Oregon Good Roads association, to be held tomorrow night in the Beck building where the headquarters of the association are located. As the meeting is expected to be one of the most important ever held by the organization subscribers are urged to be present. AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

At the Orpheum.

Vaudeville all this week in addition to the regular program for the same price of admission, 10c, children 5c. Program as follows:

1. Harrison and Harris, colored, in their laughable sketch, "Forty Miles from New York Town."
2. "The Stepmother." Sellig, 1000 feet long. A good drama.
3. "Tale the Mirror Told." Pathe, 5000 feet long. A well arranged story in which a mirror plays the part of spy. The acting is good.
4. "What a Dinner." Pathe, 500 feet long. A comic presentation of the nightmare which followed the eating of a big dinner.
5. "Circle C. Ranch's Wedding Present." Essanay. A lively western comedy detailing the fortunes of a young woman who was called west to teach the cowboys on Circle C ranch the rudiments of learning. None of the boys fall in love with her but a young man from the east does and the wedding present is the teacher's little mother, to whom the boys send the money to come to her daughter.
6. "Davy Jones' Domestic Troubles." Vitagraph, 1000 feet long. A comedy taken from the life of an old friend. "Davy Jones," the celebrated fun maker. In the picture he ploughs the sea, runs the sand and gathers the wind in a net when he places his heart in a woman.

Pastime Theater.

"Love's Awakening." The story of a false young man who forgot his country sweetheart under the influence of a city girl, but when the city girl refuses him suddenly, remembered the girl he left behind him. And like many others he discovers that his memory came too late. A truer man was accepted in his place.

"Spongy Sam." A snappy comedy, 1000 feet long, dealing very creditably with this well known character.

"The Death of Admiral Coligny." The story deals with the plans of the wicked queen mother, Catherine de Melch, aimed at the political influence of Admiral Coligny, leader of the opposition party. The first act arranges an attempt on the life of Coligny. The crime goes unavenged and the Hugonots murmur at the death of their beloved leader. Catherine makes this the excuse for persuading her wicked son, Charles IX, to sign the order for their massacre. A wonderful scene shows the queen mother obtaining the reluctant consent of the unhappy Charles.

Monday and Tuesday we present in conjunction with our motion pictures, "On Top of the World with the Alaska Musher and His Eskimo Dogs." Hear his illustrated lecture on his many years' experience in the frozen north.

Former Cotton King's Daughter Wins Consent, Despite Youth.

The engagement of Miss Gladys Sully, daughter of the former cotton king, Daniel Sully, to George Henry Mahlstedt, a wealthy Yale student, was attended by brief parental objection. It was learned.

Mrs. Sully, mother of the 18-year-old bride-to-be, admitted that she and her husband were forced to surrender to the young couple's wishes for an early marriage.

"I was forced to confess that I, too, was only eighteen when I married," said Mrs. Sully with a smile this evening.

"Bob" Chanler's Divorced Wife Withdraws $20,000 Annuity Injunction.

Julla C. Chanler, divorced wife of Robert W. Chanler, has withdrawn her injunction restraining the trustees of the Chanler estate from paying Lina Cavallieri Chanler, the singer, who is now Robert W. Chanler's wife, the $20,000 a year annuity that he guaranteed her in the pre-nuptial agreement.

Mrs. Chanler's attorney said today: "We decided that it would be best not to try to make the injunction permanent. The trustees may now do as they see fit regarding the payment of the annuity to Lina Cavallieri Chanler."

LESS BEER BEING DRUNK.

Decrease of Three Gallons a Head in Last Decade.

The consumption of beer in Germany, according to official statistics published, is rapidly decreasing. During 1909 the consumption diminished approximately by 65,000,000 gallons or one gallon per head of the population. During the preceding year there had been a diminution of nearly 70,000,000 gallons, while during the last decade there has been a decrease of three gallons per head of the population per annum. The decline in the brewing trade is also revealed by the diminishing number of breweries in Germany. In 1906 there were 6,035; in 1907, 5,792; in 1908, 5,590, and last year, 4,768. During 1909 alone there was thus a decrease of 822 breweries.

FORMER PENDLETON MAN IS BEST BUILT

George Stovall, the former hero of Pendleton fans when this city maintained a championship team, is the best built man in the American league, according to Doc Schneider, team trainer last season. Ty Cobb is well built, but is a little too thin.

"Stovall is built in proportion to his height, and is all muscle," said Schneider. "Larry Lajoie is a fine physical specimen, but a little large around the waist.

"Jack Graney looks powerful, but is developed only on the left side. Jack's left arm is a good deal like that of a blacksmith. His right arm is about half an inch smaller in circumference and not nearly so well formed.

Harry Niles is short, but one of the most powerful men in the league. He is especially well developed in the lower limbs. He is too broad for his height. Ted Easterly has unusually broad shoulders, but is thin chested.

"The best throwers are the players with well developed shoulder muscles. Big, hard biceps do not aid in throwing. Joe Birmingham's arm is soft."

PILES BRING DESPAIR.

Take Courage! Internal Treatment Will Cure.

Piles make life unhappy and ruin the best disposition. Most sufferers have been bitterly disappointed by many failures to find a cure. A medicine in tablet form, taken internally, that avoids the unpleasant features of ointments, suppositories and operations, and cures thoroughly by removing the inside cause, is surely worth trying, especially as The Pendleton Drug Co. guarantees it.
