The orange is the most luscious and healthful fruit. California excels in quality of oranges. The best of the California oranges are now packed in individual wrappers labeled "Sunkist."

Five thousand orange farmers in California do their own packing, shipping and selling. They grade and select their crop into "firsts," "seconds," etc. The firsts are fancy, tree-ripened, hand-picked, seedless, fibrous, thin-skinned oranges—every individual orange a perfect specimen of the finest variety of oranges. They are not only more healthful and more palatable than other oranges, but they are actually cheaper, for they are nearly all meat and nourishment. Your dealer sells "Sunkist" Oranges. Ask for them. You will know them by the tissue paper wrapper in which each "Sunkist" Orange is packed. On the wrapper note the label, "Sunkist." Keep all the wrappers. They are worth money to you.

Best California Lemons Come in "Sunkist" Wrappers

You can judge lemons by the "clothes" they wear. If they wear "Sunkist" wrappers they are juicy and good, for they are not thick-skinned or pithy. They are just as fine as "Sunkist" Oranges, and their wrappers are equally valuable.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum.

1. "Elder Aiden's Indian Ward." Kalem, 1000 feet long. An Indian story of the Puritan days. Chief Squantum, a noted Pequot Indian, on the death of his squaw, places his boy in charge of Elder Aiden, a very much respected Puritan settler. As the young man grew up, instead of feeling love and gratitude for those with whom he had passed his childhood, he developed hatred for his white friends, eventually leaving them and fleeing to the Indians, whom he incited to attack Aiden's log cabin.
2. Tale of the Sea. Selig, 1000 feet long. An interesting drama and very impressive and handled in Selig's best style.
3. "Cocoanut Plantation." Pathe, 400 feet long. A colored industrial film, representing the gathering and curing of cocoanuts.
4. An Animated Arm Chair, 600 feet long. Pathe. An amusing comedy. A young man in love with a girl and wishes to marry her, but her mother objects. However, he finds a way and gains mamma's consent.
5. "The Mother-in-law Race." Pathe, comedy. Father gets in the game.

Four full reels, 4000 feet of the latest motion pictures and a vaudeville act for 10c; children 5c.

D'AULBY VERDICT EXPECTED TOMORROW

Paris, Jan. 13.—A verdict is expected tomorrow in the case of "Count" d'Aulby de Gaigny, charged with swindling Mrs. Charles Hamilton Paine, of Boston, now the Duchess de Choiseul-Paslin, out of $200,000 through the sale of fraudulent "oid masters."

In its original form the suit was brought by the duchess, but she withdrew from the case and the government continued the prosecution. In his arguments for the defense, Maître Bernard, chief counsel for the bogus nobleman, alleged that the duchess had been influenced in bringing the suit by the desire to regain possession of compromising letters she had written to d'Aulby. The attorney insisted that this was amply proven by the fact that the duchess had withdrawn the case immediately upon her recovery of the famous pocket of amatory epistles. M. Bernard also asserted that d'Aulby is really a count and that he would prove his title of nobility when he was released from prison. The case was tried at Tours, where d'Aulby has been confined since his arrest at the instigation of the Boston woman.

SPORTOGRAPHS

Boxing.

Ad Wolgast's press agent says the lightweight champion is "of a retiring disposition." Surely seems so.

Packey McFarland and Jack Goodman are carded to fight ten rounds at the Fairmont A. C., New York, next Tuesday night.

"Digger" Stanley, the English boxer who arrived in New York this week, will have his first tryout with "Frankie" Burns.

Knockout Brown and Tommy Murphy will meet again in New York twelve days hence. In a recent scrap Brown put it all over the kid with the Irish monicker.

Bill Lang, the Australian champion, and Sam Langford have been matched to fight in London on the sixteenth of next month. If the dingie doesn't win easily, there will probably be a reason other than ability to do so.

Athletics.

From the number of entries received from all over the country, it is probable that tomorrow's big indoor meet of the Chicago Irish-American A. C. will be the biggest thing of its kind ever pulled off in the Windy City.

Pennsylvania's basketball five will wind up its southern invasion by playing St. John's College at Annapolis today and the Naval Academy teams tomorrow. On Feb. 3 the Quakers will begin a northern tour with Yale at New Haven, to be followed by games with West Point, Princeton, Columbia, Cornell and Rochester.

Baseball.

It is stated that a new manager for the St. Louis Browns will be named Sunday, and the job will probably go to Harry Brown.

A number of professional baseball players sailed on the Oreana this week for Bermuda, where they will entertain the tourists and incidentally get in shape for the coming season.

In the 11 years Christy Mathewson has been with the Giants he has led them to 263 victories and has figured in only 118 defeats. His greatest number of successes in a season was 37, made in 1908.

"Big Six" twice has twirled no-hit games since he has been a member of the New York club, performing this feat against St. Louis on July 15, 1901, and against Chicago on June 13, 1905.

The Chicago White Sox will begin the spring exhibition season at Fort Worth, Tex., on March 4 and 5. Later in the month they will play games with Houston, Galveston, Waco and Dallas.

"Rube" Marquard has established a chicken farm in the rube-lands of Cleveland. "Rube" says he has had a wide experience with fowls and he is full of confidence in his ability to become the poultry king of Ohio.

Cleveland will have a clerical battery on the spring training trip, as Yingling, secured from Toledo, and Bradley, a catcher drafted from Johnstown, Pa., are both sons of ministers. Moreover, their papas are proud of them.

If Hot Springs, Ark., succeeds in keeping on the lid, it will likely become the training headquarters of the major and big minor league teams. In the past, the Arkansas resort has offered too many temptations to baseball players.

The Louisville Colonels, of the American Association, and the Toronto Eastern League will probably meet in a series of four games, to be played in the Kentucky metropolis next April. It has been several seasons since these teams have matched their strength.

Jimmy McAleer is entertaining great expectations of a big find in Fitcher Bussey, who last year made a great record in the Virginia league. He won twenty-three and lost only five games. He began his baseball career in the amateur circles of Detroit, where he early made a name for himself.

"DAYLIGHT" SALOONS FOR WASHINGTON

Olympia, Wash., Jan. 13.—Governor Marion E. Hay sent his second regular message to the Washington legislature Tuesday. The governor recommends the enactment of a law providing for the payment of 50 cents a day to convicts employed on road work after they have been so employed six months.

He recommends further the strengthening of the local option law, including the passage of a county unit law and the enactment of regulations providing that the sale of liquor in licensed territory after January 1, 1912, be confined to the hours between sunrise and sunset, on the lines of the Nebraska daylight laws. Governor Hay says:

"We are determined to go to any length to wipe out the abuses of the liquor traffic and to prohibition of the manufacture and sale of all manner of intoxicants, if necessary."

The governor recommends the adoption of the employees' compensation law, recently drafted by a commission of employers and labor leaders. He also advocates the creation of a public-service commission and a public-revenue commission. In referring to the subject of conservation, Governor Hay reasserts his opposition to national control of resources within the state, and says:

"I feel that the state would be inexcusably derelict if it failed to make immediate provisions for exercising its own prerogatives, in controlling its natural resources."

Catch in the Rain.

then a cold and a cough—let it run on—get pneumonia or consumption, that's all. No matter how you get your cough don't neglect it—take Ballard's Horehound Syrup and you'll be over it in no time. The sure cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis and all pulmonary diseases in young and old. A. C. Koepfen & Bros.

Debate Old Age Pensions.

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 13.—"Resolved, that the enactment of the old-age pension law by Great Britain is inexpedient," is the question to be decided tonight in a debate between Pacific University and University of Idaho students. Each institution will uphold the affirmative at home, while the visiting students at each university will take the negative. It is alleged British government officials are awaiting the result of the debate with breathless interest.

Too Much Face.

You feel as if you had one face too many when you have neuralgia, don't you? Save the face, you may need it; but get rid of the neuralgia by applying Ballard's Snow Liniment. Finest thing in the world for rheumatism, neuralgia, burns, cuts, scalds, lame back and all pains. A. C. Koepfen & Bros.

Czar to Entertain.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 13.—This is New Year's eve in the Greek church calendar and the emperor will hold a great reception at the winter palace, the first in three years. The palace will be closely guarded by troops, police and detectives and every person entering will be required to prove his identity. Rumors of nihilist plots against the life of the czar have been prevalent of late, but they are not taken seriously.

Thirty Billions for Peace.

London, Jan. 13.—According to estimates just compiled, nearly $30,000,000,000 have been expended during the last quarter century in maintaining the armies of European nations on a peace footing.

Swedish Activity in Russia.

Consul-General John H. Snodergrass of Moscow, reports that the Swedish consuls in St. Petersburg and Helsinki have recommended the introduction of the Russian language at some of the principal schools in Sweden, pointing out the growing trade between the two countries and the absolute necessity of a knowledge of the Russian language in order to beneficially develop the existing commercial relations.

Pastime Theater.

"The Captain's Bride." By John Luther Long, based upon a lapse of memory caused by an injury in a shipwreck. The unfortunate young wife, unable to remember the past, is about to marry the captain who saved her, when her husband appears. She does not remember him but he, thinking of a trick they used to play on each other, succeeds in restoring her memory.

"The Color Sergeant's Horse." The color sergeant's horse, Don, is no ordinary animal. It possesses extraordinary intelligence and great fondness for his master, and the picture proves it, although it embodies a love story about the sergeant, his sweetheart and the English flag.

"The Phantom Rider." A good comedy with a laugh from start to finish.

"The Closed Gate." A society drama, one of the most interesting story-dramas ever put out by this popular company.

"One on Max." Comedy, 1000 feet long, showing the well known character in many comical situations.

Four reels, four thousand feet of latest motion pictures and a song.

At the Comy.

"Value—Beyond Price." The sailing master leaves his wife and babe, his ship is wrecked and he is landed alone on a South Sea island. After living 10 years on the island he finds Captain Kid's treasure and is rescued by a passing vessel. In the meantime his wife, reduced to poverty, pawns all her valuables and at last her little daughter, leaving the pawn ticket which reads "Value—Beyond Price" addressed "To my husband, if he ever returns," and dies. The father returning, reclaims his child. A beautiful picture, well acted.

"Winter Sports of the Imperial Family of Germany." Showing the imperial family and numerous notables engaging in tobogganing, skiing, ice boating and sail skating. Winter scenes so natural they make you think of chibblains.

"Rats." The head of the house indulges in too much holiday hilarity, takes on a beautiful bun, turns things topsy turvey in a summer beer garden and when pursued falls through a hole into the sewer. While sleeping off his tee, he is visited by an army of rats. On his rescue and return home his better half treats him to a cheering reception by busting all the cooking utensils over his head. Very touching.

"A Ward of Uncle Sam." A story of two little Russian orphans. The little boy is raised in America, fights in the war against Spain and after 20 years returns to see his blind sister. He protects her from the insults of Russian nobility and is backed up by an American battleship. Something doing every minute.

Such a winner that we will run it one more day.

Bing! Biff! Bang!!!

We all get lots of hard knocks in life, but a business education enables us to resist them successfully. The Pendleton business college supplies the education.

CATARH GOES.

So Does Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Croup and Asthma.

You can easily tell by reading the symptoms below, whether you have catarrh or not:

Offensive breath, frequent sneezing, discharge from the nose, stoppage of the nose, huskiness of the voice, tickling in throat, droppings in throat, a cough, pain in chest, loss of strength, variable appetite, spasms of coughing, low spirited at times, raising of mucus, difficulty in breathing, loss of vital force.

Tallman & Co. have a sensible remedy (money back if it fails) for catarrh, called HYOMEI (pronounced High-o-me) which is vaporized air, so antiseptic, that when it is breathed over the inflamed and germ-infested membrane, it kills all germ life, gives relief in two minutes, and cures catarrh.

The price, including hard rubber pocket inhaler, is only $1. The inhaler will last a lifetime, so that should you need a second bottle of HYOMEI, you can get it for 50 cents.

Stray Notice.

One span of sorrel geldings somewhat old. Weight about 1150 pounds. Any person notifying Chas. Lobaugh, Pilot Street, or John L. Bartley, 308 Lillith rock, Pendleton will be rewarded.

A Book Worth Reading.

A little book showing the human appendix and telling how Appendicitis is caused and how you can EASILY prevent it, is offered free for a short time by Pendleton Drug Co.
