

SOCIETY EVENTS

Dr. Eldred B. Waffle and wife, Dr. Clare Waffle, have returned from Portland and are making preparations for an extensive tour of Europe. They will leave here Tuesday evening going direct to Omaha and after a short visit in that city will go to Rochester, Minnesota, where they will attend for two weeks at the Mayo institution. From Rochester they will go to Chicago to spend two weeks visiting the various hospitals in the Illinois metropolis. Proceeding east they will stop at Philadelphia and Baltimore, at the latter of which places they will visit Johns Hopkins university, one of the best clinical colleges in the country. In New York they will spend two weeks prior to embarking for Germany. After a short stay in the Kaiser's land, they will travel to Italy in which sunny southland they will spend the colder months. From Italy they will travel north attending clinics in Switzerland, Vienna, Hamburg, Dresden, Copenhagen and will spend some time in Paris. From the world's gayest city they will probably travel to Scandinavia and spend some of the summer days in the cool Northland. In London they will attend the International medical convention which is to be held in that city during the autumn. From London they will take ship for home, returning to Oregon sometime in the early winter. On their return they will resume their practice of medicine.

In Astoria Thursday occurred the marriage of Mr. Edgar W. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith of this city and Miss Irene Simington, daughter of a prominent merchant of Astoria. Mrs. Thomas Vaughan and Miss Una Smith, sisters of the groom, were present at the wedding, the former acting as matron of honor and the latter as one of the bridesmaids. The other bridesmaid was a sister of the bride, Mr. Frederick Whitlessy of Portland, a college fraternity brother of the groom, acted as best man. The newlyweds will arrive in Pendleton this evening and will make their home at Vansycle, where Mr. Smith is engaged extensively in farming. The Smith-Simington wedding was the culmination of a college romance, the principals having made each other's acquaintance while students at the University of Oregon, at which institution the groom was a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, while the bride belonged to the Beta Epsilon local sorority, which has since received a charter from the Kappa Alpha Theta national organization.

The Current Literature club had another of its delightful afternoons Friday, of this week when Mrs. Disonway and Miss Boyd were hostesses at the home of the former. The study for this year has been unusually interesting as is evidenced by the splendid outline of consecutive work arranged in the year book, which is on the subject of Italy, its history since the unity, its art, literature and music. Already the following programs have been given: Three on Rome, one on Naples, one on Milan and the Italian lakes, one on architecture and a Christmas program on the Madonnas in Italian art. The last program was on the environs of Rome and is here given:

Siena: history, medieval atmosphere, present activity—Mrs. Winter. Cathedral: mosaics, frescoes, statues, Sienese painters, etc.—Mrs. Fee. Hill Towns: Viterbo, Customs, Assisi, St. Francis—Mrs. Bonney. Perugia: Famous school of painters—Mrs. Wade. Home Life in Town and Country—Mrs. Johnson.

Among the social events of the week for the men, none was so prominent as the Elks' smoker held in the B. P. O. E. hall on Tuesday evening. Quite a number of the antlered herd went as a theater party to witness the production of "A Stubborn Cinderella" and the real festivities at the hall did not begin until after the crowd already gathered there had been augmented by the force from the play house. Then for several hours the goddess of enjoyment sat enthroned among the Elks and not one present but worshiped at her shrine and evinced his allegiance by joining in the merriment to his fullest capacity. A splendid program was put on by amateur and professional performers and the committee which had in charge the "stag" party deserves congratulations for the excellence which characterized this as well as the other feature of the affair.

The Evening Bridge club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin P. Marshall on Thursday evening. The members of this popular social organization are Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dickson, Mr. and Mrs.

Edwin P. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Judd, Mrs. L. H. Sturgis. The club's guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Phelps, Mrs. Nesmith Ankeny and the Misses Neva Lane, Effie Jean Frazier, and Maude Sheridan and the Messrs. John L. Lambirth, R. M. Sawtelle and John Dickson. The prizes for the highest scores went to Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Judd.

A number of members of the American Woman's League met December 3, 1910, and organized the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific circle which meets the second and fourth Fridays of each month. The following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Robert Brown; vice president, Mrs. S. A. Lowell; secretary, Mrs. Mary Harvey. The reading course for this year covers England, discussing its history, literature and social conditions. Among the subjects discussed at their enthusiastic meetings were the life of John Milton, democratic England, English cathedrals, life of George Eliot and Talks by Miss Boyd on her visit to London.

Most notable among the society functions of the week was the "500" party given Wednesday afternoon at which Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. T. C. Taylor were hostesses in the parlors of the Bishop apartments in the Association building. There were about seventy-five invited guests and thirteen tables were entertained at the popular game. At the conclusion of the contest, Mrs. Willard Bond was awarded the prize for the highest score and Mrs. Mark Moorhouse won the trophy for progression. The hostesses, assisted by the Misses Adna Raley, Maud Sheridan and Sybil Clopton, served a very elaborate luncheon late in the afternoon.

One of the pleasing affairs of the week was the dance given Wednesday evening in the Eagle-Woodman hall at which the members of the Pendleton Bowling club were the hosts. There were about sixty couples in attendance and the hours before midnight were made merry ones. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Miss Edna Zimmerman and Mrs. J. Ross Dickson entertained the members with several splendid vocal selections and Mrs. Slusher gave a piano number of great brilliancy. The music was enthusiastically received and much appreciated. Delicate refreshments were served and the afternoon was very enjoyable.

The young ladies' bridge club was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Miss Edna Wissler at her home on south Main street. Mrs. Ben L. Burroughs was successful in winning the prize for the highest score. Guests of the club were the Misses Edna and Lavelle Florence of Portland.

The Current Literature club will give the annual library ball this year and the society is anticipating a splendid social success. Every effort will be used to make this the big event of this season.

Mrs. J. J. Gross of Walla Walla, and Mrs. R. A. Austin of Oregon City are visiting at the home of their cousin, Mrs. Leonard Nichols of 595 Garfield street.

Miss Edna Florence who has been the guest of the Misses Edna Thompson and Iva Hill for the past three weeks, will leave tomorrow for her home in Portland.

State Treasurer T. B. Kay, while in the city with Governor Oswald West Thursday visited at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. P. Bishop.

Mr. Jack Vincent, son of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Vincent, is expected to return today from Chicago, bringing with him a bride.

Next week promises to be a very busy one socially. A number of card parties and there will be informal affairs without number.

Miss Carrie Sharp left last night to spend the week end at the home of her parents Dr. and Mrs. S. F. Sharp of Athena.

Mrs. Nesmith Ankeny entertained two tables of bridge on Tuesday evening at her home on North Main street.

Miss Erial Mann will entertain the young ladies bridge club at her home on Lewis street next Tuesday afternoon.

Francis Smith and Daphne Stewart were hostesses Friday evening to about forty of their young friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peringer left last Sunday for a winter sojourn in southern California.

Miss Mary Roberts is in Portland where she will be the guest of friends for two weeks.

Mrs. Daniel McRae of Boise, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Benjamin F. Burroughs.

DOCTORS FAILED. RESTORED BY PERUNA.

Catarrh of the Lungs Threatened Her Life.

Miss Ninette Porter, Braintree, Vermont, writes: "I have been cured by Peruna."

"I had several hemorrhages of the lungs. The doctors did not help me much and would never have cured me. I saw a testimonial in a Peruna almanac of a case similar to mine, and I commenced using it."

"I was not able to wait on myself when I began using it. I gained very slowly at first, but I could see that it was helping me."

"After I had taken it a while I commenced to raise up a stringy, sticky substance from my lungs. This grew less and less in quantity as I continued the treatment."

"I grew more fleshy than I had been for a long time, and now I call myself well."

GOODS ROADS MEN APPROVE GOVERNOR

The personal interest of Governor West in the campaign for better highways in Oregon as evidenced in his message to the legislature stimulated all advocates of the good roads cause to renewed effort and a greater confidence for the successful outcome of the fight being made for the adoption of five good roads measures pending before the legislature, says the Journal. Governor West's disapproval of the system that permits convicts to be contracted out for stove making and his recommendation that state prisoners be put to road making and thus be removed from competition with free labor, was particularly pleasing to the Oregon Good Roads association.

At the present time the state furnishes to Loewenberg & Going company 150 convicts, food and lodging for the number, tools and a foundry, and gets for the use of each prisoner 45 cents a day. The output of stoves is in competition with the production of other foundries where free labor costs from $2.50 to $4 a day.

In his message Governor West also endorsed the work being done by the good roads association and recommended favorable consideration by the legislature. In behalf of the Oregon Good Roads association, Dr. Anderson C. Smith, president, today addressed a letter to Governor West, giving expression to the association's appreciation as follows:

"At a meeting of the Oregon Good Roads association held the evening of January 10, I was instructed to express to you our high appreciation of the stand you have taken on the good roads question. While we knew during the campaign, that this cause had a warm place in your heart, we hardly dared to hope that you would take such a keen personal interest in it as you have, and now that you have in addition to that given to it your official approval it should be the final act in the assurance of our complete success."

"Permit me, my dear governor, to compliment you on the mastery message which you have presented to the state. It is a matter of personal pride to many of our republican friends, who are now enabled to say 'I told you so.'"

The committee of Salem residents to attend closely the fortunes of the five highway measures before the legislature was announced today as follows: J. H. Albert, Thomas Kay and Judge Scott.

Caught in the Rain, then a cold and a cough—let it run on—get pneumonia or consumption, that's all. No matter how you get your cough don't neglect it—take Ballard's Horehound Syrup and you'll be over it in no time. The sure cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis and all pulmonary diseases in young and old. A. C. Koepfen & Bros.

Notice to Officers and Members of Daphne Circle No. 2. There will be a special meeting for initiation of candidates on Monday evening, January 16, at 7:30. SARAH ROWLAND, Guardian Neighbor.

Have you a weak throat? If so you cannot be too careful. You cannot begin treatment too early. Each cold makes you more liable to another and the last is always the harder to cure. If you will take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at the outset you will be saved much trouble. Sold by all dealers.

There isn't a parallel of latitude but thinks it would have been the equator if it had had its rights.

FOR OVER THREE DECADES. Foley's Honey and Tar has been a reliable household medicine and the "children's children" find it today the same safe and sure remedy for all coughs and colds that their grandparents did. It is a true medicine, possesses great healing and soothing qualities, and contains no opiates and no harmful drugs. For croup and whooping cough, it is a quick relief and permanent help. For all coughs and colds it is healing and soothing, does not constipate, but expels the cold from the system. It is prompt in relief and averts the danger of bronchitis and pneumonia. Mahala Stockwell, Hannibal, Missouri, writing under date of August 28, 1910, has this to say about this great medicine. "I have recently used for the first time Foley's Honey and Tart cough medicine. To say that I am pleased with it does not half express my feelings. It is by far the best I ever used. I had contracted a bad cold and was nearly sick in bed, having a terrible headache as well as a cough and was threatened with pneumonia. I used but one bottle of your Foley's Honey and Tar and was completely cured. It beats all the remedies I ever used and I have used many different kinds." For sale by A. C. Koepfen & Bros.

TWAIN

A New Edition

Now for the first time you get a complete set of all Mark Twain's writings at just exactly one-half the price they have ever been sold before. This is a new edition, just as complete as the old one, which still sells, by the way, at $50.00. This new edition is only $25.00—for the 25 volumes.

It had been Mark Twain's ambition to have his books in every American home, and he made a great personal sacrifice to bring about this remarkable opportunity—for the first time in the history of publishing, copyrighted books are sold at the price of non-copyrighted books—the chance will not come again.

But for Mark Twain's action this would have been impossible. Never before has a copyrighted library set of a standard author's works been issued at such a low figure.

His Complete Works—25 Beautiful Volumes

Brander Matthews says: "Mark Twain will be included in that group of writers headed by Moliere and Cervantes. With the exception of Count Tolstoi, Twain was the greatest of recent modern writers, and will be handed down to posterity through the trio of his works 'Huckleberry Finn,' 'Tom Sawyer,' and 'Pudd'nhead Wilson.' Twain is a greater stylist than Stevenson or Thoreau, and his 'Man that Corrupted Hadleyburg' is one of the finest works in English literature." Mark Twain himself wrote a preface to this edition. Brander Matthews has written the biographical criticism of Mark Twain and his work. There are portraits of the author at periods when the different books were in process of writing.

There are beautiful pictures by such artists as Frost, Newell, Smedley, Thalstrup, Clinedinst, Kemble, and Oppen. The binding is in rich red rep silk book cloth, with title labels stamped in gold. The books are printed on white antique wove paper, especially made for this edition. Each volume is of generous size and bulk, 5x7 1/4 inches.

GREAT PASTORAL DRAMA COMING NEXT THURSDAY

(From the Atlanta Constitution, March 30th, 1910.)

"Silver Threads," the pastoral drama reminiscent of "The Old Homestead," and "Way Down East," is proving entertaining to patrons of the Lyric this week. Richard J. Jose who heads the company, renders several old fashioned ballads in a delightful manner. The play offers a most consistent, clean theatrical treat and is well worth seeing. While the scenes are strong and full of heart interest, they do not in the least border on the melodramatic, and the more serious portions are relieved by a strong vein of comedy. The company is a capable one, affording Mr. Jose splendid support.
