Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Marriage License Issued.

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to George B. Woodward and Lucy I. Lieuallen, both residents of this county. The father of the bride-to-be, J. T. Lieuallen was the witness.

Tomorrow Pendleton Day.

Tomorrow is to be Pendleton day at the poultry show in Walla Walla and several local poultry fanciers are planning to go over. Secretary Ben Hill of the Commercial association has also received an invitation for the officers and members of the club to attend.

Dan P. Smythe Ill.

Dan P. Smythe is very ill today at his home at the Carter residence. He was taken ill yesterday and suffered severely from a hemorrhage of the stomach. It is an old time trouble with Mr. Smythe, but until yesterday he had been free of it for many months.

Grand Jury in Session.

After being adjourned since Saturday because of the illness of one of the jurors, the grand jury again went in session this morning, another juror having been drawn. It is said that a report will be made this afternoon but that no indictments will be returned.

Cannon Is Vagrant.

Ernest Cannon, the cowboy who took second prize in the Roundup bucking contest last fall, was run in by the night police again last night and was sentenced to five days in the city jail this morning on a charge of vagrancy. Two drunks, R. O. Alexander and Otto Hagen, were sentenced to three days by Judge Fitz Gerald.

Railroad Officials Here.

The private car of General Manager J. F. O'Brien was set off here last evening and was taken west again this morning on No. 1. In company with the general manager was Assistant General Manager J. D. Stack. The two men accompanied a friend from Portland this far and, returning, made a brief investigation of the improvement work between this city and Yoakum.

Boy Breaks His Arm.

Wilbur Badley, the young son of Assistant Cashier W. S. Badley of the American National bank, while playing yesterday back of the 'Association' building, had the misfortune to fall and break one of his arms. The fracture was just below the elbow and the joint was also dislocated, which makes the injury a very painful one. Dr. C. J. Smith was summoned and reduced the fracture.

McClure To Leave.

Dr. and Mrs. S. W. McClure expect to leave tomorrow for their new home in Gooding, Idaho. Dr. McClure has resigned his position as head of the bureau of animal industry in the northwest to accept the secretaryship of the National Wool Growers' association. He will probably be succeeded as bureau chief by Dr. H. E. Pinkerton, well known in this city.

Funeral of C. B. Lyman.

The funeral of Charles B. Lyman will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the family apartments in the Monasterelli building. The Knights of Pythias will have charge of the ceremonies and will meet at their hall at 2 o'clock. The body of William H. Lyman, the father, will be shipped to Springfield, Mo., but the family here is waiting word from that city before sending the remains on the long journey.

Belt Contradicts Report.

Clyde Belts, the O.-W. R. & N. brakeman who was reported to have been paid $1500 and straight time for the period he was laid off because of an injury to his foot in a train accident, says the report was not entirely correct. He says he made a settlement with the railroad company but denies that it was under the conditions reported. He also denies emphatically that he ever contemplated bringing suit against the railroad company.

Notice of Appeal.

A notice of appeal in the case of G. P. Higgenbotham et al vs. Louis Atterbury et al has been filed in the office of the county clerk. This is an Echo case and involves a piece of land out from that town which was leased by the plaintiff to the defendant and the former is now seeking a decree removing the latter from the land, alleging that the terms of the contract have not been complied with. L. A. Esteb is attorney for the plaintiff and A. W. Gray for the defendant.

Death at Hospital.

Last night at St. Anthony's hospital occurred the death of Mrs. Bessie Marshall, a daughter of William Gilton of this city, from typhoid fever. The deceased woman was aged only 20 years at the time of her untimely demise, having been born September 4, 1890. She was married several years ago but has since secured a divorce from her husband. One surviving child, the issue of the marriage, survives the mother. For some time she has been employed in one of the local steam laundries. She was a member of the Artisans and carried $2000 insurance in that order. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the Folsom undertaking parlors.

Mullin May Fight Holland.

Barney Mullin, the local welterweight who has been seen in several fistie battles here, may enter the ring with Fred Creel of Spokane, who fights under the name of Fritz Holland. Mullin recently challenged him and the latter has agreed to him but if the local puglist will allow him to weigh in at 154 pounds at 8 o'clock Mullin will demand that he weigh 152 pounds at that hour which would still place him under a seven pound handicap. If the match is arranged, a $250 side bet will be made and the fight will be pulled off in the Washington city in about a month. Mullin is very anxious to meet Holland in order to demonstrate to Spokane fans that he "can come back." Holland is a clever man with the padded mits, having recently fought a draw with Jack Lester, the man whom Tommy Burns is touting as the hope of the white race.

A Bloody Street Fight.

Last night shortly after the eleven o'clock hour, guests of the Bowman hotel witnessed a fistie encounter which was much more exciting than the Jeffries-Johnson fiasco films. A man by the name of E. B. Smith who says he is a gentleman from Virginia, 3000 miles from home and not a friend on earth" and who incidentally travels for a liquor firm, secured a knockout before the melee had progressed very far and one of the O.-W. R. & N. signalmen was the party of the second part. It seems that earlier in the evening, while the "gentleman from Virginia" was emerging from Martin Anderson's saloon, he accidentally brushed against the inebriate signalman whereupon the latter struck him in the jaw. He retaliated by knocking the other down, after which he retired into the lobby of the hotel. Soon the signalman and some of his cohorts gathered outside to wait for Smith's reappearance. Smith saw the ambush and securing a revolver from his grip, started for the door, but evidently reconsidered his intention for he delivered the gun to the clerk and walked forth single handed to the encounter. His first blow laid the railroad man low and the ones which followed served as a sleep potion for the fallen man laid quite still when bystanders interfered to save him from slaughter. The wounded was carried from the field of battle and finally the southern one was pacified. But the end is not yet. Night Officer Glen Bushee happened along soon after, arrested the belligerents, who put up bail and they will hear their doom from the lips of Judge Fitz Gerald this afternoon.

Madison is Assaulted.

Haywards, Cal., Jan. 18.—B. H. Madison, owner of the Pacific Ways and Shipyard, Oakland, and a member of the firm of Sellers and Madison ship chandlers of San Francisco, was shot and probably fatally wounded at his home here last night by Augustus Borries, a painter, who was himself shot down by a posse a short time afterward. He was taken to the county infirmary, where his condition was pronounced serious.

Woolgrowers Elect.

North Yakima, Wash., Jan. 18.—The Washington Wool Growers' association elected the following officers here yesterday:

E. M. Rothock, Spokane, president; D. G. Goodman, North Yakima, vice-president; H. Stanley Coffin, North Yakima, secretary-treasurer.

HOLD "RADIUM" WEDDING.

Couple's Ages Total 187 Years, Mark Seventieth Anniversary.

Paris.—A "radium" wedding has just been celebrated here, being the seventieth anniversary of the marriage of M. and Mme. Fernand Dugue, whose ages total 187 years.

M. Dugue is the oldest dramatic author in the world. His age is 95, and his wife's 92, and they were married on November 22, 1840.

M. Dugue is in excellent health and spirits, but he is not quite certain whether he has written forty-two or forty-three plays. The best known of them are "The Pirates of the Savannah" and "Cartouche." "The Pirates" has been played more than 10,000 times. His last play—a drama at the bottom of the sea—was produced in 1877, and was revived with success in Paris only a few weeks ago.

Mme Dugue has been confined to her bed for the last two years owing to a broken leg. "My bones are too old to mend," she said to her guests, "but that is all that is the matter with me and it was my own fault that I broke my leg. I fell on the stairs of the railway station when I was running to catch a train."

John La Farge was not only a great artist but a writer of unusual style and fine discrimination. In the February Scribner will be published an essay by him, entitled "The Teaching Art," which is a summing up of his artistic creed.

WOULD NOT PERMIT CASHIER RICE TO GO

ASSOCIATES OVERCOME LURE OF METROPOLITAN OPENING

Though Elected Cashier of Lumbermen's National Bank of Portland Mr. Rice Declines Same to Stay Here—Other Officers Re-elected.

Though offered the cashiership of the Lumbermen's National bank of Portland, G. M. Rice has declined that offer and will remain in this city as the cashier of the First National bank. His decision to remain here was made at a meeting of the stockholders of the bank held yesterday and a brief announcement to that effect was published in this paper yesterday.

It is known that Mr. Rice's decision to remain here was due to the urgent requests of Senator Ankeny and other associates in the bank and to the fact that the sentiment of the business community demanded that he remain in Pendleton. It had been his intention to accept the cashiership of the Lumbermen's National but so great was the pressure brought to bear to induce him to remain that he changed his plans yesterday.

Aside from Mr. Rice, the other officers re-elected yesterday were Levi Ankeny, president; W. F. Matlock, vice president; George Hartman, assistant cashier. The directors are Levi Ankeny, W. F. Matlock, J. S. McLeod, T. C. Taylor and G. M. Rice. At the annual stockholders' meeting yesterday the following gentlemen were present: Levi Ankeny, T. C. Taylor, J. S. McLeod, J. N. Teal of Portland; Richard Cox, Portland; G. M. Rice and George Hartman.

WEST, OLIVER, CURRY MUST STAND TRIAL

La Grande, Or., Jan. 18.—Governor Oswald West, State Senator Turner Oliver and George H. Curry, a former editor here will have to stand trial for a $25,000 libel suit brought by F. W. Gaines, a rate expert. A demurrer to set the complaint aside was overruled by Judge Knowles today. The article in question was written by the then railroad commissioner, Mr. West, and attacked Gaines.

NEW THREE-FOURTHS JURY LAW IN EFFECT

Twenty and Fifteen Minutes Each Is Time Required for Decisions in First Two Cases Tried.

Whether or not a note which has been outlawed can be revived by a payment made on it was the question involved in the case of Byrnes vs. Brown in the circuit court yesterday morning and afternoon. Edward "Paddy" Byrnes was suing Frank Brown, administrator for the estate of Peter Nelson, for a note for $500 which Nelson had given him nearly 19 years ago. The note had been outlawed twice but the plaintiff alleged that two payments had been made upon it since which had revived it. The jury returned a verdict for the defendant.

Another unique feature of the note was that it read so that it bore interest at ten per cent per month rather than ten per cent per annum. This was due to the fact that the blank note was printed in Washington where interest is figured on the basis of a per month rate, whereas it was made out in Oregon where it is figured at so much per annum and the parties to the note had evidently forgotten to substitute the word annum for month.

A cow also figured in the case as it was alleged that a son of Peter Nelson sold the animal to the plaintiff and that in payment the note was endorsed for the sum of $35.

Lowell & Wither acted as counsel for the defendant and Raley & Raley for the plaintiff. The fact that it took the jury just fifteen minutes to return with a verdict and that one in the Barnes vs. Brown case on Monday was reached after a deliberation of but twenty minutes shows that the new law which requires but a three-fourths vote in civil cases to secure a verdict is a great factor in expediting court proceedings.

Changes Plea to Guilty.

Charles Bowers, indicted for burglary in the Koch second hand store, and who entered a plea of not guilty, was to have been tried this morning, but yesterday afternoon, on the advice of his attorney and with the consent of the district attorney, withdrew his plea and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of receiving stolen goods. Judge Phelps set Thursday morning as the time for passing sentence.

Two Are Sentenced.

Steve Solner and John Wilson, the two men who robbed the cellar of W. B. Nuckals near Helix and who pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny, were this morning sentenced to six months in the county jail by Judge Phelps.

Bad Check Artist Up.

Mike O'Neal, who was indicted on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, is being tried in court today. He is the shepherd who, on Christmas eve passed a check on J. H. Taylor, proprietor of the Crescent saloon, to which was forged the name of Alfred Smith of the J. E. Smith Livestock company, and who later tried to pass another on R. W. Henneman. The checks were on the American National bank in which institution, according to the testimony of Alfred Smith this morning, his company never had an account. District Attorney Van Vactor seems to have woven a pretty tight web about O'Neal, but Attorneys W. M. Peterson and J. P. Neal are making a valiant effort to extricate him. The following is the personnel of the jury which is hearing the testimony: Twig Teel, R. F. Heyden, William Frazier, H. H. Gilbert, S. G. Shaw, James Eldridge, F. H. Van Orsdall, W. R. Bleakney, Will Gray, E. L. Smith and Robert Walden.

LOCAL TALENT PLAYS BECOMING POPULAR

Still another local talent entertainment is in the process of incubation and from all reports Pendleton lovers of music are to be furnished with a treat. Under the direction of Mrs. Walter Rose and under the auspices of the Parish Aid of the Church of the Redeemer, "Trial by Jury" one of the most popular of Sullivan's operas, is to be presented in the Oregon theatre on February 6. The purpose of the entertainment is to raise funds for the laying of a concrete walk about the church property on Alta and Johnson streets. Bishop Paddock started the movement when he was here last Saturday by donating $50 to that end and the ladies are desirous of doing their part to secure this much needed improvement.

Mrs. Rose is well known for her ability as a dramatic reader and as a director and, as she has enlisted some of the best local talent in the city, she will undoubtedly render a production worthy of a large patronage.

Attention Knights.

All Knights of Pythias will please meet at Castle Hall tomorrow, January 19, at 2 p. m., to attend the funeral of our deceased Brother, Chas. B. Lyman.

R. W. FLETCHER, C. C.

H. A. Carr of Portland, who was manager of the local Western Union office during the absence of Manager Gillette, left this afternoon for Seattle.
