PAUL MORTON ON PROPERTY RIGHTS

Interview Given United Press Shortly Before Death of Well Known Financier.

New York City, Jan. 23.—Paul Morton, late president of the Equitable Life Assurance company, gave his last interview to the United Press shortly before his death. It was in answer to statements by Governor Hiram Johnson of California, in which the railroads were arraigned for their alleged hostile attitude to the interests of the people, and said individual rights must be considered greater than property rights.

By Paul Morton.
I would be sorry to think that there is not some fair platform upon which individual rights and property rights might stand equally. I do not question that every patriotic citizen considers the rights of men paramount to the rights of property, but that certainly does not justify the public in ignoring the rights of the latter.

My observation has been that where any railroad, any corporation or any individual secures a franchise or anything in the way of special privilege which is unfair to the public, or has succeeded in any way in having the law constructed unreasonably favoring the said property or individual that sooner or later these special privileges were taken away and that in taking them away, the public generally sees it that the corporation or individual enjoying them pays good interest for their use.

I have always believed that railroads should not engage in politics. I think it most important that they should keep out of politics. But I think it is just as fair that the politicians should leave the railroad alone. When I say that the politicians should leave the railroads alone, I mean that politicians should not aid them and then use them as means to secure offices.

It is not difficult for the railroads to refrain from mixing in politics if the politicians attack them. I think the railroads should be regulated but I believe they are entitled to the same fair treatment that individuals are.

believe the railroads should accord everybody fair treatment in return. The railroads are owned largely by frugal people of the country, people who are economical, who invest their savings, indirectly or through savings banks, trust companies or by purchasing life insurance. The life insurance companies of the country are reported to own nearly one eighth of all the bonds issued by American railroads, and this, by itself, scatters the ownership of the railroads to an extent little understood by the people generally.

Corporations are just as essential to the welfare of the country as freight cars. They are merely agencies through which the commerce of the country is being transacted and, as I've said before, I consider our great industrial combinations as the battleships of commerce with which we capture the world's business.

The foreign markets are most essential to our manufacturers and in order to reach them there must be the utmost co-operation by capital, by labor, by the government itself which should do everything it reasonably can to promote harmonious relations. I think that corporate practice has been much improved in the last five years. Things that were once thought right now are not tolerated. I believe out of all the agitation we have had for the last five years much good has resulted. But I also believe that if we had less agitation and less legislation for a while, we would be better off.

I have always believed that intelligent combination and centralization is preferable to unrestricted competition. I think it better for both capital and labor of the nation. But all combination, whether capital or labor, should be reasonable and should have the end of efficient service always in view.

LAKE COUNTY HAS LARGE BORAX DEPOSIT

What is said to be the second largest deposit of borax in the United States is located in Lake county and will be worked extensively during the coming summer. The borax lies in the Albert, Summer and Alkali Lake valleys and there have been 2400 mineral locations made within these districts. The borax is said to be almost pure and compares in value with the large deposits in Death Valley, Cal., and the Lake County beds are easily accessible at all times.

A company of claim owners has been formed and machinery will be brought in this summer and extensive development work carried on. A large force of men will be employed in mining the borax beds.

ONE THOUSAND BUFFALO IN CANADIAN PARK

"We have in the Buffalo National park at Wainwright, on the Grand Trunk Pacific railroad, in the Battle river section of Alberta, nearly 1000 head of buffaloes," said Howard Douglas, commissioner of dominion government parks, of Edmonton, Alberta, who, accompanied by his wife is one of the Canadian excursionists who arrived in Spokane Monday evening on their way to Los Angeles, Cal. to spend the winter.

"Of these, 704 head are from the Pablo herd, on the Flathead Indian reservation in Montana, and 15 head are from the Conrad herd at Kallispell, Mont. We expect to receive 80 more head from Pablo, who now is hunting down and killing the outlaws that are left on his range, with the view to rounding up the rest and shipping them to us in the spring. From the Conrad herd we expect to get 15 more buffaloes.

"The first consignment of buffaloes was received at Buffalo park two years ago. We raised last year 135 calves and lost seven head in the same period. The herd appears to be thriving splendidly. The park is in a rolling prairie country with numerous hills, many fresh water lakes and considerable bluff timber. It consists of 197,000 acres, under a fence which is 74 miles long, built of Page wire, eight feet two inches high. We also are stocking the park with moose, elk, blacktail deer, caribou and antelope.

"I am in charge of the eight national parks in Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia, having been for 15 years in charge of the first national park in Canada, that at Banff, Alberta. It is the intention to stock all of these parks with buffalo and other indigenous animals from the Buffalo park, as soon as the increase of the herds there will permit.

"I am now opening the new Jasper park, in the Yellowstone pass through the Rocky mountains, which is traversed by the lines of both the Great Trunk Pacific and the Canadian Northern railroads. This park has an area of 4500 square miles and much the same characteristics as the Banff park. It contains numerous hot springs and scenery that equals, if it does not exceed that of the Banff park."

The excursion party, of which Mr. Douglas is a member, numbers nearly 150 people. They nearly all hailed from Edmonton and Calgary. They intend to spend three months in California, their tickets requiring that they return within that limit over some route out of Seattle.

What is a cold in the head? Nothing to worry about if you treat it with Ely's Cream Balm. Neglected, the cold may grow into catarrh, and the air-passages be so inflamed that you have to fight for every breath. It is true that Ely's Cream Balm masters catarrh, promptly. But you know the old saying about the ounce of prevention. Therefore use Cream Balm when the cold in the head shows itself. All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 55 Warren street, New York.

Three Bills Passed.

Salem, Ore., Jan. 21.—Passage of three bills by the senate, and defeat by the Eaton forces in the house, and appointment of the joint committee to investigate the eastern Oregon asylum middle sums up the accomplishments of yesterday's session of the legislature.

Bills passed in the senate were of comparatively small importance. One of these removes the five day period allowed for recording instruments for conveyance, another changes the name of the state reform school to training school, and the third permits adoption of infants in counties other than the one in which the adopting persons reside.

The house killed off a move by the Eaton forces in the form of a motion which would have required the resolutions committee to report out all resolutions in the order in which they were introduced. The Eaton people are finding this committee a graveyard for much of their thunder. They were again beaten, the house deciding to allow the resolutions committee to pursue its own pleasure.

SCROFULA HEREDITARY BLOOD POISON

Scrofula is a disease manifested usually by a swelling and ulceration of the glands, especially about the neck. It is almost entirely hereditary in its origin, being the dregs or remains of some specific blood poison. Where the blood is greatly weakened with the scrofulous poison, the disease attacks other portions of the system besides the glands, and then we see its effects in weak eyes, poorly developed bodies, running sores and ulcers, skin diseases, especially on the scalp, cartilaginous troubles, etc. Scrofula usually makes its appearance in childhood, though manhood or womanhood may be reached before the poison progresses to the stage of outward manifestation. S. S. S. is the one real cure for Scrofula. It is a blood purifier without an equal, and it cures this destructive blood poison by removing every trace of the infection from the circulation. S. S. S., in addition to cleansing and purifying the blood, assists the stomach and digestive members in the creation of new blood corpuscles and other nourishing matter for the circulation. S. S. S. increases the resistive powers of the system and by strengthening and building up the vitality, allows nature to make a perfect and lasting cure. Book describing the disease and any medical advice sent free to all who write.
