

Cook With Gas

if you want to, but by all means learn cooking. Miss Edna H. Baker is demonstrating the art of cooking at The Peoples Warehouse in their famous Model of Cleanliness Pure Food Basement. She will be there every day next week from the hours of 2:30 'till 4:30 P. M.

We wish to say in connection with this, that you are equally welcome to visit whether you are a patron or not.

The Pacific Power & Light Company is showing commendable enterprise in thus giving the Mothers and Daughters of our city an opportunity to learn the very latest ways of economical and sanitary cooking.

ECHO MAN DROPS DEAD IN STORE

W. A. THOMSON PASSES AWAY SATURDAY EVENING

Well Known and Highly Respected Young Resident of West End of County—Graduate of Oregon Agricultural College.

(Special Correspondence.)
Echo, Ore., Jan. 23.—The death of Wallace Atwood Thompson occurred here Saturday evening at 7:45, while in F. J. Young's confectionery store carrying on a conversation. He suddenly, without a moment's warning, fell to the floor dead. Dr. Dorn worked over him for an hour without avail. Mr. Thomson was a highly esteemed young man of twenty-six and had a host of friends here and elsewhere. He was born and raised on Butter creek. He was a graduate of the O. A. C. and a member of the Masonic order at this place. He was a son of O. F. Thomson, one of the early pioneers of Butter creek, who passed away two years ago.

The young man was apparently in good health for the past year, but previous to that time he had been troubled with his heart several times near death. Specialists said he might live years or he might go any minute. He leaves his mother, Mrs. O. F. Thomson, three brothers, A. B. Thomson, Allen Thomson and Sloan Thomson and three sisters, Mrs. Percy Jorman, Mrs. Chas. Bartholomew and Miss Rilla Thomson, besides many friends to mourn his loss.

The funeral services will be held here today at 1 o'clock p. m., under the auspices of the Masonic order of which he was a member. The services at the church will be conducted by Rev. W. F. McKain.

Ditch Company Holds Meeting.
The Dillon Ditch company held its annual meeting here on Saturday and elected as directors Wm. Reeves of Stanfield, W. H. Daughtrey of Portland and Frank Salling of Pendleton. Wm. Reeves was also elected as secretary.

TALENTED ARTIST TO APPEAR.

Catholic Church Benefit Will Have Many Features.

Marion Warde Farnum, considered one of the most talented readers on the coast, and well known to theatre goers as Marion Warde will give some of her most popular numbers at the entertainment arranged for the benefit of the building fund of the new Catholic church, Wednesday night.

The following are some of the press tributes that have been paid Mrs. Farnum:

Daily Sentinel, Red Bluff, Cal., June 5, 1906: "Mrs. Marion Warde Farnum is a charming reciter, with a clear ringing voice, and graceful personality. She is a talented artist and deserves crowded houses."

Modesto, Cal., Daily News, December 15, 1905: "The largest audience of the season assembled in the opera house last evening to hear Mrs. Marion Warde Farnum. She is an artist in her line and deserves the success her production received."

San Francisco Daily News, March 17, 1906: "Mrs. Marion Warde Farnum's clever recitations called forth much applause."

San Francisco Morning Call, March 18, 1906: "A recitation was eloquently and dramatically rendered by Marion Warde Farnum."

The program as arranged is as follows:

- "Balm of Gilead," a mixed four-voice in one act.
- Arthur Curtis, Mr. Frank Quinlan
- Mrs. Arthur Curtis, Miss Viola Shea
- Ned Lowell, Dr. Idleman
- Mary Boyd, Miss Evelyn Latourelle
- Eugene Molitor, vocal and instrumental solo.
- Miss Marion Warde.
- Male Quartette: Elmer Storey, Glen Scott, Brook Dickson, Geo. Baer.
- Sydney Grundy, 3-act comedy, "His Little Joke." Cast: Felix Featherstone, Jos. Scrabble Mrs. Featherstone, Mrs. J. P. Winter Uncle John, Jack Watson Ethel Granger, Miss Mary Shea Harry Prendergast, A. J. Ferrington Penelope, a maid servant, Miss Pansy Ireland Saunders, a man servant, Will Hemmelgarn
- Louis Cherrier, French dialect speaker.
- Jack Walsh in songs.
- Paul Parker, drummer yarns.
- Mrs. J. S. Landers, vocalist.
- Jack Keefe, songs.
- Frank Hayes, trombone soloist.
- Miss Edna Zimmerman.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Here from Nye.

Mr. and Mrs. John French came in from Nye yesterday to attend their daughter Miss Lucia, who is quite sick with the measles. Mr. French is a prominent stockman of the south end of the county.

Iron Works Busy.

M. L. Akers, manager of the Pendleton Iron Works, has returned from a business trip through Morrow county. According to Mr. Akers the Iron Works has had the most successful winter's run since it has been established in business.

Police Judge Still Sick.

City Recorder and Police Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald is still confined to his home with an attack of the grippe. The offenders against the law are therefore only given one day in jail or turned loose after depositing bail.

Surveyors are at Work.

W. J. Haney, a settler from the Stanfield country, has been in the city today. He has a place on the Umatilla meadows and it will be covered by the proposed reservoir site for the extension of the Umatilla project. According to Mr. Haney a large crew of engineers is now at work making surveys of the reservoir site.

Silas Hicks Dies.

Word was received in this city yesterday of the death of Silas Hicks of Portland. The deceased was a former resident of this city for 17 years, moving to Portland about 2 years ago, he was a soldier of the civil war and was 68 years of age. He leaves a wife and five children, Bert, Lester, Bessie and Bertha Hicks of Portland, and Arthur Hicks of Pasco, Wash. Interment will take place in Portland.

Brooks to California.

Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brooks will leave for Los Angeles and other points in southern California upon an extended visit. They expect to be gone about six weeks and while away Mr. Brooks will investigate some of the high schools of southern California for the purpose of acquiring information for use in the construction of the new local high school. He is a member of the Pendleton school board.

Adopted Daughter Now Independent.

Miss Amy Isabelle Quinny, who was legally adopted by Rev. and Mrs. Charles Quinny several years ago, will leave on this evening's train for Chicago where she has a mother and four sisters living. Amy has lived with the Quinneys for the last eight years. She has recently been left some money through the death of a rich uncle in Sweden, and can get along without the help of her friends. Her sister came on Saturday, and Mr. and Mrs. Quinny have given their sanction to her going to her own people of her own choice.

Mullin Will Fight Holland.

Barney Mullin, the local welterweight, and Fritz Holland, the Spokane pugilist, have finally come to terms and will fight within a month. Holland refused to make 152 pounds at 6 o'clock and Mullin has therefore agreed to meet him at 154, although he is handicapped thereby by over ten pounds in weight. However, the local man thinks he can put the Spokane man away and has posted a $200 side bet. The mill will probably be held in Walla Walla as sports in that city have signified their willingness to hang up a $500 purse.

Kenneth Cooper to Leave Pendleton.

Kenneth Cooper one of the firm of Cooper Bros., proprietors of the Bowman hotel, will turn over the management of that popular house to his brother and will become a fruit farmer in the Hood River country. He will still retain his interest in the Bowman but will not be actively identified in its operation hereafter. Mr. Cooper has a fine 40 acre tract of rich land at Mozler between The Dalles and Hood River and will give his time and attention to the raising of the strawberries and apples for which that section of the state is famous. He and his wife have made many friends during their residence in Pendleton who will regret their departure.

Pendleton Boys Debaters.

Two former Pendleton high school students, Harold Warner and Peter Crockett, have been selected after a tryout to be among the eight contestants for the annual debating medal at the University of Oregon where both are students. The contest will take place tomorrow night and, besides deciding the best individual debater in that institution, it will serve as a tryout for the selection of four men to wage forensic battle against the University of Washington and Stanford University. Both Warner and Crockett were prominent in debate work at the local school, the former having been leader of the team that competed for the state championship in the finals in 1909 and the latter the leader of the team that won the state championship last year.

Round-up Boosters Meet.

A meeting of the executive board and directors of the Round-up association was held yesterday and plans for construction work on the new stadium discussed. It was decided to build the grandstand with a slight arch, following the curvature of the track and to make a 75 foot straightaway on the near side of the track and a 45 foot straightaway on the back side. The advisability of sending a representative to meet with fair delegates in Spokane on February 2 was also discussed but no definite action taken. The prevailing sentiment, however, was that the Round-up should be represented in order to prevent a conflict of dates between the local exhibition and other northwest events.
