PRESENTATION AT COURT.

This is Coronation Year, and Royalty is Wary of Americans Seeking Royal Favor.
Owing to the overwhelming number of Americans demanding presentation in London, Berlin, Vienna, St. Petersburg and Rome, the courts of these capitals have found it necessary to impose certain restrictions. It has been ruled that no Americans can be presented save by their ambassador or ambassadors, who is personally responsible for their social standing and respectability. Then, too, the embassies are limited to twenty presentations of women a year and to a similar number of men.
It has been impressed upon the American embassies in these five capitals that the prescribed number must not be exceeded. On one occasion, after the list for presentations at a certain court had already been filled, pre-emptory orders arrived from Washington that two new arrivals should be permitted to make their curtsy at the next royal drawing-room. In order to carry out his orders, the ambassador had to remove two names to make way for the newcomers, although the women thus forced to give place had gone specially to Europe in order to be presented, and had had gorgeous dresses built in Paris for the ceremony.—The Munsiey.

LIBRARY NOTES.

Jane Addams has for years been a prime mover in the slum work of the city of Chicago and her book "The Spirit of Youth and the City Streets" is a book which no one who cares seriously about the subject can afford to miss. It is most interestingly written and the theme developed is this: that in this age of achievement our modern cities have gradually dispensed with the responsibility of providing wholesome places of amusement, whereby our many millions of child laborers may obtain some of the pleasures which by right of nature is granted them. Conditions as they now exist present to us a question of national importance.

Thrown as they are upon the world at an age when the shaping of their lives depends wholly upon the surrounding conditions, it can clearly be seen that many are the temptations thrust before them, also making it clear that protective measures must be taken whereby they may find recreation and at the same time gain a better and truer knowledge of the outside world.

The spirit of youth cannot be denied and the thirst for righteousness and desire for adventure must be in some way met with, and is not some compensation due them in return for the daily labor which their young souls so strongly rebel against?

Let us then provide parks, gymnasiums, athletic fields and like forms of entertainment, where after the strenuous work of the day, they may meet and mingle, giving vent to their youthful joyousness.

This book and the following magazine articles about Jane Addams will be found at the public library: "A Visit to Tolstoy." McClure's Magazine, January, 1911.
"Charity and Social Justice." North American Review, July, 1910.
"Crisis in Trade Union Morals." Review of Reviews, September, 1904.

REPORTED THAT BISHOP HAS BLOCKED SHEEHAN

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 26.—Statements attributed to Catholic Bishop Ludden of Syracuse injected religion into the senatorial fight today. Ludden is said to have taken a stand against William Sheehan, the democrat, and Tammany choice, blocking his election. The insurgents stoutly claim there is no religious factor. Sheehan led today with 82 votes but the deadlock is still on.

SENATOR KERN SEES REPUBLICAN PARTY SPLIT

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 26.—The creation of the national progressive league means a split in the republican party in the opinion of John Kern, democratic senator-elect today, in an address before the Jackson club at Lafayette. He said: "The old party is pulling the way, the new another. On questions vitally affecting the people there seems no hope of relief from either. Kern predicted it would take years to heal the breach.

WASHINGTON SENATE FAVORS INCOME TAX

Olympia, Wash., Jan. 26.—The sixteenth amendment declaring for an income tax passed the senate today 86 to 5.

Traffic Breaks Record.

San Francisco, Jan. 26.—Reports to railway headquarters here indicate an increase of passenger traffic from the east that is breaking all records for midwinter travel. Since the restoration of normal conditions in the mountain passes, which were blocked by heavy snows for a few days, the limited trains from the east are running in extra sections above the regular schedules.

Greencastle, Ind., Jan. 26.—Invited to the wedding today of Miss Ethel Halstead, daughter of James Halsted, of Brazil, Ind., to James Evans of Indianapolis, many persons were surprised to learn that Miss Halsted last night married Bert Connelly of Clinton, a former college sweetheart. Connelly heard of the approaching wedding and hastened to Miss Halsted, who could not resist his pleadings.

CALIFORNIA WILL NOT OFFER APPOINT TO JAPAN

Sacramento, Calif., Jan. 26.—Afrald of offering an affront to Japan, the federal relations committee of the assembly struck out all reference to the Pacific fleets of other nations in the resolution calling on congress to send a battleship fleet to this coast. In reporting the resolution the committee makes only a modest request for warships and refuses to report a recommendation on the resolution asking for more stringent exclusion laws.

MARRIAGE OF WHITES AND JAPS MUST CEASE

Olympia, Jan. 26.—Inter-marriage between whites and peoples of other colors is scheduled to become a thing of the past in Washington. It is not likely that the bill already passed up on favorably by the house judiciary committee, prohibiting unions of this kind will fail in passage. The measure is aimed particularly at whites and Japanese, due to the large number of marriages of this character recently.

NEWSPAPERS JOIN SEARCH FOR MISSING HEIRESS

New York, Jan. 26.—Lying in state in the national artist club, the body of the author David Graham Phillips, was viewed by many friends today. So many admirers have requested to see his face that the private funeral plans were abandoned and public services will be held at St. George's Episcopal church Friday afternoon.

A Fool and His Money.

Berlin, Jan. 26.—A sheet of old Hanover postage stamps of great rarity, recently found, has been purchased by a Berlin collector for $22,000. When Hanover was incorporated with Prussia all of its stamps were supposedly destroyed, but the sheet recently found had been misplaced in a file of records.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum.

Excellent program for Friday's change.
1. "White Roses." A Biograph story showing what an awful affliction bashfulness is. Harry, after a number of attempts, figures that he must send his proposal in writing. This he does, sending a box of pink, white and red roses with it with the code: wear pink roses if in doubt. Things got twisted and it nearly resulted in two broken hearts. However, Cupid, in the person of a policeman, straightens matters out.
2. "The Recreation of an Heiress." Biograph. A comedy showing how a young fortune hunter got stung. A young heiress comes to the summer home for a little recreation. The young son of the home determines to win her—not for love, but money. The heiress gets wise to his motives and by a trick has him make up to her maid, whom she has assumed her role. Leading him on to an embarrassing position, she makes an exposition of the truth.
3. "The Bad Man's Christmas Gift." Essanay. A stirring story of the West, full of the spirit of Yuletide. A cowboy is jealous of an eastern man who has won the love of the ranch man's daughter. Bent upon killing him, the cowboy impersonates Santa Claus, but the spirit of Christmas takes possession of him and by the time the presents are distributed he joins the hands of the lovers and wishes them well.
4. "In Her Father's Absence." Pathe. A comedy presenting the trials of a young man upon a visit to his lady love during her father's absence.
5. "The Jullians." Pathe. Ten acrobats give a first class display. Perilous feats, which include remarkable somersaults, the building up of human ladders, and swift leaps into the air, are an integral part of the exhibition.

The Pastime.

"The Show of Quality." Fine program for Friday and Saturday.
"Get Rich Quick." An account of the machinations of a gentleman who made his money by the deception of others.
"Hunting Sea Lion in Tasmania." The average outdoor picture by this house is a joy, and the one under this title is no exception. The mechanical work has been done with care and the picture cannot fail to excite interest.
"A Tenderfoot Messenger." A western story turning upon the cleverness of Shorty Blair, an express messenger, who assumes to be a tenderfoot and outwits a gang of desperadoes.
"The Christmas Carol." It is useless to undertake a description of this film. It is a Dickens' story put into motion pictures and so cleverly reproduced that the characters actually live before one. There is Scrooge at his office, lacking the spirit of Christmas, abusing those around him and refusing to contribute for the benefit of those in need.

NO RAT EDICT EXTENDS TO ALL

As a sequel to the edict issued by the upper class girls of the high school against the using of artificial beautifiers by the freshmen, a meeting of the entire co-ed student body was held yesterday afternoon to discuss the situation. The outcome was the adoption of an agreement which affects senior maid and freshman lassie equally. Its intent is to bring feminine adornment down to a sane and sanitary basis and to prevent any girl student from rendering herself conspicuous by an ostentatious use of paint, powder, rats, curls or puffs.
As a consequence, a number of the girls went to school this morning with their hair hanging down their backs in braids or curls, which simplicity of headress stands out in bold contrast to the great piles and stacks which have surmounted many of the young lady's heads for some time past. The relief is said to be as welcome to the girls as to the boys.

Against Pinchotism.

Olympia, Wash., Jan. 26.—By a vote of 26 to 15 the senate yesterday went on record as opposed to Pinchotism and passed the Beach memorial asking for the opening of Alaska mineral and coal lands. The fight for the passage of the measure was bitterly contested. The leaders of the opposition were Senators Bryan and White, democrats, Senators Ruth, Collins and Hutchinson lead the fight for the memorial. Among those who voted against the memorial were Senators Bassett and Cox.

Senator Bassett introduced a bill taking all motor vehicles and Senator Cox introduced a bill to clear title to inherited property. Bills repealing the anti-tipping and anti-cigarette laws were presented in both houses.
Enid, Okla., Jan. 26.—In four tests before physicians here yesterday, Frank Arkebauer showed that he has 454 inches lung capacity. This breaks the 436 inch world's record of Paul Van Broeckman of New York.
