Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Son Is Born.
A son was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Penland of 211 South Main street.

Hotel Clerk Is Ill.
Warren McDaniels, the well known day clerk of the Hotel St. George, is confined to his bed with an attack of la grippe.

Story Hour Tomorrow.
The story hour will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the library and will be conducted by Miss Matthews of the Washington school.

Seek Funds at Echo.
Mrs. Ida McKittrick and Miss Effie Elliott, the two ladies who have been soliciting funds for the Louise Home for fallen women in this city for the past few days, left on the local train this morning for Echo to continue their quest.

Body is Shipped to Weston.
The body of Mrs. Lewis Nolte, who died at St. Anthony's hospital yesterday morning, was shipped to Weston last evening. She had been a resident of that town for several years prior to her death and was 43 years old.

Plate Glass is Broken.
Wednesday evening the large plate glass in the front of the Tallman drug store was accidentally broken by Nate Wells when he threw a wrench at another young man in a spirit of fun. The latter dodged and the wrench struck the window with the above result.

Chief Gurdane Cleans House.
Chief of Police T. B. Gurdane has been spending the morning overhauling his headquarters in the city hall. In the various drawers and pigeon holes of his desk and cabinet, he has accumulated a rare collection of articles in the exercise of his duties. These articles range all the way from a bottle of vaseline to an opium pipe.

High School Defeats La Grande.
Pendleton high school's snappy little basketball team was successful in capturing the first game of its tour of Union and Baker counties when it defeated La Grande high school last night by the score of 29 to 22 in a fast and exciting contest. The boys will meet the formidable quintet of Baker high tonight.

Hopeful for Extension.
In reply to the resolutions passed by the Commercial association Senator Chamberlain has written Dr. C. J. Smith stating that in his view the government will proceed with the extension of the Umatilla project. According to Senator Chamberlain he has put forth every possible effort to induce such action on the part of the government and so has Senator Bourne. He is now satisfied that the extension will be made.

Library Ball Tonight.
Tonight is the night of the annual Library Ball which is taking its place as one of the principal social functions of the season in this city. This year it is being given under the direction of the Ladies of the Current Literature club which, in itself, insures a successful affair. The funds from the ball will be devoted to the improvement of the local public library in which all Pendleton feels a pride. Music tonight will be furnished by seven pieces furnished by the United Orchestra.

Gwin Will Represent Round-up.
Secretary J. H. Gwin of the Round-up association has been selected by his associates in the board of management to represent Pendleton's big wild west show at the meeting of the representatives of the various fairs and race meets in the northwest to be held in Spokane on Feb. 2. The object of this meeting is to arrange the dates of the different fairs so that they will not conflict with one another. It is the sense of the local association that the dates for the Round-up should be fixed so that at least no other event in the Inland Empire is held contemporaneously.

Would Bring Vocalist Here.
Charles Zig Schye, who is representing Virginia Dorothy Hill, the well known dramatic soprano in her world's concert tour, was in the city today endeavoring to arrange with some organization of the city to bring that vocalist here for an appearance. She is a niece of James J. Hill, the empire builder, but owing to family objections has not used her family name until recently in her public life. She is said to have a wonderful voice, being credited with a range of three and a half octaves. It is to be hoped that sufficient interest can be aroused here to insure her appearance at an early date.

Knights Entertain Knights.
Twenty-five strong, a delegation from Walla Walla commandery, Knights Templar, arrived in this city last evening to be the guests of the Pendleton commandery at the regular meeting. The Garden City knights making this fraternal visit were as follows: H. C. Gibson, C. S. Haynes, K. Falkenberg, George H. Swell, H. Gilbert, Henry Osterman, Fred M. Pauly, S. B. Calderhead, W. H. Kirkman, J. N. Willis, J. H. Armstrong, R. A. Stockdale, Z. K. Straight, E. Elliott, McCaw, Allen L. Wisana, J. N. McCaw, L. R. Hawley, J. W. Armstrong, Fred Voss, J. Chitwood and W. P. McKraw.

RECIPROCITY BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND CANADA
that the measure will be promptly enacted into law.

Congress Bewildered.
Washington, D. C., Jan. 27.—Congress is bewildered over the Canadian reciprocity treaty and is displaying a strong distaste for too hasty ratification until the tariff experts ascertain how it will affect revenue. While no leader in congress is talking much, it is admitted that other matters must be settled this session and that the acceptance or rejection of the treaty is unlikely before the conclusion of the regular session.

Canadian Papers Comment.
Toronto, Canada, Jan. 27.—Editorial discussing the proposed Canadian reciprocity treaty with the United States today, the Mail and Empire, conservative papers, say it is too early to pronounce it a bargain in all its details but it can be said that the concessions favor the United States very much.

Ottawa Papers Pleased.
Ottawa, Canada, Jan. 27.—Canadian papers in discussing the treaty generally favor it in editorials today.

Fishermen Are Opposed.
Gloucester, Mass., Jan. 27.—Designed as a protest against the reciprocity treaty with Canada, flags of the New England fishing fleet are at half mast. The leaders of the industry are planning a bitter fight against the treaty which allows fish to come into us without duty along with other foods and lumber. A committee of fishing interests has been appointed to act in Washington with a similar committee, representing the Atlantic and Pacific cod, mackerel and salmon fisheries in opposition to ratification by congress.

Standpatter Is Opposed.
Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 27.—Predicting an enormous growth for Canada if the reciprocity treaty at present under discussion in Washington and Ottawa is adopted, LaFayette Young, senator from Iowa, in his paper here today denounced the plan. Young is a standpatter and he declares that the proposed treaty will hit the Iowa farmer. He said the only question before the American people is whether the farmers of America are to be made to compete with all classes of labor in cheap lands of the world. He said he would fight all such treaties if returned to the senate.

War Predicted.
San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 27.—Should the government carry out the proposed plan to negotiate a new treaty with Japan, limiting the clause relative to immigration so obnoxious to Japan, the Pacific coast will witness a repetition of the Chinese riots which will precipitate the country into war, according to Youel, secretary of the Asiatic exclusion league. Interviewed today, he said there is a breach already existing between the two countries and that war is bound to come sooner or later.

Young said "The authorities at Washington must know that it would bring on war and that it must come sooner or later anyway. There is a rupture between this country and Japan. This I know from my own observation and from my agents in Japan. The government has wilfully, I believe, pulled the wool over the public's eyes by protestations of amicable relations. Maybe this treaty is to placate Japan. If it is meant to stave off the impending conflict until we are prepared for war this league will sit back and allow the immigration to continue for the time being as a necessary evil."

FRIEND'S FRIEND BETRAYS CONFIDENCE

Pendleton seems to be acquiring a reputation as a stamping ground for bad check artists, for there is scarcely a week goes by without a piece of worthless paper being set afloat in the channels of trade. The latest person to adopt this method of securing a sum of easy money is a gentleman by the name of W. F. Fox and his victim is C. L. Mohler, the popular clerk of the Hotel Pendleton.

Fox arrived in Pendleton during the fore part of the week with a letter of introduction to Mohler from a mutual friend in Portland and Mohler quite naturally did his best to entertain him while in the city. After two days, Fox declared he was running short of funds and asked his friend's friend to accommodate him by cashing a check, which the latter unsuspectingly did. Fox then took his departure, saying he was going to Seattle, and yesterday Mohler received a notification from the bank upon which the check was drawn that Fox had no funds there.

WHITE SLAVE CASE IN PENDLETON

E. TODHUNTER AND PUG HEATHMAN UNDER ARREST

Two Local Characters Charged With Bringing Young Girl From La Grande for Immoral Purposes.

Pendleton police have unearthed what they believe to be a white slave case in this city and the principals are now under arrest and held in the city jail. They are Ernest Todhunter and Pug Heathman of this city and a young girl from La Grande.

Night Officer Kearney and Sheer got wind of the affair last night, and by a quiet investigation which they conducted, they learned that the girl, who, the officers firmly believe, is under the age of 18 years, had been induced to come here from La Grande for immoral purposes. She was located in the State rooming house and soon taken into custody, but she proved stubborn and refused to assist the police in any way.

After placing her in jail, the officers started in search of Todhunter and finally found him locked in his room in the same lodging house, and he refused to open the door to their demand. Chief of Police Gurdane was notified and immediately got out a warrant, whereupon the young man gave himself up, but far from going peaceably to jail, he fought the officers all the way over.

Heathman was found in his room this morning by Officer Stansberry and taken into custody.

Both the city and county officers have been cloistered with the prisoners this afternoon conducting an examination in an endeavor to secure a confession. They have not yet decided what charges will be preferred against the men on account of their inability to determine the girl's age, but they

WALLA WALLA BOWLING TEAM HERE TONIGHT

The fourth match game of the series between the Pendleton and Walla Walla Bowling clubs will take place tonight at the Pastime Bowling alleys. The count now stands 2 for Pendleton and 1 for Walla Walla.

In a practice game last night the Pendleton bowlers were in good form and rolled up a total of 2731 pins. Fred Book of the bowling alley had high score with 234 and high total with 602, over 200 average.

The following are the result of the scores:

A pickup team started to roll with them, but quit after the first game, after rolling a total of 745.

PENLAND BROTHERS ABSORB COMPETITORS

By a deal which was consummated today, Penland Bros., the well known draying firm, have purchased the equipment of the Milne Transfer Co., which consolidation will give them one of the largest transfer outfits in the state outside of Portland. They already had ten wagons and teams on the street in their draying and delivery business and their new purchase will give them three more teams and five more wagons.

Penland Bros. have been in this business for a number of years in this city and, by their splendid methods, have built up a large patronage in their line of work. They have been successful, also, in solving the delivery problem for the merchants, and have evolved a system that gives to Pendleton residents a convenience that many cities do not enjoy.

2 MULTNOMAH JUDGES MAY OBJECT TO BILL

Salem, Ore., Jan. 26.—Increase of the number of circuit judges in Multnomah county from five to seven, as proposed in a bill introduced in the house by Collins of Multnomah, is rendered doubtful by the expected attitude of Judge Henry E. McGinn, and possibly that of one other judge of the Multnomah circuit. The Multnomah delegation has decided to invite the five judges of Multnomah to come to Salem and show cause, if any, why their number should be increased. If there is a difference of opinion among the judges, as reports received here indicate, the Collins bill may have slim chances of passage.

Representative Biglow took the lead yesterday in a resolution in the house asking the Multnomah judges to appear next Tuesday and give their views.
