CHECK OBTAINED AND SIGNER IS BEATEN

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 28.—Badly beaten about the face and body and held a prisoner in his room in the Martinique Hotel while two men and a woman attempted to cash a check for $250 which they had forced from him, was the experience of John R. Roby, president and manager of the Golden West Baking company last night, according to the story told the police today. Suffering terribly from the beating Roby scribbled a note and dropped it from the window. It was picked up by a passerby when the police released him and arrested a beautiful woman and two men with rooms nearby. They were jailed without charges.

TWO WARSHIPS A YEAR PROGRAM TO CONTINUE

Washington, D. C., Jan. 28.—A provision repealing the eight-hour law restriction on naval contracts is included in the naval appropriation bill reported to the house this afternoon. The bill carries with it an appropriation of $34,000,000 for naval increases in 1912, which means a continuance of the naval polity of building two warships annually.

Captain Cowles Promoted.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Captain Walter C. Cowles, U. S. N., recently appointed commandant of the naval station at Honolulu, will assume the rank of rear-admiral after today, taking the place made vacant by Rear-Admiral Lewis C. Helmer.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum.

Good program for Sunday's change:

1. "The Dead Letter." Lubin. Two lovers have a misunderstanding and the letter written by the girl, asking forgiveness, is lost in the mails. It is found, accidentally, twenty-five years later, and the lovers, older, but still constant toward each other, are united. The nephew and niece, respectively, of the man and woman are also in love and the wedding bells ring for them at the same time. A story of absorbing interest throughout and with a doubly happy ending.

2. "The Rustlers." Selig. A great story of the western plains. Shows the experiences of a young man who went wrong, gambled and drank and finally was captured with a gang of rustlers. He escapes, though severely wounded, and thereafter has time for meditation and repentance.

3. "The Lucky Charm." Pathe. A fairy story. A young man is much abused by everyone, refused the hand of the girl he loved, and sent away riding backward on a mule. The fairies begin to work for him and many strange things happen to those who bothered him, and all obstacles removed, he marries the girl of his choice, with the fairies as attendants at the wedding. The work is well done and the film will please grown-ups as well as the children.

4. "Betty's Fireworks." The irrepressible Betty amuses herself with setting off a quantity of fireworks in unexpected places. The result is eventually a conflagration which demands the services of the fire department.

5. "The Appeal of the Prairie." An American-made Pathe picture.

A beautiful story of a little red fox, an Indian and a prospector of the early days.

Sunday music program—

1. March—Cuban Independence. C. D. Henningsen.

2. Waltz—A Fairy's Vision. C. W. Bennett.

3. Overture—Popular Jingles. Robert Becker.

4. March—Jersey Carnival. Daniel Lieberfeld.

5. Waltzes—Victoria Pegia. J. W. Pepper.

6. Intermezzo—Arab's Dream. Edwin F. Kendall.

7. March—Dixieland. Chauncey Haines.

United Orchestra, Karl Gulott, leader; R. W. Fletcher, manager.

The Pastime.

The show of quality. Sunday's programme:

"Sunshine in Poverty Row." A Christmas story representing a postmaster finding a letter from two poor children to Santa Claus and he himself playing the part of that good saint to the destitute little ones. A photoplay that touches the heart.

"The Cowpuncher's Glove." A western story conveying an impression of the breezy west, with its peculiar and vigorous types of humanity. The acting, the backgrounds and the spirit is western and all are drawn closely to fact. The romantic turn given in the last part of the picture introducing the glove as the arbiter of a dispute that leads to a fight on a swing bridge over a yawning chasm, is intensely interesting.

"The Tyrant of Florence." The story is very interesting because it contains much of history. The acting and staging are accurate reproductions of the times and people.

"The Chamolais Hunt." A reproduction of a chamolais hunt, showing the way the hunters operate in getting near enough to shoot them. An interesting outdoor picture.

"The Dishonest Steward." A picture story of a servant who was trusted by his master but in the end turns out to be a rogue.

"The City of a Hundred Mosques." A very interesting picture showing the Mohamedan at home and the way they worship.

Four full reels, 4000 ft. of latest motion pictures and illustrated song.

PASCO WOMEN PLAN HOUSE.

Club Is Organized After Four Days' Efforts.

Pasco, Wash., Jan. 28.—At the request of the president of the commercial club a few women met recently to organize a chapter to take part in civic improvement matters. As a result the aid of Miss Blanche Davis of Spokane was obtained to organize a chapter of the American Woman's league. Today, after four days' work, the required number of members have been secured, as well as a deed for a lot on which to build a chapter house.

The officers are: Mrs. Hotes, president; Mrs. Page and Mrs. Pelham, vice presidents; Mrs. Stanley, secretary, and Miss Chittenden, treasurer.

First Five Treatments Free

DO YOU KNOW

that I cure chronic constipation, no pay no cure? Do you know constipation is the cause of most all diseases, such as cancer, tumors, liver, dyspepsia, heart trouble, appendicitis, typhoid fever, peritonitis and piles? Do you know I give you a thorough examination and tell just what I can do for you without costing you anything? Do you know if you do have a watch and there was something wrong with it you would take it to the watch doctor, and are you not of more value than your watch? Do you know that the longer you put off your ailments, the longer it will take to cure you and the more it will cost and may cost your life?

All my work is distinguished by its gentle, soothing effect on the invalid. I CURE EVERY KNOWN DISEASE WITHOUT DRUGS OR SURGERY.

From whatever disease you may be suffering (no matter how many doctors you have tried, without getting relief), I will be frank in telling you if I can relieve or cure you. Each case is treated separately by me. My charges are extremely reasonable.

I may be seen at any time by special appointment or during my office hours, and I respectfully invite you to come and talk the matter over with me. I shall tell you frankly what you may expect of my treatment.

"There's Just One Drug Store Where I Know I Will Get Exactly What I Ask For"

When you hear that remark you can take it for granted the speaker means us.

Whatever you want from any drug store can be had here—if we haven't got it we will get it or you. There's never a fear of disappointment. You get what you ask for or what the doctor wants you to have, or you get nothing—you never get "something just as good" here, because we only have one BEST.

Does not this assurance warrant your trading here? We think so, and your doctor also thinks so.
