ATHENA COVERED BY MANTLE OF WHITE

ATHENA HAS HEAVY SNOW WEDNESDAY

Heaviest Fall of the Season—Drifts Two Feet Deep—Local Pastor Gives Interesting Lecture.

(Special Correspondence.)

Athena, Ore., Feb. 4.—Wednesday night a slight rain started in early in the evening and about 10.00 o'clock it started to snow, which fell with amazing rapidity and by morning there was an average of about 6 inches of the white crystals covering everything. However, in some places the snow had drifted until it was as deep as two feet.

This is the first real heavy snow that we have had in this vicinity this winter and it came on so sudden that the people are hardly prepared for such a sudden change in the weather.

Rev. McKenzie Meldrum, pastor of the Christian church of this city, delivered the second of a series of lectures Thursday evening on his travels over different parts of the world. What makes his lectures so intensely interesting is due to the fact that his travels are illustrated with the stereopticon and with slides made from his own photographs.

His talk Thursday night was given on his travels in and around the islands near Australia, and by means of his photos he explains some of the perils and adventures that he and his companion experienced.

His lectures are by far the best entertainment that has ever been given in this city. Mr. Meldrum has been around the world several times, has visited the dark islands where no man had ever been before, and has been through some of the most thrilling experiences that could be imagined, the one that he claims to be the most exhilarating and the most exciting being that of riding on the back of a turtle four feet across, through the ocean. He displayed the actual photograph where he was sitting on his knees on the back of the reptile and he was holding to each side of the turtle's back.

EDNA MAY FOLLOW NAT IN VAUDEVILLE

New York, Feb. 4.—Edna Goodrich today would not deny the report that she is to follow her husband, Nat Goodwin, whom she is suing for divorce, on the vaudeville stage. She admitted she had been trying out some new songs.

The Chicago Motor club is preparing to hold a Chicago-New York truck run. The object is to show not only the road efficiency of both light and heavy wagons but also the cost of operation. This run is to be held in July, probably the last part of the month when the roads are best. The affair will be spread out over about ten days, the business machines being called upon to run about 100 miles a day. The Chicago Motor club will have not only this run for trucks, but four other events, which include the fuel economy run in May, the hill climbing in June, the national stock chassis race in August and the 1,000 mile relay run in September.

According to the trade magazines, there is a shortage in the supply of hickory which threatens to be serious for the automobile business. Hickory is used in the manufacture of spokes and rims, and this will mean an increase in prices of these things, no doubt. On the other hand, the constant weakness of the crude rubber market is likely to mean even further reductions in the prices of tires by springtime. They were cut only recently about 10 per cent.

Tennessee's new United States senator is not lukewarm.

The Pastime.

"The show of quality." Program for Sunday and Monday.

"Those Boys." Biograph. Father brings a pistol home for the ladies' protection while he is away. The two young boys find it and what they came nearly doing makes one shiver to think what the consequences would have been. A clever story by this well known company.

2. "The Acrobatic Burglars." Vitagraph. A laughing comedy showing three acrobatic burglars at work. Their getaway and final capture.

3. "When Lovers Part." Kosmik. A production from the Southern Stock company. A girl and her lover are parted by her relentless father. Both go to war, the father is killed, but the lover lives to return and claim the bride. There are delightful old Colonial houses, blooming rose gardens and huge southern oaks in this excellent production.

4. "The Guerilla." Pathe. As usual this picture company has produced in the Guerilla their usual high class production.

"Where the Wind Blows." Vitagraph. Don't fail to see this show. Four reels, 4000 feet of latest motion pictures and song.

A Card of Thanks.
