MANY TEACHERS ARE TAKING EXAMS TODAY

Forty teachers and would-be teachers are undergoing a severe mental strain at the court house today as they try to set down in black and white the answers to questions propounded to them by the county examining board. As usual the great proportion of the applicants for county and state certificates are of the weaker sex, there being but four men taking the exams. Most all of the applicants, too, have been holders of certificates before, there being but little new material to recuit the ranks of the pedagogues. County Superintendent Welles is being assisted in conducting the examinations by Superintendent I. E. Young of the Milton schools and Principal W. H. Musselman of Helix, the latter serving as a substitute for Dr. W. H. Bleakney who was unable to come to Pendleton on account of a serious illness in his family.

The following are the applicants for county certificates:

Maude Richards, Freewater; Effie Pieplow, Walla Walla, Lesta Hall, Walla Walla; Mabel McIntyre, Adams; Martha Lavador, Adams; Hazel Koeler, Holdman; Catherine Womohler, Athens; Clayborn Hiser, Milton; Nettie M. Monkman, Ukiah; Etta Baker, Pendleton; Ida J. Narkaus, Weston; Edith Foringer, Adams; Jennie Gains Watts, Athens; Flora Morris, Pilot Rock; James B. Hartwell, Pendleton; Lydia Albaugh, Pilot Rock; Grace M. Gregg, Gibbon; Bessie Morris, Weston; Jessie D. Wells, Milton; J. S. Hunter, Walla Walla; J. A. Rook, Holdman; Minnie E. Ghormlay, Wallula; Viola Shea, Pendleton; Barbara Hoch, Pendleton; Lena Larson, Adams; Charlotte Ogilvy, Pendleton; Vera Cochran, Freewater; Martha Gerking, Weston; Lau Etta Ghormlay, Wallula; Tracy Barton, Milton; Irene Rippey, Echo; Aveline McCutcheon, Nolin; Bertha E. Post, Pendleton; Kate Christensen, Freewater.

The following are applying for state certificates:

Sadie Bettenbender, Pendleton; Daisy Lee, Milton; Dorothy Bullfinch, Weston; Maude Pate, Athens; Elizabeth T. Tonkin, Pilot Rock; George Tonkin, Pilot Rock.
