

CALIFORNIA OUT OF WHEAT MARKET

PORTLAND PRICES DROP ONE CENT AS RESULT

Southern Neighbor Bidders Tire of Offering Premium—Further Weakness Abroad Also Responsible in Part for Lowering of Quotations in Northwest.

(Tuesday's Journal.)

World's Wheat Market.

Portland—Cash club, 80c; bluestem, 82@84c.
 Buenos Ayres—Wheat firm.
 Melbourne—Wheat firm.
 Liverpool—Wheat 1-2d lower; March, 7s 1-4d; May, 6s 11 3-4d.
 Berlin—Wheat steady.
 Paris—Wheat quiet.
 Chicago—Wheat 3-8 to 1 1-4c lower; May, 94 1-4c; July 92 7-8c September, 91 7-8c.
 Minneapolis—May $1.00 5-8.
 St. Louis—May, 95 1-4c.
 Kansas City—May, 91c.
 Winnipeg—May, 95 3-4c.

California has practically withdrawn from the local grain market and home millers have cut their quotation a cent a bushel. This placed their limit for club at 80c a bushel, track delivery, or the same figure as generally offered by export buyers.

Since the withdrawal of the California buyers from the trade here bids for bluestem have been reduced about 2c a bushel, the former premium over the club being reduced a cent.

Notwithstanding recent weakness abroad, local interests have been paying high value for wheat, but today there was further loss at Liverpool, with an increase in the visible supply there, and northwest quotations were brought down.

There is a very dull tone in the barley market with no business at all offering from the east for brewing. Feed barley is nominally quoted at $23 here, with brewing at $24.

Trade in oats is somewhat weaker, owing to the more free offering by growers. Prices range from $27 to $27.50 a ton track delivery Portland, but few are now offering over the lower figure.

OMAHA HOGS DIME LOWER.

Market Weak With Cattle Strong to Dime Higher in the Yards.

South Omaha, Feb. 7.—Cattle, 4300; market strong to 10c higher. Steers, $5.75@6.40; cows and heifers, $4.50@5.30; stockers and feeders, $5.30@5.90; bulls and stags, $4.00@5.00.
 Hogs, 11,200; market weak to 10c lower. Sales, $7.35@7.55.
 Sheep, 3800; market steady. Yearlings, $4.85@5.00; wethers, $3.90@4.25; lambs, $5.85@6.10; ewes, $3.85@3.90.

CHICAGO HOGS STEADY.

Receipts Are Far Less Than Year Ago; Sheep Market Is Strong.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—Estimated receipts—Hogs, 18,000; cattle, 4500; sheep, 14,000.
 Hogs are steady. Left over, 32,000; receipts a year ago, 25,000.
 Hog sales: Mixed, $7.35@7.50; heavy, $7.40@7.65; rough, $7.10@7.30; light $7.55@7.90.
 Cattle—Steady.
 Sheep—Steady.

Sheep Market Shaded.

Sheep market prices are not promising at North Portland and recent sales were made at a reduction of 10c to 25c. There was another big run of sheep and lambs in the yards during the day, a total of 1434 head being received compared with 1167 yesterday and note a week ago today.

Cattle are again being brought forward from outside points. Shipments were unloaded this morning from Nevada as well as California, Idaho and local points.

Market for cattle continues good for best quality but packers are still inclined to withhold favor from the poorer stuff.

No hogs were received today and the market continues nominal at the reduction quoted exclusively by The Journal yesterday.

Among the Shippers.

Cattle—H. B. Humphrey, Reno, Nev., four loads; August Grindstad, Gravelle, Cal., five loads; C. H. Duncanson, Weiser, Idaho, two loads cattle and calves; W. E. Baker, Weiser, Idaho, one load cattle and calves; J. E. Reynolds, Condon, Ore., two loads.
 Sheep—T. B. Adams, Enterprise, Ore., one load; A. W. Baum, Gooding, Idaho, four loads; Thomas Seigal, Huntington, Ore., one load.

Worn Out.

That's the way you feel about the lungs when you have a hacking cough. It's foolishness to let it go on and trust to luck to get it over it, when Ballard's Horehound Syrup will stop the cough and heal the lungs. Price 25c, 50c and $1 per bottle. A. C. Koepfen & Bros.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum.
 The show of quality.
 1. "His Wife's Sweetheart." Biography. This is a very funny comedy in which the generosity of a husband proved disastrous. He presents his wife with a handsome hat and coat. These are surreptitiously worn by the maid servants while walking with their beaux. Hubby of course, thinks the wearers of the clothes his wife, and as there were three maids he has a lot of trouble doled out to him.
 2. "After the Ball." Biography. Brown's wife is waiting for his return with a rolling pin. He at length returns with two friends, each in their masquerade costumes—one as a policeman, the other a burglar. Brown anticipates trouble and resorts to a clever subterfuge, which with care might have worked, but fell down at the finish.
 3. "The Stranger." Kalem. A symbolic drama in which "Happiness," symbolized by the Old Stranger, comes into a home of discontent and works a miracle.
 The Stranger, played by Mr. Robert Vignola, assisted by Miss Gauntier and the Kalem Southern Stock company.
 4. "The Indian's Revenge." Biography. A good drama of early days.
 5. "Justinian and Theodora." Solig. A classic of the dark ages, by Elbert and Alice Hubbard.
 The show of quantity and quality.

The Pastime.
 "The show of quality." Leaders in best, clearest, steadiest pictures. Offers an excellent program for Tuesday's change.
 "In Neighboring Kingdoms." Vitagraph comedy, 1000 feet. Here are three irrepressible youngsters, a prince and princess in neighboring Kingdoms, who refuse to wed as their father's wish. They run away, assume disguises, meet, fall in love, but can't marry because each tells the other that he or she is of royal blood. Then they relent and decide to accede to their father's wishes, only to discover upon their wedding day that they love each other after all.
 "The Blue Horse Mine." Lubin. Drama, 1000 feet. An excellent picture, telling the story of a western mine, an eastern man and a girl, and an Indian who ran a race and won $20,000 with which the mine was developed. Upon this hung the success of the young man's love. Eventually everything came out right. The Indian ran the race, the money was put into the mine and the rich party dirt which came out disposed of the girl's father in favor of the young man.
 "The Redeemed Criminal." Eszany, drama, 1000 feet. Two criminals working together, one is caught and sent to prison for a long term, but despite all the efforts of the officers he refuses to disclose the name of his pal. The latter reforms and when his accomplice is released, has become a minister and holds a high place in society. The released convict begins his depredations again and breaks into the home of the fiancée of the clergyman's son. Then he carries off the jewels to the minister and forces him to hide them in his safe. There the son finds them and is with difficulty convinced the clergyman is not the thief. The minister dons his burglar's garb and returns the jewels and when his former partner in crime returns for them reads him such a lesson that he reforms.
 "A Race for a Wife." Vitagraph, drama, 1000 feet. An exciting automobile race in which $20,000 and a pretty young lady are the stakes. Don't fail to see this picture.
 Four reels, 4000 feet of motion pictures and illustrated song.
