Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Ferguson Children Better.

The two little children of Attorney and Mrs. C. J. Ferguson who have been seriously ill for some time with scarlet fever, are reported to be past the danger point now and well on the road to recovery.

Road Meeting Saturday.

President H. J. Taylor of the county good roads association, has called a meeting of that organization for Saturday. The meeting will be held in the rooms of the Commercial association and will begin at 1:30.

Valentine Sale Poor.

According to local dealers, the post card has largely supplanted the valentine as a purveyor of mush rhymes. They declare the sale this year has been the poorest ever experienced, but that the sale of post cards has increased correspondingly.

Dance Is Postponed.

The Young Peoples' club dance which was to have been given tomorrow night in the Eagle-Woodman hall, has been postponed until Friday night on account of the appearance of "The Three Twins" at the Oregon theater tomorrow night.

One Lone Drunk.

A solitary culprit by the suggestive name of Fort appeared before Police Judge Fitz Gerald this morning to answer to a charge of drunkenness. When given the option of three days in jail or a five dollar fine, he chose the former penalty without hesitation.

Judge Marries Couple.

Yesterday Judge J. W. Maloney performed the ceremony which united Tina Hays Stout of this county to Charles H. Schoick of Colfax in the bonds of matrimony. The groom is a practicing dentist in the county seat of Whitman county.

Newport Is Recovering.

E. P. Dodd arrived on train No. 17 today from Hot Lake, where he had been to see Col. H. G. Newport, who is being treated for a severe injury to the head. According to Mr. Dodd the colonel is now recovering and hopes for his recovery are strong.

To Add More Grades.

County Superintendent Frank K. Welles is in receipt of a letter from the clerk of district No. 22 at Pleasant View, five miles northwest of Freewater, stating that the board is contemplating the addition of the ninth and tenth grades to their school.

County Court Meets Friday.

The county court will meet again Friday to decide on the bids received at the Saturday meeting for a county rock crusher. Tomorrow the members of the court will start on a tour of inspection over the county to determine the location of the several bridges ordered at Saturday's meeting.

Bank to Light Up.

The American National bank is the latest to fall in line with the popular street lighting movement and holes are today being bored in the pavement in front of their building for the erection of one of the iron posts which are now becoming quite numerous.

Real Estate Transfers.

Frederick Greisler has sold to Kyle McDaniel 29 acres in section 24, township 6, north of range 34, E. W. M., for a consideration of $6000. H. H. Pitman and wife have transferred certain acreage they owned in Milton to L. D. Geaney and Agnes M. Stuart for a consideration of $9500.

It Was the Coe Attorneys.

It was stated in these columns yesterday that it was the Furnish attorneys who asked until Wednesday to furnish authorities to the court in the appointment of a receiver, when in reality it was the Coe attorneys that made such request. Col. J. H. Raley, who is one of the attorneys for the Furnish interests, states that the decision of Judge Phelps was entirely satisfactory.

Oregon Coach Is Here.

William Warner, who, as coach of the University of Oregon football team last fall, turned out such a swar eleven, is in the city today. He is now located at Hermiston, where he is practicing law. Warner has been retained by the athletic council of the university as coach for next summer and declares the outlook is good for a champion team.

Sues to Collect Note.

George H. Clark, the well known grocer, has begun suit against J. A. Gugin for the collection of a note for $80.10. The note, which was a promissory one, was given on February 9, 1911, it is alleged and was due the following day. The plaintiff also asks for interest and for $50 attorney fees. S. A. Newberry is representing Mr. Clark.

Couldn't Marry Here.

For some time past Pendleton has enjoyed the reputation of being the Mecca for Walla Walla couples who wish to evade the stringent marriage laws of their own state, but the couple from the Garden City which applied for a license today evidently was not aware that it was necessary even in Oregon to swear that the lady was a resident of the county. Consequently, they are still single.

Former Pendletonian Dead.

A telegram was received here yesterday by relatives that William Kugel, formerly a well known resident of this city, had died at his home in Tacoma of Bright's disease. Mr. Kugel with his brother, Fred, conducted a barber shop here for many years. He leaves one brother, Henry, as well as two sisters, Mrs. M. E. Keys and Mrs. Charles Koch, in this city. Mr. Koch left yesterday for Tacoma to attend the funeral.

School Boundaries Changed.

The county boundary board has taken away three sections of land belonging to the Umatilla district and included it within the Hermiston district. This land lies within a mile of the town of Hermiston and belongs logically to the Hermiston district. There was no remonstrance to the petition asking for the change. The boundaries of the Albee district were also changed to include several sections to the west which heretofore have not been included in any district.

Crowded House Sees Show.

Before a house packed from pit to back gallery "The Queen of the Moulin Rouge" was presented at the Oregon theater last evening. While there is nothing in the least elevating or purifying about the piece, and it is distinctly low in tone, it was not as splotchy as its many advance notices would make the public believe and there were many in the audience who were disappointed because they were not shocked more. There was only one part of the show that was satisfying in this particular and that was the finale in Act I when four modern Venuses posed before the audience clad in flesh colored union suits. Such exhibitions as there are generally featured as "for men only" attractions on a midway. The best scenes of the performance last night were the silent ones in Act II in which the Apache dance was introduced.

Ammonia for Peroxide.

Clark Nelson, the junior member of the Frazier-Nelson Book company, is almost ready to swear off cleaning his teeth as a result of an accident which befell him while performing this daily duty. He has been accustomed from time to time to fill his mouth with peroxide before applying the brush, but Sunday night he happened to secure a bottle of strong ammonia by mistake and before noticing it had emptied a considerable amount of the contents into his mouth with the result that the mucus was badly burned.

DARING BURGLARY IN PORTLAND TODAY

Portland, Ore., Feb. 14.—James Gilbert, a clerk in the Diamond Palace jewelry store, on Washington street, in the heart of the city was sandbagged this afternoon when Gilbert turned to get another tray of diamonds. The well dressed desperado then rushed back, looted the safe of $1,000, brushed all the diamonds into his pocket, and got lost in the crowd, before Gilbert recovered and notified the police. Half a dozen detectives are on his track.

Snaps for the Public.

Owing to the fact that I intend leaving the city, I will sell the following property at a great sacrifice: Nice, modern eight room house, only eight blocks from Main street; 255 acre chicken ranch, 10 miles from Pendleton, and new modern cold storage plant, just completed. All my property to go at a bargain. Investigate today. Antone Nolte, Pendleton, Oregon.

China.

This level country is entirely denuded of timber, and is as bare of trees as the American prairies. Enormous areas of the mountain country in North China have had all timber removed, with very unfortunate results upon the climate.

Eastern Star.

A valentine social will be given this evening by Bushee Chapter No. 19, O. E. S. A cordial invitation is extended to all members of the order to be present.

By order of the worthy matron.

MARY E. JOHNSON, Sec.

Customs Court Convenes.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Between sixty and seventy cases will probably be decided by the United States court of customs appeals during the regular session for hearing of arguments commenced in Washington today.

Indian Talk Lore.

The booklet entitled "Weyekin Stories," by Rev. J. M. Cornelson, missionary, is on sale at the Frazier-Nelson company stores. Price 10c. Send your eastern friends one.

Mrs. Charles Cahoe of Seattle, is in the city, the guest of her cousin, Mrs. S. R. Thompson.

Al Stephens was a passenger on the motor car from Umatilla this morning.

LIBRARY NOTES.

Mabinogion.

A new interest was awakened in the study of the Celtic folk lore when Lady Charlotte Guest gave to literature the Mabinogion, a collection of Welsh tales translated from the Red Book of Hergist. These tales resemble the popular stories of Arthur of Round Table fame, and bid fair to out rival them in interest. Though the Manawyddan, perhaps, the most fascinating one among them, with its enchanted golden basin suspended from Heaven is most likely the stories of the Arabian Nights and one is rather surprised to find among the Welsh people an imagination that could fashion such a tale.

While the youthful reader will mainly be attracted by the stories for entertainment the student of language and ethnology will find in them invaluable lessons.

Shah Nameh: Firdusi.

Through many ages the Homeric cycle has charmed and enlightened the nations of Europe. It possesses the chief formative influence of Greek art and civilization, and by this very fact it has obscured an epic not less absorbing—The Shah Nameh by Firdusi. It too helped to mould a larger national life and foster a burning patriotism.

The author has brought together a number of great stories which serve to illustrate the national characteristics of the Persians and illuminate their history.

Rustam and Soharb are among the most striking figures in heroic verse and their exploits in audacity and tragic interest are as marvelous as any found in the pages of romance.

Sir William Jones says, "The Shah Nameh is a glorious monument of Eastern genius and learning."

REV. CORNELISON AUTHOR OF INDIAN BOOKLET

Rev. J. M. Cornelson, Presbyterian missionary to the Umatillas, is the author of a little booklet called "Weyekin Stories," that is now on sale at the book stores. The proceeds from the sale of the books will be used by Rev. Cornelson in his work upon the reservation. Just now the missionary is preparing for a trip to Boston and he will take some of the books with him for distribution in that city. He will be in Boston for a short time and while in the east will attend the general conference of the Presbyterian church. Aside from the books Mr. Cornelson will take some Pendleton Indian robes, Indian pictures and curios for the purpose of showing his eastern brethren the nature of life in his western field.

ARE YOU FREE FROM

Headaches, Colds, Indigestion, Pains, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Dizziness? If you are not, the most effective, prompt and pleasant method of getting rid of them is to take, now and then, a desertspoonful of the ever refreshing and truly beneficial laxative remedy—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna. It is well known throughout the world as the best of family laxative remedies, because it acts so gently and strengthens naturally without irritating the system in any way.

To get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., bearing the name of the Company, plainly printed on the front of every package.

EDWIN W. LONG GOES TO SUNDAY DIES AT HOSPITAL SCHOOL OR EXPLAIN

Edwin W. Long, the well known former student of the local high school, died last night at St. Anthony's hospital of pleuro-pneumonia after an illness of five days. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made but are held pending word from the boy's mother and two sisters who live in other cities.

The deceased has lived in Pendleton since 1893 and was known to his many friends as an exceedingly industrious boy who had a promising future. Recently he has been associated with his brother-in-law, Olney Simpson, in farming, but during the winter has been in the employ of the Laing stables in this city.

Besides his mother, he leaves to mourn his untimely death four brothers and three sisters, as follows: Kyle, Hartman, Glenn and Dean Long, all of this city, Mrs. Jack Kinder of St. Johns, Mrs. Arthur Rigby of Granum, Alberta, and Mrs. Olney Simpson this county. The latter was at the bedside of her dying brother.

Men of Umatilla county who do not attend Sunday school are called upon to defend their course in public debate.

A formal challenge to this effect has been issued by the president of the Umatilla County Sunday school league and was received by the East Oregonian this morning. It is as follows: Milton, Ore., Feb. 9, 1911. To the East Oregonian: The Umatilla County Sunday School association hereby challenges the men of Umatilla county who do not attend Bible school to debate the following question: "Resolved that it is the duty of every man in Umatilla county to belong to and attend a Bible school." This debate to be held in the auditorium of Columbia college, Milton, on the 8th of March, 1911, at 8 o'clock p. m. Three speakers on each side will be allowed. Time, ten minutes each with five minutes for rebuttal by the leaders. LEVI JOHNSON, President.

OLDMAN HAS RESTAURANT AND REVIVAL MEETINGS

(Special Correspondence.) Holdman, Ore., Feb. 14.—Miller & Son have just opened a restaurant and lunch counter for the purpose of providing an eating place at this point.

Rev. Payne, the Weston minister, is now here to hold revival meetings.

MARTIN WILL OPEN ROYAL BAKERY

Rudolph Martin, for 19 years a successful baker and groceryman in Pendleton, and proprietor of the State hotel and Martin block, has again established his residence in this city and announces that on February 20 he will open a first class bakery in the corner room of the State hotel, corner Webb and Cottonwood streets.

Since leaving Pendleton Mr. Martin has visited the largest and leading bakeries and delicatessen establishments on the coast and has thoroughly acquainted himself with the most modern methods in the bakers' art. The new store will be called the Royal Bakery, and everything carried will be cooked in his own new and up-to-date ovens.

The Royal will cater to both the wholesale and retail trade, a first-class delivery service will be established and the people of Pendleton are assured of getting the best in the bakers' line at the new Royal Bakery.

Profanity of expression may sometimes prove a prayer concealed behind the mask of charity and self-sacrifice.
