WAR CHALLENGE FROM WALLA WALLA

BUSINESS MEN WOULD PLAY BASKET BALL

Gauntlet Thrown Down by Audacious Garden City Tossers of "Has Been" Fame.

Shades of the great war god Mars! Listen to the roar of Walla Walla thunder issuing from the camp of the Ancient Legion and then judge for yourself why it is that certain and sundry of the athletic specimen of the local Commercial association have assumed a militant bearing and have the spark of battle gleaming in their eye. Here it is: Mr. J. E. Montgomery, Pendleton, Oregon.

Dear Sir and Fellow Servant: You are hereby notified, challenged, defied and warned, that we, the basketball squad of the Walla Walla Y. M. C. A. composed of ancient and honorable men are so darned anxious to play you all a game or three of the "only game," that we will either come to your town first, or you can come here first and we will go there the next week, the third game, if through the iniquity of the referee, that should be necessary, to be played on neutral grounds, either Milton or Chicago.

We to pay your expenses here and you to pay ours there. Teams to consist of 8 men, the home team to furnish a doctor and undertaker. We prefer to play here on Wednesday or Friday night, but could probably arrange for any other. In fact if any of these terms are not agreeable to you, just change them to suit yourselves, all we want is a game with a Pendleton businessmen's team, and we will attend to the rest of it.

Of course its rather a hard proposition to ask a good looking bunch to run up against certain defeat, but we will let you down easy when the time comes and try not to rub it in about the superiority of our big red apples. So, therefore, if you will set the day on which you will prefer to take a good licking. By the way, I started out wrong, we are not the team of the Y. M. C. A., only the Businessmen's Class team, the Y. team is not in our class at all. Disrespectfully, M. A. JONES.

Mr. F. D. Applegate Physical Director of the Y. M. C. A. is a member of our class, but of course is a classier player, but if you have no one of his class, it will be perfectly agreeable for us not to play him, in other words, we want to beat a bunch of our own class class.

It has not yet been decided in what manner this bold deft will be met. Needless to say, the members of the Commercial gym are like old war chargers with the smell of battle smoke once again in their nostrils. Each and every one is possessed of a keen desire to administer the humiliation tonic to the vainglorious boasters from over the line.

John Montgomery chafes under the restraint his business puts upon him and, like the king of the jungle beasts, shakes his shaggy head and rends the heavens with an ominous roar. George Hartman, imbued with the Round-up spirit, can be seen almost any evening in the gymnasium cavorting about like an outlaw cayuse and his only answer to the challenge is, "Let 'er Buck."

Pohnnie Lambirth, the bantam of the squad, has his gaming blood up and at any reference to the impudent letter, his mustach bristles and his whole being quivers with the lust of combat. Even Charlie Marsh, rotund of form and mild of spirit, has adopted the bearing of a professional gladiator, while Clark Nelson, as may be imagined, is more belligerent than ever and can be heard recounting to admiring friends the time in the year '03 when he threw a basket while standing on his head.

A consultation will be held tonight and it is probable that the Garden City gauntlet will be picked up.

MARTIN WILL OPEN ROYAL BAKERY

Rudolph Martin, for 19 years a successful baker and groceryman in Pendleton, and proprietor of the State hotel and Martin block, has again established his residence in this city and announces that on February 20 he will open a first class bakery in the corner room of the State hotel, corner Webb and Cottonwood streets. Since leaving Pendleton Mr. Martin has visited the largest and leading bakeries and delicatessen establishments on the coast and has thoroughly acquainted himself with the most modern methods in the bakers' art. The new store will be called the Royal Bakery, and everything carried will be cooked in his own new and up-to-date ovens.

The Royal will cater to both the wholesale and retail trade, a first-class delivery service will be established and the people of Pendleton are assured of getting the best in the bakers' line at the new Royal Bakery.

J. W. BAILEY MAY BE TWICE INVESTIGATED

Salem, Or., Feb. 15.—There is still uncertainty as to the character of the committee which is to conduct "official" investigation of the dairy and food commissioner's office, which was to have been taken up yesterday evening. It looks as though there would be two "official" investigations. The senate amended the resolution calling for the investigation by limiting the number of house members to two. It already gave the senate five members and the house yesterday morning refused to concur in the amendment. The house will probably instruct its committee of three, already appointed by the speaker to conduct an independent investigation regardless of what action the senate takes. This investigation will doubtless take place at the same time as does the senate investigation but reports will be independent of each other.

BENSON AND BOWERMAN PICTURES FOR CAPITAL

Salem, Or., Feb. 15.—Oil paintings of Frank W. Benson and of Jay Bowerman, recent governor and acting governor, are to be hung on the capitol walls for the benefit of future generations. The senate yesterday morning passed a house concurrent resolution calling for Benson and Bowerman to be done in oil, six votes being cast in the negative. Bowerman himself was one of those voting no, and the others were Albee, Calkins, Kellaher, Miller and President Selling.

All Against Multnomah

Salem, Or., Feb. 15.—So many legislative redistricting plans are in the atmosphere that there is doubt whether any will succeed. Every plan proposed meets with determined opposition, and every move by Multnomah to gain a share of senators and representatives in proportion to population is jumped on by the outside members. The house several days ago named a special committee to wrestle with the question, and yesterday the senate authorized President selling to name a committee of five for the same purpose.

There is a moral in everything, if we look for it.

FROM THE TROPICS TO HEAL US

In Central America many natives are gathering the seeds of this plant, Cedron Seed, a rare medicine that has valuable curative powers. But few drug stores carry this seed, owing to the high cost of the article. This country is a large consumer of this costly seed because it enters into the famous castarr remedy, Peruna, sold the world over. Ask Your Druggist for a Free Peruna Almanac for 1911.

TRAINS IN CENTRAL OREGON.

Service Will Be Inaugurated Soon by Hill Road.

After nearly two years of work, the Hill lines are about ready to inaugurate train service into Interior Oregon. Laying of rails on the New Oregon Trunk line as far south as Madras will be completed next Saturday or Sunday and traffic will be handled very soon thereafter.

Bend will be reached at a somewhat later date. Grading has been completed all the way to Bend, however, and rails will be laid to that point as soon as possible. It is expected to open the new line to freight traffic as far south as Madras not later than March first.

There will be no celebration to mark the opening of the line to Madras, although when the first train rolls in, it is doubtful if the enthusiasm of the people of that city can well be restrained. It is probable that a formal "spike-driving" will be arranged later, as this plan has been suggested by President Louis Hill of the Great Northern.

Residents of Interior Oregon are eager to hold a celebration in honor of the arrival of the first train. It is President Hill's idea to have these festivities later in the year, when the weather is more favorable for open air gatherings. A special train could be run from Portland to Madras to participate in the celebration and could then return to Portland the same night.

Officials of the state and men prominent in its business life will be invited to attend the exercises by Mr. Hill. He also wants the general public as spectators, particularly the people of central and eastern Oregon, who have taken such an interest in the coming of the railroad. It is understood that already people of the interior are vying with each other for the honor of making the first shipment of freight over the new line.

HOUSE ACCUSED OF LOGROLLING

APPROPRIATIONS TOTALING HALF MILLION GO THROUGH

Eastern Oregon Branch Insane Asylum Appropriation Included in Grist—Carter Objects to Program.

Salem, Ore., Feb. 15.—The house Monday appropriated a total of $522,000 and the ease with which many of the proposed expenditures went through led to charges of "log rolling" by some of the members. Carter of Clackamas openly stated on the floor that this had been the case on the appropriations for county fairs and declared he would not vote for any of them.

The appropriations made and passed over to the senate were as follows:

- Eastern Oregon asylum ... $310,000
Forest fire protection ... 60,000
National guard armories ... 40,000
Monmouth Normal school dormitory ... 50,000
State immigration agent ... 20,000
Nyssa bridge ... 10,000
Baker county bridge ... 10,000
Willamette valley irrigation

In Every Home

there is sure to come physical suffering at times—suffering hard to bear—suffering which will be followed by serious sickness, if the first symptoms are neglected. But this suffering will soon be forgotten, and there will be no after consequences if relief is obtained from a safe, reliable, natural corrective medicine.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

ought to be on hand in every home ready for use at first sign of trouble. This famous family remedy has proved in years and years of trial, its power to correct physical trouble and to ward off disease.

experiments 6,000
Central Oregon Normal school claims 3,100
Morrow county experiment station 6,000
Eastern Oregon agricultural fairs 2,000
Tillamook Fair association 1,500
Gilliam-Sherman fair 2,500
Lincoln county fair 1,000

Contrary to expectations there was no fight on the eastern Oregon asylum appropriation the bill passing without difficulty after a brief speech made by Peterson of Umatilla.

"I vote aye with mental reservations," declared Speaker Rusk when his name was called. There was opposition to the provision for the immigration agent who shall advertise and attract settlers from Huntington of Douglas. This bill is along the idea advanced by President Louis W. Hill of the Great Northern which has been tried with success in other western states, and Huntington had a small following.

The Monmouth normal, National Guard armories and one or two other proposed expenditures caused some debate, but passed without difficulty, while the remainder went through with little or no preliminary debate and but few dissenting votes.

CIVIL SERVICE RULES DENIED STATE OFFICES

Salem, Ore., Feb. 15.—Civil service rules for the state offices were rejected by the senate yesterday afternoon by the decisive vote of 10 to 19, the plan being embodied in the bill of Senator Burgess of Umatilla, senate bill 23.

Joseph and Kellaher opposed the bill, Malarkey and Bowerman supporting it. Joseph objected that civil service should be applied only to offices or departments where there are many employes, and not to state offices where there are only two or three clerks. Kellaher objected to the provision which would have legislated into permanent positions the present employees without examination as to fitness.

Bowerman said he believed in civil service, and said it was evident there was no politics in it, for the bill would not go into effect until 90 days after it was approved. The bill as drawn would have applied to practically all the state officers and institutions, including the insane asylum and penitentiary. The vote by which the bill was rejected was as follows:

Ayes—Abraham, Barrett of Umatilla, Bowerman, Burgess, Carson, Locke, Malarkey, Norton, Nottingham and President Selling, 19. Noes—Albee, Barrett of Washington, Bean, Calkins, Chase, Dimick, Hawley, Hoskins, Joseph, Kellaher, Lester, McColloch, Merryman, Miller, Parrish, Patton, Sinnott, Von der Hellen, Wood, 19.

Dog License Bill Defeated.

Salem, Ore., Feb. 15.—Senator Carson's bill for a state dog license was defeated in the senate last night. The bill proposed to create a fund from license to repay owners of stock killed or injured by dogs. The bill was killed by a vote of 8 to 22.

"THREE TWINS" IS SUCCESSFUL COMEDY

Jos. M. Gaites will offer at the Oregon theater for tonight the musical comedy success, "Three Twins," which comes from the Hellig after a successful engagement and which had a run of five months at the Whitney opera house, Chicago, and one year at the Herald Square theater, New York.

"Three Twins" received the unanimous endorsement of the press on its opening in New York, which stamps it as a high class attraction, and Mr. Ashton Stevens of the New York Journal said: "Three Twins" is a credit to Broadway."

There are more novelties in "Three Twins" than in all the other musical comedies combined, notable among which are the "Dancing Yama Yama Chairs," the wonderful Faceograph and the gigantic electric swing.

Mr. Gaites has spared no expense in costuming this attraction and the gowns are said to be the handsomest in America. The music is the most fascinating ever written and the musical numbers are elaborately staged. The "Cuddle Up a Little Closer" number, showing the seven ages of cuddling is the most pathetic stage picture ever produced.

The company is an exceptionally large one and is headed by Victor Morley and Beasie Clifford and includes Willard Flannigan, Reggie Morris, Edward Wade, Edward P. Bower, Frank Smith, Harry Collins, Ada Bateman, Lillian Sadler, Minnie Allen, Helen DuBois, Estell Colbert, and a chorus of sixty people. The sale of seats opened at Hanscoms Tuesday at 10 a. m.
