INDIAN MESSIAH DIES A MANIAC

Drinking copiously of liniments and a concoction of alcohol and opium, used by the Indians as a hair restorer, proved the undoing of George Moses, friend of the early white settlers in eastern Washington and Oregon and northern Idaho and foremost in the councils of the Nez Perce tribe.

Moses, who a few days before had proclaimed himself a Messiah, died a raving maniac in his home on Tom Beall creek, six miles from the Indian agency at Lapwai, Idaho, on February 12. He was roped and strapped to his bed when the end came. Mrs. Moses, who also had used the drugs, is violently insane and may not recover.

Funeral services over the dead headman were accompanied by the ceremonials of the tribe. The sermon was delivered by Rev. James Hayes, a native pastor of the Indian church, in Indian Presbyterian church at Joseph. The funeral was attended by many Indians from many parts of the northwest, also many white men and women. Burial was made in the little cemetery on the bank of the Clearwater river, within a few feet of the grave of Rev. Henry H. Spalding, pioneer missionary who came west with Dr. Marcus Whitman.

Several days before his death, Moses, while posing as "king of kings," summoned the Indians to his throne and pronounced judgment on each, decreeing that some should be blessed and others consigned to purgatory. Many of the Nez Perce Indians believe that Moses was possessed of supernatural powers.

Moses was looked upon as second to Chief Joseph, declared to be the ablest man the Nez Perce tribe has produced. He was identified with the Lapwai faction, which he refused to join Chief Joseph in the hostilities against the whites in 1877-8, when the reds led General O. O. Howard such a lively chase in the northwest.

Mother and Son Give Words of Praise

Mrs. Barbara Burke suffered for years from malaria and chills. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey drove the disease from her system and keeps her healthy and happy. Her son says Duffy's is "one of the family." He would not be without a bottle in the medicine chest.

MRS. BARBARA BURKE and her son, Mr. VALLY BURKE.

Mrs. Burke writes: "Fifteen years ago I was a sufferer from malaria fever and chills. On the advice of a friend I took Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and was cured. It proves effective in keeping malaria from my system and is a grand medicine for aged people. I have continued to use it ever since as a tonic." Mrs. Barbara Burke, 730 So. Liberty St., New Orleans, La.

In his letter Mr. Burke says: "It is with pleasure that I say and write and it is a pity that I cannot write these words in gold, 'Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is just one of the family, a good help in need.' Good luck to you." Vally Burke, Adv. Agent, Winter Garden Theatre, New Orleans, La.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

has always been and is now a pure, wholesome, healthful medicinal whiskey, produced without regard to expense in compliance with the requirements of the Foods and Drugs Act, the doctors' "Materia Medica" and the "Pharmacopoeia" the two recognized authorities on drugs and medicines in the United States. Great care is used to have every kernel thoroughly milled, thus producing a liquid food, tonic and stimulant, requiring no digestion. Its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach. Its gentle and invigorating properties influence for good every important organ in the body. It makes the old feel young and keeps the young strong and vigorous.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, be sure you get the genuine. It is sold in SEALED BOTTLES ONLY—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00 a large bottle. Write Medical Department, The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for doctors' advice and an illustrated medical booklet containing testimonials and rules for health, both sent free.

Five thousand orange farmers in California do their own packing, shipping and selling. They grade and select their crop into "firsts," "seconds," etc. The firsts are fancy, tree-ripened, hand-picked, seedless, fibreless, thin-skinned oranges—every individual orange a perfect specimen of the finest variety of oranges. They are not only more healthful and more palatable than other oranges, but they are actually cheaper, for they are nearly all meat and nourishment.

Your dealer sells "Sunkist" Oranges. Ask for them. You will know them by the tissue paper wrapper in which each "Sunkist" Orange is packed. On the wrapper note the label, "Sunkist." Keep all the wrappers. They are worth money to you.
