ACTRESS AIDS "WORKERS" ON SOUTHERN HIKE

Dunsmuir, California, Feb. 23.—The fatigue of the tramp toward Fresno was relieved through the kindness of the May Roberts theatrical company who picked up 35 industrialists last night at Sison and brought them here in the company's special car. Miss Roberts gave them all a bed, supper and breakfast. They will continue their march towards Fresno.

Germes of Disease should be promptly expelled from the blood. This is a time when the system is especially susceptible to them. Get rid of all impurities in the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and thus fortify your whole body and prevent illness.

It is the little things that we find so difficult to put together, and make of them something worth while.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.

Pendleton's favorite picture theater offers an excellent program for Friday and Saturday. All American pictures 1. "The Heart of an Indian Mother." This is one of the most exciting Indian pictures Kalem has ever made, and yet it has a strong appeal to the ladies. A little deed of kindness done for a sick papoose proves the means of saving the lives of a whole family of white settlers. The true story of an Indian raid and how the gratitude of a poor squaw helped the whites to beat off the redskins. Showing a real Indian travoix, an Indian funeral and other phases of Indian life true to nature. Pathos and true sentiment mingled with sensational action.

2. "The Test of Friendship." Edison. Two workmen, Tom and Jim, whose fists are as hard as steel, but whose hearts are of sterling worth, are in love with the same lady. Tom believes that Jim is the successful one, and though hard hit, takes the blow like a man. But the supreme test of friendship comes when Jim who has a quarrel with a truck driver on the top of a huge sky structure, is knocked unconscious and is hung out over the sidewalk, twenty-two stories below. The slightest move one way or the other and he is dashed to death and when Tom is called upon to save Jim's life at the risk of his own, it is a test that proves the mettle of the man. There they swing in mid-air, Tom and Jim, clinging together at this dizzy height. A thriller, a supremely dramatic movement in the motion picture art. The rescue and the winning of the girl by Tom gives a sweet touch of human nature to the close of this exciting picture.

3. "The Rival Dramatists or Cock-a-Do-die-Do." Selig. A burlesque on the reigning French dramatic craze. This picture presents a novelty in costuming and the acting. The closing scene, a pair of roosters fighting in a barn yard, is very funny.

4. "Hank and Lank." (Uninvited guests). Essanay. Once more the favorites appear, this time they haven't eaten as heartily as they might wish for a considerable time, consequently anything that indicates the presence of a meal is scrutinized with care. The humor in the picture cannot be described. It must be seen to be understood and appreciated.

5. "Hiring a Gem." Essanay. A lively comedy based upon the current belief regarding the difficulty of keeping a cook. This is a funny picture.

Four full reels, 4000 feet of good American productions.

The Pastime.

Picture program for Friday and Saturday:

1. "The Owner of the L. L. Ranch." Melies, 1000 feet. A western comedy detailing the adventures of a lord who contests a claim for a ranch with a woman, popular with all the cowboys and wins. Through some of those strange events in the way of fate, her favorite cowboy and her abject slave, comes into possession of money and buys back the ranch. A lively, well-acted picture, telling a straightforward story.

2. "So Near, But Not Quite." Pathé. A thief is wanted by the police. He seizes a bicycle and rides off. The cop does likewise. They are both experts on the wheel. Pedestrians are knocked down and ridden over, and various other most wonderful tricks are performed.

3. "The Old Water Jar." Vitagraph. An old Indian forsaken by all his friends, spends his time fashioning and decorating a water jar. Suddenly he realizes what a bad Indian he has been. Scenes of his early life are reproduced and pass in review before him. Realizing his sinfulness, he adds one more declaration and passes on to the happy hunting grounds of his people.

4. "Max is Almost Married." Pathé. This well known comedian is again in a very good picture with a laugh every second.

5. "Silver Cloud's Sacrifice." Kalem. A delightful Indian picture by the Kalem Co.

Music by the Pastime orchestra.

Modern Woodmen of America. Class adoption Friday 24. All neighbors are urged to be present. Refreshments. J. G. FINNEY, Clerk.

More moving pictures shown than any other theatre in the city—the Pastime.
