

SOCIETY EVENTS

In the year's course of study of France, the Thursday Afternoon club, this week, had the city of Paris for special consideration. The program, arranged by the hostess, Mrs. Thomas C. Taylor, was as follows:

- (a) Ritournelle ..... Chaminade
- (b) The Court Jester ..... Miss Edna Gates.

The Palace de la Bastille, Mrs. Owen Women of the French Salon, Mrs. Pee Underground Paris ..... Mrs. Lane Round Table Talk—Goblin Types—teries led by ..... Mrs. Bishop

Songs: (a) Swing Low ..... D'Hardelow (b) Mignonette ..... D'Hardelow Refreshments were served after the program, Mrs. Moule and Mrs. Sheridan pouring tea. The next meeting will be held on March the eleventh, with Mrs. John Halley, Jr.

Mrs. Frank B. Clopton was a charming hostess last evening to a number of her friends in honor of Miss Mary C. Roberts of Hartford, Conn., who is visiting with her sister, Mrs. F. E. Judd. Six tables of bridge were entertained and at the conclusion of the games, Mrs. Richard Maybery was awarded with the trophy for high honors and Miss Roberts was presented with a guest prize. The following were the ladies present: Mesdames Harry Rees, Leon Cohen, L. G. Frazier, Richard Mayberry, Sharke Nelson, Frank Hays, S. R. Thompson, Fred Earl, Willard Bond, W. L. Thompson, Henry Dixon Jones, F. E. Judd, T. C. Taylor, E. P. Marshall, G. W. Phelps, Roy Ratey, Augusta Moule, Ernest Ruppe, Nesmith Ankeny, George Hartman, W. A. Shuster, John Adams and the Misses Maude Sheridan and Faye Bartholomew.

Mrs. Nesmith Ankeny is entertaining a large number of Pendleton society ladies at her North Main street home this afternoon at bridge. The following are the invited guests:

- Mesdames Leona Thompson, John Robinson, John Vert, Leo Moorhouse, Mark Moorhouse, Augusta Moule, C. P. Bishop, Chas. Bonney, A. C. Hampton, Chas. Greulich, A. J. McAllister, Frank Frazier, E. P. Marshall, G. M. Rice, Sam Thompson, Thomas Thompson, G. W. Phelps, Geo. Perlinger, Ida Fowler, Thos. Montgomery, Geo. Hartman, Wm. McKinney, W. E. Brock, Mrs. Lina Sturgis, F. B. Clopton, Jessie Schultz, W. L. Thompson, and the Misses Pauline Rice, Celestine Moorhouse, Bernice Ruppe, Maud Sheridan, Bertha Alexander, Mary Roberts and Neva Lane.

On Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Miss Grace Elder, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Elder, and Irvin Swain were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents 102 Lileth street, the wedding being a simple one with only immediate friends and relatives in attendance. Rev. Joel C. Linsinger, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, officiated at the ceremony. Miss Elder has, for the past four years been stamp clerk in the local postoffice and has a large host of friends in this city who wish her happiness in her new life. The groom is a young business man of Bradleyville, Iowa and the young couple left for that city Thursday evening and will make their future home there.

Probably the most prominent among the week's social activities were the two afternoons at cards, Tuesday and Wednesday, at which Mrs. Lee Moorhouse, Mrs. A. J. McAllister and Mrs. Robert Forster were hostesses. The home of Mrs. Moorhouse on east Water street was very prettily decorated in flags for the occasion in patriotic recognition of the birthday of George Washington. Ten tables of "500" were entertained each day, the prizes being won by Mrs. D. C. McNabb and Mrs. Leon Cohen on the first day and by Mrs. Frank Frazier and Mrs. A. C. Hampton on the second. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of each afternoon.

Last Saturday at 1 o'clock a birthday luncheon was given to Mrs. Willard Bond by her mother, Mrs. A. L. Hayes and her husband's mother, Mrs. E. G. Bond and there was quite a number of this popular young matron's friends present to extend felicitations on the occasion. The following were the guests who were seated at the table: The Mistresses Fred Earl, L. G. Frazier, Roy Kirkley, Roy Alexander, Frank Hays, Clark Nelson, Richard Mayberry, W. H. Lytle, Roy Ratey, George Hartman, Mark Moorhouse, and the Misses Faye Bartholomew and Maude Sheridan.

CLEVER WOMEN.

Always Keep Their Hair Fascinating and Free from Dandruff. Almost everybody in Pendleton knows there is no preparation for the hair that can compare with Parisian Sage. It cures dandruff, stops falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back. It puts radiance and luster into that dull, lifeless hair that many women possess, and does it in a few days. On March 25, 1910, Lulu D. Fry, of Raphine, Va., wrote: "Parisian Sage is a wonderful hair restorer; it stopped my hair from falling out and stopped my scalp from itching; also cured the dandruff." Parisian Sage is sold by Tallman & Co. for 50 cents a large bottle.

Condon, to Miss Florence Rose Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Clarke of that city, were received in this city this week. The wedding occurred at the home of the bride's parents last Sunday at 1 o'clock. Mr. Harlan was one of the men who purchased the Pendleton Printery last spring and will be remembered here as the star pitcher of the local baseball team last summer.

Mrs. W. H. Lytle entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Lou Flood of Portland, who is spending several months with her sister, Mrs. Roy Kirkley. Mrs. Ben L. Burroughs was successful in winning the prize for the highest score for which three tables competed. Mrs. Lytle's guests besides the guest of honor were Mrs. Roy Kirkley, Mrs. Ben L. Burroughs, and the Misses Paralee Halley, Florence Curran, Pauline La Fontaine, Mary Shea, Iva Hill, Bernice Ruppe, Gertrude Campbell, Edna Zimmerman, Erial Mann and Jennie Perry.

Miss Sybil Clopton was hostess on Tuesday afternoon to the Young Ladies' bridge club at her home on Monroe street. Her guests, besides the members of the club, were Mrs. Thomas Vaughan, Mrs. C. Ernest Ruppe, and Miss Irene LaDow. Miss Bernice Ruppe carried off first honors in the contest and was awarded the trophy. Light refreshments were served following the games. Miss Daphne Leasure will be hostess to the club next week at the home of her aunt, 221 south Main street.

On last Saturday evening a housewarming was held for Mrs. J. P. Heims and Miss Florence Curran who have taken up their residence for the next few months at the Kelsey home on south Thompson street. The guests of the occasion were the following: The Misses Iva Hill, Paralee Halley, Irene Shea and Pauline LaFontaine and the Messrs. Rowland Martin, Fred Lampkin, Tom Weyman, Purdy Williams, and Will Curran.

The local lodge of Redmen gave their annual dance on Wednesday evening in the Eagles-Woodman hall for members and friends of the organization and there was a large attendance of both. The United Orchestra furnished music for the occasion and the hours before midnight were spent very pleasantly.

A large number of Odd Fellows from over the county were present Thursday evening at the meeting of Umatilla Encampment No. 17, I. O. O. F., when work of all degrees was put on. Refreshments were served afterwards and a general good time had.

Mr. George Ferguson, Mr. William Bailey and Mr. Carl Engdahl were among the local people who attended a dance at Athena Thursday evening. They pronounced the affair one of the most enjoyable that has been given in the county this season.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bishop and young son, R. C. Bishop, Jr., arrived in Pendleton Thursday evening from their home in Salem to spend several days as the guests of Mr. Bishop's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop.

Mrs. R. Alexander returned last evening from Hermiston where she had been for several days as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. P. Dodd.

QUEEN OF ACTRESSES PRAISES PE-RU-NA.

Miss Julia Marlowe

"I am glad to write my endorsement of the great remedy, Peruna. I do so most heartily."—Julia Marlowe.

Any remedy that benefits digestion strengthens the nerves. The nerve centers require nutrition. If the digestion is impaired, the nerve centers become anemic, and nervous debility is the result.

SOCIALIST SUNDAY FOR WOMEN OF NEW YORK

Tomorrow will be "Socialist Sunday" for the women of New York and other large cities who are disciples of the Marxian propaganda. A great rally will be held here by the "Woman's National of the Socialist Party," and similar gatherings are announced for every other important municipality from Boston to San Francisco. As a preliminary to the observance of "Socialist Sunday," the women of the party will hold a mass meeting tonight in Carnegie Hall, when addresses will be made by Mrs. May Wood Simons, Mrs. Florence Kelly, John Spargo, the Rev. Roland D. Sawyer and other prominent socialists. It is estimated that about 4000 women in New York are actively engaged in pushing the socialist "cause."

Life Saved at Death's Door. "I never felt so near my grave," writes W. R. Patterson of Wellington, Tex., as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 100 pounds in spite of doctors' treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption and that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years. Quick, safe, sure, it's the best remedy on earth for coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup and all throat and lung troubles. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Koeppeps.

To Stop False Weights. Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 25.—Hoosier merchants who have formed the habit of calling fifteen ounces a pound had better "look a little out." The women of Hoosierdom are on the warpath, and before they wash off the battle paint they expect to get the scalp of every dealer who has been guilty of dishonest practices in respect to false weights and measures.

To further the movement the Housewives' Protective association has been formed and convened its first session at Tomlinson hall this afternoon. The only requirement for membership is that each housewife joining the association shall provide herself with accurate scales, and weigh at least periodically the things she buys. It is alleged that this will cut down the annual household expenditures at least 10 per cent. The organization will investigate every claim of false weights or measures and turn over all valid complaints to the city inspector of weights and measures. Inspector Wilson and other municipal officials are heartily in favor of the movement and have pledged their support.

Falls Victim to Thieves. S. W. Bonds of Coal City, Ala., has a justifiable grievance. Two thieves stole his health for twelve years. They were a liver and kidney trouble. Then Dr. King's New Life Pills throttled them. He's well now. Unrivalled for constipation, malaria, headache, dyspepsia. 25c. Koeppeps.

Bring Us Your Rags! We pay cash for large, sort, clean rags. Bring them to the East Oregonian office at once.

To Observe Mission Sunday. New York, Feb. 25.—Quinquagesima Sunday, which falls tomorrow, will be widely observed by the Sunday schools of the Episcopal churches in the interest of missions.

FOR OVER THREE DECADES.

Foley's Honey and Tar has been a reliable household medicine and the "children's children" find it today the same safe and sure remedy for all coughs and colds that their grandparents did. It is a true medicine, possesses great healing and soothing qualities, and contains no opiates and no harmful drugs. For croup and whooping cough, it is a quick relief and permanent help. For all coughs and colds it is healing and soothing (does not constipate, but expels the cold from the system. It is prompt in relief and averts the danger of bronchitis, and pneumonia. Mahala Stockwell, Hannibal, Missouri, writing under date of August 28, 1910, has this to say about this great medicine. "I have recently used for the first time Foley's Honey and Tar cough medicine. To say that I am pleased with it does not half express my feelings. It is by far the best I ever used. I had contracted a bad cold and was nearly sick in bed, having a terrible headache as well as a cough and was threatened with pneumonia. I used but one bottle of your Foley's Honey and Tar and was completely cured. It beats all the remedies I ever used and I have used many different kinds." For sale by A. C. Koeppeps & Bros.
