LIVESTOCK MARKET CONTINUES FIRM

FAIR DEMAND FOR STOCKERS AND FEEDERS

Firm Tone Noted All Through the East—Chickens Cheaper—Salmon Season Closes — Oat demand is Stronger.

(From Wednesday's Journal.) Market for livestock continues firm with receipts small and demand liberal.

There is quite a firm demand for stockers and feeders in the swine market and the sale yesterday at $9, which was exclusively told in The Journal, was 25c above the finished stock.

There is again a firmer tone for livestock all through the east and a noticeable improvement is showing for hogs both at Chicago and Omaha. While the former is a nickel above yesterday the latter shows an advance of 15c. This would make the landing price of Nebraska hogs at Pacific northwest packing plants $8.20, or 55c lower than the same stuff is selling in the North Portland yards.

All the cattle that came forward for the market today were brought in by a representative of Schwarzchild & Sulzberger from Shaniko.

Recent sales of sheep in the yards have been made at an advance and wethers are now firmly entrenched at $4, while ewes are selling around $3.50.

J. L. Sterett had the only cattle in the yards today. He brought the five leads from Shaniko.

Chickens Cheaper. Chicken market is lower along front street today on account of the increasing supplies.

Receipts in the produce section this morning were much more liberal than during any previous day recently and this caused buyers to demand a lower price. Sales of mixed lots were made from 20c to 21c with both prices in effect most of the day.

Cooks of fancy hens could be readily moved at 21c or even a fraction better because there are so few of these coming forward at the present time.

The bringing out of cold storage chickens was one of the causes of the drop here and the price may be forced still lower if fresh offerings continue to increase.

Receivers are complaining over the lack of suitable demand for turkeys and the increasing shipments coming in this direction. While all dealers were eagerly crying for turkeys during the holidays the country shipper refused to pay heed; because he expected to receive more money. Now that the market is far below the level reached during the holidays, producers and shippers are eagerly seeking the street.

Geese and ducks are in steady demand, former prices being continued.

Closed Season for Salmon. The closed season for salmon fishing in the Columbia river began today. The season will remain closed until May 1, at which time the spring operations start. The spring season extends to August 25.

SMELT SHIPPERS WORRY.

Big Run Continues But Transportation Facilities Are Poor.

Shippers of smelt are worrying over the lack of suitable transportation. The run has been so heavy that the fish were transported from the Cowlitz to Rainier by barge the shipments then being taken to Portland by the steamer Lurline.

So great were the supplies, however, that the Lurline lost an entire day and notice has now been served that no further shipments would be taken. The supplies therefore are held for the steamer Hassalo, which arrives here at night instead of our-ing the day, as does the Lurline.

Oat Market Stronger.

The oats market is gaining strength and supplies are harder to secure here at $27 a ton for No. 1 white. One of the leading buyers made an effort to secure 150 tons and made a bid of $27 for it, which was refused.

Demand for oats is increasing. Railroad and logging men are getting ready for their spring work and are therefore bidding for oats. It was the failure of these interests to use any oats during the past few months that caused the lack of strength in the local trade as there has been no outside call for stock this season.

Barley market is quiet but is generally considered steady all around. Wheat trade remains steady with a continuation of the California demand noted yesterday. No change in prices.

A small amount of export flour is reported. While millers are generally holding out for $3.50 less usual discounts, some of the interests which are generally under the regular market are offering small lots at $3.50. However the tendency to sell at the lower range is not as great as a week or so ago.

Local flour trade remains quiet.

WILL CROSS CATTLE WITH WILD BISON

O. Luth, a farmer near Aldine, who is interested with W. B. Renn of Houston, in a new pheasantry which has just been established on Mr. Luth's place, has purchased two small bison calves, which probably will reach Houston some time in May.

The calves will be reared on Mr. Luth's place until grown, when he expects to cross them with Jersey cattle by way of experiment. Mr. Luth has seen the buffalo crossed with cattle around Tucson, Ariz., and he states that the hybrid animal is a splendid milk-giver, yielding much more cream than the ordinary cow. Mr. Luth already has on his farm a number of genuine "Brown Swiss" cattle, imported direct from the Alpine country. His hobby is collecting and propagating wild and domestic animals, and on his farm at Aldine, in addition to the golden, silver, Lady Amherst, English and Chinese ring-neck pheasants, several Chinese geese.

Mr. Luth expects to make of his farm a menagerie—a private zoo—and later on other kinds of wild and domesticated animals and birds will be added to the collection. Pheasants will be raised on a large scale and next fall the entire poultry population of the farm at Aldine will be entered in the annual exhibit of the Houston Poultry and Pet Stock association.

POPULATION OF MEXICAN STATES

According to the 1910 census of Mexico, the state of Chiapas has 436,817 inhabitants, which Consul Brickwood of Tapachula, says shows an increase of 76,018 over the population of 1900. The state occupies thirteenth place among the 31 political entities which form the republic of Mexico, those having more than 1,000,000 residents being Jalisco, Veraacruz, Puebla, Guanajuato and Oaxaca.

Lake Superior Company shareholders will meet next Wednesday to approve among other business the guaranteeing of the principal and interest of a proposed issue of first mortgage 5 per cent bonds of the Manitowish and North Shore Railway to the amount of $30,000 a mile the issue to be limited to $3,000,000.

The Force That Makes the Wheels Go 'Round

ADVERTISING is to business what electricity is to the city—light and power. It is at once a gentle force that makes things clear and an irresistible force that makes things go.

Advertising has sent the selling methods of the past generation to the scrapheap to keep company with the tallow dip and the horsecar. Founded on the most abstract of sciences, it concerns itself with the most concrete of facts. Wasteful and haphazard in its crude beginnings, it has revolutionized business because in its later development it has proved the most economical and efficient method of selling goods. Today manufacturers split pennies to find profits and split hairs to find costs. The old idea that an article is more expensive because it is advertised is exploded. As infallibly as water seeks the lowest possible level, modern business seeks the most economical method of marketing its products. An advertised article is cheaper than one which is sold to consumers by tallow-dip, horsecar methods.

It will pay the public to read the advertisements carefully—to patronize institutions that advertise, they represent the progressive element of today.

The store that advertises an article is the store that carries the goods that will bear the closest scrutiny.
