TO IRRIGATE WASHINGTON.

More Than a Million Acres to Be Reclaimed.

Seattle, Wash., March 6.—This month will witness the completion of the beginning of the surveys for construction of irrigation projects by which more than a million acres of semi-arid lands in Washington will be made to blossom as the rose. Private capital to the amount of more than fifty millions will be invested in these projects, exclusive of the irrigation schemes of the federal government. In the Quince valley the ranchers have combined in a mighty irri-

OUR DOCTORS.

"The late Count Solistoi loathed physicians," said, at a dinner in Washington, a Russian diplomat. "You remember how Tolstoid ridiculed physicians in 'War and Peace'?" Well, I heard him ridicule three of them to their faces over a vegetarian dinner at Yasaya Polyana. "Physicians," he said bitterly, looking up from a plate of lentils, 'may be divided into two classes—the radicals, who kill you, and the conservatives, who let you die.'"

ONE BIG FOOL.

But He Doesn't Live in Pendleton Nor Read the East Oregonian. A man in Connecticut gave a doctor, a specialist in catarrh, $50 to cure him of this common yet most obnoxious disease.

The specialist gave him a bottle of medicine and told him to use it. The fool took the medicine home, took one dose, put it on a shelf and made no further effort to follow instructions.

Three months later with the medicine still on the shelf he told a friend that the specialist was a fake; that he had paid him $50 and still had catarrh.

HYOMEI (pronounce it High-ome) won't cure catarrh if you don't breathe it; it works if you breathe it regularly.

Furthermore, you don't need to give a specialist $50 to cure you of catarrh for the specialist is yet to be born who can write a better prescription than HYOMEI.

Tallman & Co and druggists everywhere guarantee HYOMEI to cure catarrh or money back. A complete out fit which consists of a bottle of HYOMEI, a hard rubber inhaler and simple instructions for use costs only $1. Separate bottles of HYOMEI if afterwards needed costs but 50 cents.

Lonesome

There is not a woman on earth who can stand to live "day in and day out" in a 2x4 hall bedroom of a family hotel or boarding house.

They want a REAL home of their own—their own little dressing table—their own easy chair, and their own favorite pictures on the wall.
