DEATH CLAIMS FIVE PENDLETON VICTIMS

JERRY B. DESPAIN DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Merchant and Wellknown Resident for Many Years—Steve McDermitt,
Hugh Bain, Gib Brown and Julia
Olin Also Die.

The angel of death swooped down upon this section Saturday and his grim form hovered over the city all day yesterday so that when he took his departure he carried the souls of five people. Within twenty-four hours he had called from life to death J. B. Despain, Steve McDermitt, Hugh Bain, Gib Brown and Miss Julia Olin.

J. B. Despain.
Jerry B. Despain, the well known merchant, passed away at 3:19 yesterday afternoon, the immediate cause of death being erysipelas, from which he had been suffering for the past week. Prior to that, however, he had been afflicted with a chronic ailment, and had just recently returned from California, where he had been in search of relief. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church.

J. B. Despain was born July 4, 1859, in Lane county, Oregon, near Eugene. In 1875 he moved to Umatilla county and with the exception of three years, the remainder of his life was spent as an active business man of this county.

He was married in Lane county on July 11, 1880, to Miss Leah J. Hurt, a native of that county. To their union have been born nine children: C. Jay, Isabella I., wife of Raymond Harpole of Portland, Ore.; Leora I., wife of Frank Griggs of Pendleton, Ore.; Charles D., Grover D., Ralph W., Joseph R., Glenn R., Edgar M.

His wife and all of his children survive him to mourn his departure. Outside of his immediate family he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Viola J. Tuttle, and Mrs. Susie I. Robbins of Spokane, and two brothers, W. F. Despain of Ritzville, Wash., and Charles A. Despain of Dunn, Wash.; and a host of friends.

The pall bearers will be Mr. Lee Teusch, George H. Clark, F. E. Livingston, T. J. Malonev, Joe Stockman, Kenneth McRae.

Julia Olin.
Miss Julia Olin passed away at 2:30 yesterday afternoon, at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. K. Blakeslee, death resulting from pneumonia. The funeral will be held from the Folsom undertaking parlors tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Julia Olin was born Jan. 27, 1841, with the family to DeKalb, Ill., at an in Cortland Co., N. Y., but removed early age, where she has spent most of her life, and to whom her life will always be a tender memory. Thoroughly unselfish, she always reached out a hand to those in sickness or trouble. To know her intimately was to love and revere her.

Five years ago she came to Pendleton to reside with her sister, Mrs. L. H. Blakeslee, in the hope of benefiting her health. She has been a great sufferer from Asthma which terminated in the pneumonia from which she died.

Steven McDermitt.
Steven McDermitt, the four-year-old son of Malcomb McDermitt, passed away Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of his parents 623 Blaine street. The funeral was held from the Baptist church at 2 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. Ralph E. Storey preaching the sermon.

Hugh Bain.
Hugh Bain passed away at his ranch ten miles south of this city yesterday at the age of 71 years, death being due to pneumonia. He has been a resident of that country for the past ten years, prior to which he made his home in Grass Valley. The funeral will be held from the family home tomorrow afternoon.

JOHN BAHR FARM SELLS FOR $90,000

One of the largest real estate transactions in this county in a number of years was consummated Saturday afternoon through the agency of Deputy Sheriff George Strand when the John Bahr wheat ranch of 360 acres lying eight miles north east of Pendleton on the road to Helix, was sold to Barney Anderson for a consideration of $90,000. The sum of $20,000 was paid down to bind the deal, and a $20,000 cash payment is to be made this fall and the rest to come due in deferred payments bearing six per cent interest.

The Bahr place is one of the best wheat farms in Umatilla county, both in respect to fertility of the soil and the improvements about it. A $6000 house stands in the center of one of the finest locust groves in the country while back of it is a ten acre orchard. In acquiring possession of it, Mr. Anderson becomes one of the most extensive wheat farmers in eastern Oregon for he is already farming several thousand acres in different parts of the county.

Mr. Bahr has lived in Umatilla county for the past 33 years and by his industry has made himself independent. He recently purchased a fine home in Lents, about three miles from Portland, where he intends to spend his remaining days in peace and quiet.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Bank Will Have Light.

Holes are being drilled in the pavement in front of the First National bank today for the erection of one of the popular iron light posts which are becoming more numerous than otherwise on Main street.

Two Marriage Licenses.

Two marriage licenses were issued Saturday afternoon by Clerk Sailing, one to William C. Norton and Faury Brown, both residents of this county, and the other to George W. Grant, a resident of Lincoln county, Idaho, and Hazel J. Romaine, a resident of this county.

Woodmen to Entertain.

Next Monday evening promises to be an eventful one for local members of the Woodmen of the World, the occasion being a visit by the deputy head consul. An open social session will be held at which there will be addresses and entertainment galore and all the choppers in the neighborhood will be at the gathering.

Recital for Pupils.

On Wednesday evening, Mrs. Anna Selkirk Norton of Walla Walla will give a recital in the studio of Miss Harriet Young in the Association building for her pupils, Mrs. Tom Vaughan, Miss Ethel Chapman and Miss Bernice Ruppe. Mrs. J. R. Dickson, Miss Harriet Young and Miss Lora Perry will act as accompanists for the young vocalists who will each sing a group of songs.

Big Crowd at Auction.

Large crowds were in attendance all day Saturday at the auction which Koepfen Brothers are conducting in an effort to clear out everything but their drug stock. Everyone in the city seemed to know that there would be some bargains for there were many handsome articles in the gift room which were to be knocked down to the highest bidder. The auction will be held again this evening, which will be the last one.

Weavers Left Yesterday.

Accompanied by Mrs. Weaver and their daughter Gwendolen, E. D. Weaver, former make-up man on the East Oregonian, left yesterday for Portland where they will reside. Mr. Weaver being employed in the mechanical department of the Journal. Mr. Weaver was in the mechanical force of the East Oregonian for 23 years and was the make-up man for many years. He is one of the fastest and most skilled printers in eastern Oregon.

Another "Cut-in" Made.

Yesterday morning a "cut-in" was made on the new track just west of the city and the O.-W. company's trains are now running over the new track from here to a point a half mile below Pilot Rock junction. The motor car yesterday morning arrived over the new track and a few minutes later westbound passenger train No. 17 made the trip over the new rails. On that trip Assistant Superintendent Buckley was in the engine cab as it passed over the new track.

Spring Signs at Dayton.

Dayton, Wash.—Belated spring has apparently arrived. Saturday a flock of wild geese numbering several score passed over Dayton. Descending to the Touchet river for water, the honks of the spring harbingers could be heard early in the morning. Meadow larks and robins are heard in the pastures and one man reports a brood of new chickens. Dust is commencing to form in the streets here and each day sees the mercury creep a little higher, today's registration being 60. Snow which has covered the hills around Dayton for six weeks is rapidly disappearing. Farmers around Dayton are ready to commence spring work.

Murphy Now Located.

Captain Charles A. Murphy, engineer for the branch asylum, with his wife has moved into the Oliver residence on the branch asylum site. Captain Murphy and wife took possession Saturday when the Oliver family moved to the city to reside. The Olivers for the time being will live in the Anderson house on Jackson street and during the summer expect to build a home at the end of Jackson street. With his home on the branch asylum grounds Captain Murphy will supervise work on the lands purchased by the state and perform other duties under the instructions of the state board. He will have charge of the work of laying the water main from the city limits to the branch asylum grounds.

Police Court is Full.

Police Judge Fitz Gerald held a court martial for the "drunken brigades" this morning and there were ten to answer to the roll call. The majority of these were swarthy reds from the local reservation who drank up too much Saturday night "booze." John Martin, William Brown, Charles Bennett and Jim Bennett, all Indians, took three days in jail for being drunk, while William Craig, Ed Chapman and Cold Spring forfeited their bail of five dollars each. Simon Stephens, Red and Charles Troy, white, each got ten days on a "d and d" charge. Troy attempted to steal a saddle mare belonging to Judge Fee Saturday evening, which animal was tied to a hitching rack on Cottonwood street. Unfortunately for him the little animal objected to being taken away and landed the rider in the muddy street from where he was taken to the city bastille by Officer Ed Stansberry.

The new fishing regulations passed by the congress of Panama have been forwarded by Consul General Snyder and are filed for reference at the bureau of manufactures. The maximum charge for foreign vessels fishing in Panama waters is fixed at $50 a year for whaling vessels.

RACE RIOT IN LOCAL SALOON

JAP GULLIFORD RECEIVES SERIOUS KNIFE WOUND

Intoxicated Austrians Elbow Other Patrons From Bar in Olympia Saloon.

Race feeling ran high in Pendleton Saturday night and before the officers succeeded in quelling it, Jap Gulliford, a well known resident of this city, had been stabbed by a member of the gang of foreigners and is now lying at his home, 300 Willow street in a serious condition.

The affair occurred in the Olympia saloon on Main street at about 10:45 and was caused by the evident intention of a number of Greeks, Austrians, Algerians or some kindred nationality to have the right of way at the bar. There were about fifteen of them and they began by impatiently shoving all other patrons away from the long bar. Naturally this arbitrary action was resented and soon a general altercation ensued, precipitated when "Shorty" Saunders administered an unceremonious jaw of one of the foreigners. He was immediately surrounded by the fellow jabbering countrymen, whereupon his own friends came to his rescue. Knives began to flash from the pockets of the southern Europeans and one of these was buried in the body of Gulliford just above the hip in such a way that a very bad wound was inflicted.

At this juncture Night Officer Kearney arrived on the scene and placed three of the foreigners under arrest, but as all of them had thrown away their knives, it was difficult to tell which was Gulliford's assailant. An effort is being made by the officers today to secure a confession from one of the three, but so far these efforts have been unsuccessful. However, George Baer, who was passing the saloon at the time of the near-tragedy, identified "Mike" Zoklon as the man who threw the bloody knife away and the officers believe they can fasten the crime on him.

All of the foreigners were members of extra gang No. 8 of the O.-W. company.

Landers Moves His Office.

City Superintendent J. S. Landers has today been engaged in moving his office from the top floor of the city hall into the room on the main floor formerly designated as the mayor's office. This move is being made in pursuance of the recent action taken by the city council whereby the old office of the superintendent which is next to the library, is to be used for the storage of reference books of which there is a large number crowded into the two present library rooms.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.

Pendleton's favorite picture theater. Interesting program for Tuesday's change.

1. "Mike the Miser." Edison. "Mike the Miser" is a little district telegraph messenger boy who has won the sobriquet by his closeness, and the story deals with the reason for this closeness and also with the trials which the title bestowed upon him forces into his young life. It is one of the most appealing of child stories and full of unconscious humor of boyhood, none of which is lost by the youthful participants.

2. "A Robust Patient." Selig. Jones is sick and a friend tells him he should go to a sanitarium and recommends Dr. Crow's Retreat." Accordingly Jones bids his wife good bye and is off for his health—arrives and is received by Dr. Crow, who promises great things. He is assured that he is in a very serious condition and must diet and train down—is shown to his room, is disgusted and writes his wife as follows: Dr. Crow's Bug House. Dear Wife—This is no place for me, this is a dippy factory. I tried to leave but they won't let me out. I am to diet and train down. I can see my finish now. Farewell, Willie. Watching his chance he makes his escape. Arriving at the quiet peaceful home of the Jones' he writes the Doctor the following touching testimonial.

Dear Dr. Crow—Your institution is a wonderful benefit to mankind. If I ever have an enemy who is seeking health, I will take great pleasure in recommending him to try your nut college. Affectionately, Jones.

3. "It Did Look Suspicious." Vitagraph. A case of circumstantial evidence in which a man's carelessness leads him to accuse an innocent party of committing a crime which is purely his own doing and for which he has to take the blame and acknowledge his faults.

4. "The Firemen's Parade." Vitagraph. The fire fighters are a fine body of men and do some fine work in their exhibition of the way they do things. There is a whole lot of good stuff in this picture that is worth seeing.

5. The Musical Ranch. Lubin. A comedy representing a variety of musical geniuses upon a western ranch. The honors go to the man that could not play anything yet succeeded in winning his lady's favor by the introduction of a phonograph.

"The Pastime."

The show of quality." Excellent program for Tuesday's change.

"Fate's Turning." Biograph. 1000 feet. A young man on a visit to a summer resort meets a pretty waitress. Impulsively he becomes engaged to her. Later his father dies and the boy having to take his father's place, reasons that an alliance with the waitress is impossible. He is about to marry a lady of his own sphere when the poor, unfortunate girl with her baby appears and the young man makes reparation by marrying her instead of the heiress, for he finds that is not only duty but he really loves the little girl.

2. "The Border Ranger." Essanav. 1000 feet. Bud, a ranger, captures the leader of a band of Mexican smugglers. The smugglers retaliate by capturing Joe's sweetheart. They declare they will never give her up until Bud gives up Joe. Bud refuses and goes after her, but is captured himself, and subjected to torture to make him give up. The girl escapes, informs a posse where the smugglers are rendezvous, and they arrive just in time to save Bud's life. "Father Makes Himself Useful." Lubin. Often mother-in-law has been called in to settle disagreeable or fancied differences between fond couples, but probably this is the first time father-in-law has been called upon to make the son good. The father arrives and makes love to the ing angry emfwy emfwpWheu daughter-in-law and the son becomes very angry. But father brings them together and all ends happy with a laugh every second.

Women may possibly not know enough to vote, though we don't admit it; but she certainly knows enough not to sell her vote to the first bragger who may happen along.
