PORTLAND COOPERATES.

Business Men Subscribe Liberally to Assist in Development of Northwest.

Cooperation of Portland with the whole Pacific northwest was shown in a striking way this week when a compilation of contributions to the publicity fund of the Portland Commercial club was made.

Portland business men subscribe heavily to this fund which is expended for the benefit of Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Of course Portland profits as the northwest prospers, but there is no attempt to build up that city at the expense of the outside country.

The fund at the disposal of the Commercial club promotion committee is subscribed by Portland's leading business houses. These contributions have been generous.

During the past seven years, since the promotion work started, contributions aggregating more than $500 each, are as follows:

Portland Ry. L. & P. Co. $12,425

Ladd & Tilton bank 10,000

HELIX VISITED BY BAD CHECK ARTIST

(Special Correspondence.)

Helix, Ore., Feb. 10.—The forger has paid a brief visit to our town and passed a no fund check on Mrs. F. Myers, our hotel landlady, for $12.50. Athena, Adams and Pendleton officers have been notified. His description is: About 28 years old, height about 5 feet 8 inches, weight, 160. Dark hair, two teeth crowned on side and one or more on other, bluish felt hat, green stockings, button shoes, dark clothes, smooth shaven, nativity American. He seemed to be very nervous while in Helix.

On Wednesday evening, it being the regular meeting of the K. of P. Lodge, the Esquire and also the Knight rank was conferred on Mr. Amos L. Myrick, a native of Umatilla county, and N. K. Best, also an old timer here and a native son of Umatilla county. About 50 were present. After the interesting ceremonies a sumptuous spread awaited all who wished to partake. I saw no refusals to eat—good things.

Mrs. Jno. R. Hainsworth is in Pendleton today, interviewing a dentist.

Rev. R. G. Callison has returned from Milton, He went there to attend the Sunday school convention and reports that it will be the means of much good for religion and a general uplift of our people especially in this county.

Mrs. Dinah Kendall was baptized at the Baptist church in Helix by the pastor, Rev. Stockton, Wednesday evening, March 8.

Mrs. Kendall was called to Walla Walla on account of the serious illness of her daughter's child.

Mrs. Wm. Pierce was called several days ago to go to Walla Walla to attend her daughter, who is reported dangerously sick and not expected to recover.

Mrs. L. D. Smith, wife of Councilman Smith, was telephoned to come quickly to her son's aid, whose boy is dangerously ill at Walla Walla. The climate there does not seem to agree with Helix people.

Farmers are getting busy now, making the necessary preparations for the spring and summer work and business is looking up at Mr. Hermann's and Mr. Morrison's general mercantile stores.

C. A. Hermann was elected to fill a vacancy on the Helix council, Councilman D. L. Behrens having resigned. He is going on a big stock ranch near Albee.

Memphis, Tenn., plans to purchase several automobile trucks to be used in hauling the city's garbage to the incinerators. At present the plant is so far from the central portion of the city, that a long time is taken to reach it.

In future the wagons collecting garbage will take it to the central depot, where it will be removed to the plant by auto, saving the city $60,000 annually.

At the Moving Picture Shows

Orpheum.

Pendleton's favorite picture theater offers its patrons another big feature film for Sunday's program.

"The Trovatore." An ambitious production, presenting one of the most popular operas of past years. The actors have performed their parts in full sympathy with the piece and with an appreciation of the opportunities that make the work exceptionally good. The staging has been done with a sumptuous disregard for expense that makes it notable.

"The Sheriff's Sister." Kalem. A story exemplifying the strength of a brother's love. Sheriff Bob, remembering his promise to his dead mother, forbids his sister Elsie, to see Enrico, a Mexican, who has been posing in the neighborhood as a bachelor, and who has apparently been very much attracted toward her. One afternoon, while Bob is absent, the Mexican calls upon Elsie and on Bob's unexpected return, an altercation takes place and the Mexican is knocked down. In revenge on the sheriff Enrico persuades the infatuated girl to elope. He takes her to the house of a minister in a nearby town. As the ceremony of marriage is about to take place, the Mexican is confronted by his deserted wife, who fortunately for Elsie had been taken in and protected by the kindly old minister and his wife. The wedding is stopped and Enrico confronted with his guilt. Elsie, dumfounded and almost prostrated on the exposure of the Mexican's despicable conduct, rushes from the house and makes her way on foot back home, back to the protection of her brother's strong arms.

Featuring Gene Gauntier as Elsie. "Bumptions As Romeo." Edison. Presumptuous Bumptions in a benevolent and sympathetic state of mind, with the assistance of his dramatic club, determines to demonstrate to the world the ideal manner of acting. A screamingly funny film from start to finish.

Lured by a Phantom, or the King of the Thule. Gaumont. The hero of this story was king of that legendary country of Thule which is mentioned by several of the old historians and probably is the Eikney or Shetland islands of today.

Nancy's Wedding Trip. Kosmik. A comedy which keeps an audience in good humor throughout its length.

The Pastime.

Offers you for Sunday's change the cleanest, newest and most satisfying program.
