AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum. Pendleton's favorite picture theater. Big program for Tuesday's change. One big special feature film 2000 feet long. Selected from 9000 feet of negative. Two full reels of the famous Buffalo Jones pictures, Lassoing Wild Animals in Africa. A unique and sensational picture, showing the capture of lions, giraffes, rhinoceroses, cheetahs, zebras and other wild and dangerous animals of the African jungle, without the use of deadly weapons. Nothing used but the lasso. Two Valentines. Edison. A young man and a girl, both very bashful, send each other identical valentines, leading each to think that the offering has been returned. All, however, is explained happily. The story takes place in a typical boarding house with many amusing types. Crazy Apples. Vitagraph. A bashful and timid lover, trying to avoid his girl's father jumps into the pig pen and lands in the trough. He tries to get back home without being seen. He meets an old "busybody," who thinks he is crazy and attributes his insanity to eating apples.

Roosevelt Praises Feat. High praise for the wonderful feat of capturing these animals and getting pictures of the scenes is contained in the following words of Theodore Roosevelt, than whom there is probably no greater authority on the subject: "Gentlemen, this has been such a really noteworthy exhibition that I think it is due that I should say a few words not only as a guarantee of good faith, but for publication. To tackle those beasts with the rifle is one thing, but to tackle them with a rope the way that Buffalo Jones and those two New Mexican cowpunchers did it, is a perfectly marvelous feat. I did not believe it possible to rope a lion as they did and to have caught their pictures with a cinematograph is a thing that has never before begun to be approached. They are a really phenomenal record of a really phenomenal feat."

Added Attraction at the Pastime. Beginning today: "The Wright Company" will present a high class entertainment in conjunction with the excellent motion picture program.

Tuesday's change of pictures as follows: "Heart Beats of Long Ago." Biograph, drama. This Biograph subject is of much interest, illustrating a story in the days of long ago where the heart directed the cavalier forged his way, no matter what the obstacle. "Carmenita the Faithful." Essayay. Drama. A Mexican love story with many thrills and a deep appeal to the heart. The character drawing is excellent. "Max has the Boxing Fever." Pathé, comedy. Max attends a boxing bout and comes home very enthusiastic about the sport and begins training at once. "An Imitator of Biondin." Pathé. An exciting comedy imitating Biondin in his tight rope walk across Niagara Falls. "The Romance of a Necklace." Gaumont. A story of interest.

EXPLODING CARTRIDGE WOUNDS TWO PERSONS.

What might have been a fatal accident was caused this afternoon by the exploding of a cartridge in a bonfire at the John Harvey ranch twelve miles from this city. As it was the bullet from the shell went through the hand of the six year old son of Olney Simpson and struck Mrs. Simpson in the leg.

This was the substance of a telephone message received this afternoon by Dr. C. J. Smith. Mrs. Simpson herself did the phoning. She stated that she had been burning trash and that a loaded cartridge had evidently been gathered up in the accumulation. The little boy, she stated, is suffering from the wound in the hand but her own injury is slight. They are both now on the way to the city to secure medical treatment.

For Sale—Two acre home east Pendleton. Alfalfa, fruit, garden. Good buildings, water system and bath. Address J. H. Bryant, Pendleton, Oregon.

COMMERCIAL CLUB TO HOLD LUNCHEON

eral invitation is issued for all business men, professional men, property owners and others interested in the welfare of the city, to attend the banquet he expects to have over 200 present.

The banquet will be served promptly at 6:15 Thursday evening and in addition to the eats there will be a good program for the occasion. Music during the luncheon will be furnished by the United Orchestra and at the conclusion a short speaking program will be given. Chief among the talkers will be C. C. Chapman, manager of the Portland commercial club, who has promised to be present. Talks will also be made by local men prominent in the Commercial club and in the business life of the city.

The Ladies' Committee. Mrs. Fee, president of the Civic association, has appointed the following committees for the luncheon Thursday evening:

On arrangements—Mrs. J. P. Winter, chairman; Mrs. G. A. Hartman, J. F. Robinson. Other members of the committee are: Mrs. R. Alexander, Mrs. W. E. Brock, Mrs. C. F. Colesworthy, Mrs. E. T. Wade, Mrs. G. M. Rice, Mrs. A. C. Hampton, Mrs. N. Berkeley, Mrs. N. Ankeny, Mrs. J. Vaughan, Mrs. Chas. Greulich, Mrs. Will Moore, Mrs. Stocker, Mrs. G. I. LaDow, Mrs. J. S. Landers, Mrs. H. D. Jones, Mrs. A. J. McAllister, Mrs. Leo Moorhouse, Mrs. L. Teutsch, Mrs. D. Tatom.

A number of young ladies will be asked to assist in serving.

L. A. Esteb and wife of Echo were passengers on the motor car this forenoon.

Mrs. G. W. Phelps was a passenger on the motor car from Hermiston this morning.

Charles Hoggard, the Stanfield dry goods merchant, and wife spent Sunday in Pendleton.

C. E. McEwen of North Yakima, is in the city today and will meet his wife here this evening. She has been at Hot Lake for her health for some time past.

A wife deserves no particular credit for sticking to a good husband.

RAISES MILLIONS. Y. M. C. A. Campaign Organizer Performs Great Feats.

To raise a million dollars in twelve days may seem to be a feat bordering on the miraculous, but it is a commonplace to C. S. Ward, the "short campaign" organizer of the Young Men's Christian association. Mr. Ward's profession takes him to cities throughout the country, where his mission is to persuade folk who have money to donate a goodly part of it to the Y. M. C. A. And he always succeeds—not always at the rate of a million in a dozen days, it is true, but always to the greatest capacity of the field in which he works. He has had no less than $12,000,000 given him for carrying on the Y. M. C. A. work during the last five years. Just now New York Y. M. C. A. leaders are considering a plan for engaging his services in a campaign that will break all records.

It was in Philadelphia that the whirlwind campaign to raise a million was carried to successful completion under the direction of Mr. Ward. When he announced that he had set twelve days as the time limit for raising a million in the Quaker City, his associates were fearful that he had at last "bit off more than he could masticate." Philadelphia is notoriously slow, but on this occasion the charge of slowness was proved to be a libel. At the windup of the campaign it was found that $25,663,72 over the round million had been collected.

AMBASSADOR HILL WILL DELIVER COLLEGE LECTURES

David J. Hill, ambassador from the United States to Germany, is sailing for New York soon, where Mr. Hill has an engagement to deliver a series of lectures at Columbia University during the month of April. They are the Charpentier lectures and will be eight in number, dealing with the general topic of the political organization of the world. The ambassador expects to return to Berlin in the middle of May.

Another common story. A Klamath county boy of 10 years took the usual "unloaded" gun to shoot at a hawk, and killed his 8 year old sister.

SUTHERLUND CO. WAS LOW BIDDER ON WORK

Out of 12 bids submitted upon the work of laying the water main from the city limits to the Sutherland grounds, the George H. Sutherland company of Walla Walla had the lowest bid. The bid submitted by the Sutherland company was $1.49 per foot for 52 pound pipe and their total price for the work will be $5960. This information was conveyed to the East Oregonian today through a long distance interview with R. A. Watson, private secretary to Governor West. According to Mr. Watson the contract for laying the water main has not yet been let to the Sutherland company. Yet, since the Walla Walla company submitted the lowest bid it seems probable that they will get the contract, unless the board should consider all bids too high and decide to reject all of them.

TO AVENGE MURDER. Detectives Striving to Convict Slayer of Fellow Sleuth. When Joseph Petrosino, the great Italian detective of New York, was slain in Palermo, Italy, two years ago this month, his brother sleuths of the metropolitan force registered a solemn vow that, sooner or later, they would capture and bring to justice the assassin. Since then the detectives have been busily at work following up every possible clue and in Italy today there are a number of detectives from New York and other American cities busily engaged in the man hunt that will never cease until Petrosino has been avenged. The trial of the Camorrista, beginning in Italy is expected to reveal the slayer of Petrosino, as many believe that Enrico Alfano, the Camorra chief, was in some way implicated in the crime.

After the murder of Cuocolo, for which Alfano is now on trial for his life, the Camorra leader fled to New York to escape arrest and prosecution by the Italian authorities. He was arrested here by Lieut. Petro-
