TO ESTABLISH HOME FOR WORKING GIRLS

The Woman's Protective league of Spokane will inaugurate a campaign on May 8 for the purpose of raising funds for the establishment of a home for working girls. The American theater will give a percentage of the gross receipts for the week of May 8 to the fund, says the Spokane Chronicle.

Mrs. Rose B. Moore, secretary of the league, is in charge of the work and a committee, composed of Mrs. Harry Jarvis, Mrs. M. A. Welsh, Mrs. Sollars, Mrs. J. W. Campbell, Miss Pearl Digh, Gessie Riden, Christine Bertha Thebe, Mrs. K. C. Cornforth and Miss Platt—has been appointed to assist her. The idea of the committee is to secure a suite of rooms sufficient to house and board a few girls at the present time and to enlarge quarters as the fund grows.

"It is our idea that such a home would be self-supporting and run on the cooperative plan," said Mrs. Moore. "Food and lodging would be furnished at absolute cost and would prove a great help to many girls who are working here in the city and have no home."

"We will try to sell as many tickets as possible for the theater during the week of May 8. To stimulate interest we will give a diamond ring, valued at $50, to any person who sells the most tickets."

The Woman's Protective League is affiliated here with the Federation of Women's organizations and the other organizations will help in the campaign.

BOISE PRISON OFFICIAL IS A MENTAL WRECK

Los Angeles, Cal.—E. L. Whitney, who was warden of the Idaho state penitentiary at Boise for four and a half years, but resigned two years ago because of a physical breakdown, has arrived at Long Beach and is recuperating at the tent city. Whitney's health was shattered by the nervous strain under which he lived while Harry Orchard was held a prisoner in the Idaho prison pending his trial for the murder of Governor Steunenberg.

Orchard had confessed and a desperate attempt on his life was feared. Whitney declared that his house was guarded day and night for months, an attempt on his life being made when feared, and that on one occasion, when Orchard wanted to consult a Boise attorney, Mrs. Whitney took him with her in a closed carriage on a shopping tour which terminated at the lawyer's office. Whitney and Orchard would both have been killed, Whitney believes, had they appeared on the street.

MANY HOBOES DRIFT ALONG THE COLUMBIA

Walla Walla, Wash., April 21.—As endless as the stream of water that flows in the Columbia river seems to be the stream of human lives drifting up and down the banks of that river. County Engineer Lew W. Losh, who has just spent several days in Walla Walla on official business, said:

"I believe there are more hoboies going up and down the river than I ever knew before. How they live is more than I know, although fishing seems to be one method."

"I saw one man who had caught a 'mud cat' boil it in a can and eat it with neither salt nor bread. Others fishing along the bank were having varied luck, all trying to get enough meat to sustain life. The 'jungles' are full of men, some are being attracted by bridge and construction work up the Columbia and towards Spokane, but many are merely drifting along."

Few of the wanderers are coming to Walla Walla. Spring work in this part of the valley has been completed and until harvest there will be little doing for the floating element.

LONDON NEWS AND VIEWS.

London, April 21.—Foreign affairs sometimes have a very unusual influence upon those of home, and England has had an example of this fact during the past two weeks. The riots in the wine-growing districts of France and the consequent destruction of hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of wine have greatly increased the price of wines of all grades in London. Hotel and restaurant proprietors are reaping a harvest, because their stocks have been laid in for some months. The smaller proprietors who have been compelled to wait until the last have been hard hit by the advance.

Rumor has been busy concerning plans for closer relations between the Imperial houses of Germany and Austria. Princess Victoria Louise, the Kaiser's only daughter, accompanied her father to Vienna, and her presence has revived the report of her impending betrothal to the Archduke Charles Francis Joseph, the Austrian emperor's nephew. The princess is 19 and the archduke 24, so in point of age it would be a suitable match. The young couple saw a good deal of each other during the visit. The alliance would no doubt be popular among the Germans in Austria. The difference in religion is an obstacle and it is thought unlikely that the princess would become a Roman Catholic in view of the very definite religious opinions known to be held by her mother. On the other hand marriage with protestant princesses are not unknown in the Austrian imperial family, although none has taken place in the last few decades. The mother of Maria Theresa and the consort of Charles VI. of Austria, was a protestant.

TAFT WANTS OREGON UNDER HIS BANNER

Washington, April 21.—Former Congressman William R. Ellis is a candidate for collector of customs at Portland to be seriously reckoned with, according to information which has leaked out here. Although he lacks the backing of any of the republican congressional delegation from Oregon for Collector P. S. Malcolm's place, it is said the first suggestion came from President Taft himself.

Another interesting development is an intimation that President Taft is weary of the struggle over appointments to federal offices in Oregon, which he has been seeking to fill without consulting Senator Bourne. The suggestion is made that Taft would be very willing to make peace with Bourne, allowing Bourne to name the appointees in Oregon if the senator will not oppose a Taft delegation from Oregon in 1912. There is reason to believe this suggestion has been made, although no confirmation of the report can be obtained from Senator Bourne. It is known the Taft organization is somewhat worried over the Oregon situation. The Taft managers would prize the delegates from Oregon far beyond their numerical strength because Oregon will be the first state to express its choice by popular vote for president. As an opening gun next spring Oregon will have the force of an entire battery.
