NORTHERN PACIFIC TO BOOST OREGON

Oregon is to get still more publicity. Yesterday O. D. Wheeler, representing the Northern Pacific railroad, which is getting out a booklet advertising the resources of the state and its desirability for home-making, was in Salem gathering data for the publication, says the Statesman.

He has asked State Superintendent of Public Instruction Alderman to prepare an article telling about Oregon's school system and the educational advantages that the state has to offer.

The booklet will be artistically printed and illustrated with Oregon scenes and will be distributed far and wide as the Northern Pacific railroad maintains and conducts an extensive publicity bureau.

The Federation of trades unions connected with the building industry in Eugene has decided that the bodies which form it shall no longer take part in any building operations connected with prisons.

HER FRIEND'S GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Glad She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cothrum, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief.

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardui, so I began taking it, at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardui and were greatly benefited. I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women."

Cardui is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old. Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui has helped a million women back to health and strength. Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.

Miss Ethel Clarke poured and Miss Ruth Steiwer and Miss Frances Fuller assisted in serving.—Portland Journal.

Dancers will turn out en masse next Wednesday evening to the party to be given by the baseball boys in the Eagle-Woodman hall. The affair is for the purpose of raising funds to support the team, and both because of the purpose and because it has been some time since the dancing public has had an opportunity to enjoy itself, a large crowd is expected.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Ben S. Burroughs invited eight little girls to her home on Washington street for an Easter egg party. The little tots enjoyed themselves immensely rolling the eggs on the sloping lawn, Mrs. Burroughs getting the idea from the annual Easter observance at Washington, D. C., when all of the children of the capital are invited to roll eggs on the white house lawn.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Lou Flood was hostess to the Young Ladies' Bridge club at the home of her sister, Mrs. Roy Kirkley, on Madison street, Miss Iva Hill having the largest score on her card at the conclusion of the games and receiving the prize. Besides the members of the club, Miss Flood's guests were the Misses Edna Storie, Katherine Campbell and Ethel Sells.

Many musicians and music lovers were at the Methodist church last evening to hear the concert by Charles Orlie Blakeslee, vocalist, and J. Rothberger Braden, violinist. A program of ten numbers was given and by request at the conclusion of the last number Mr. Blakeslee sang a selection from Faust with a violin and piano accompaniment. The feature of the concert was the playing of Mr. Braden.

Pendleton Circle No. 527, Women of Woodcraft, held an enjoyable social session Thursday evening, after which refreshments were served and the evening given over to dancing and games, which were in the charge of the degree team. Besides a number of visiting neighbors from Daphne Circle No. 2, of this city, there were also among the visitors Neighbor Chatham of Huntington; Lynch of McMinnville; Carmichael of Weston;

Tulls of Florence, Colo.; Dunn of Sand Point, Ida. Waters of Olympia, Wash. and Mann of Puyallup, Wash. During the evening's session, the lodge presented Special Organizer Estelle C. Mann with a beautiful souvenir engraved spoon as an appreciation of her work in behalf of the lodge and degree team while she has been in the city.

Miss Gertrude Campbell entertained on Monday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Katherine Campbell, and Miss Ethel Sells of Walla Walla, both of whom are students at St. Paul's school in the Garden City. The young ladies present were: Mrs. Ben L. Burroughs and the Misses Ermal Mann, Mary Zurcher, Wilma Burmeister, Ida Cherry, Ina Cherry, Edna Storie, Mary Shea, Una Smith, Lou Flood, Daphne Lesaure, Pauline La Fontaine, Viola Shea, Edna Thompson; Gertrude Jordan, Sybil Clifton, Irene Shea, Jennie Perry, Edna Zimmerman, Norma Alloway, Nona Johnson, Edna Wissler, Bertha Anger, Genevieve Clark and Winnie Boylen.

A quiet wedding was celebrated last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Turner when Mrs. Margaret W. Cannon and Mr. James A. Smith were married in the presence of a few friends. Mrs. Smith was formerly Mrs. Campbell, well known as a resident of this city, whose son Mr. George Campbell was one of Pendleton's popular younger business men. For the last eleven years Spokane has been the home of Mrs. Smith, but recently she has been the guest of Mrs. Turner. Mr. Smith has for a number of years been a resident of this city and is a professional gardener. The ceremony was at 8 o'clock and performed by Rev. R. E. Storey, pastor of the Baptist church. The hostess served dainty refreshments to the guests. Among those present besides the host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Turner and Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Waffle. An impromptu charavari by the boys of the neighborhood was rewarded by a kiss from the bride to each and a big dish of ice cream and corresponding wedges of cake. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are now at home to their friends at 303 E. Court street.

Principal among the social events of the first post-Lenten week was the annual dancing party of the Sigma Epsilon Omicron sorority given at the Eagle-Woodman hall on Wednesday evening. The affair was exclusive, only members of the sorority and gentlemen friends being present but the floor was, nevertheless, well filled. The hall had been transformed into a scene of loveliness by the young ladies' efforts, festoons of pink and white and pink and white blossoms being everywhere. The punch room had been made into a Japanese bower in which a native of the Nipponese islands dispensed refreshing fluids to the thirsty throng. To the excellent music of the United Orchestra, the gay crowd of handsomely gowned maids and neatly groomed men tripped off the strains of twenty dances, after which adjournment was made to various places about the city where midnight luncheon was enjoyed.

The following ladies were patronesses of the affair: The Mesdames Henry Dixon Jones, E. J. Sommerville, J. H. Raley, H. Mann, Thomas Thompson, W. A. Storie, Norbourne Berkeley, Thomas Boylen, Chas. A. Cole, T. G. Montgomery, Thomas Vaughan, W. H. Lytle, Frank Hayes.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Anna Selkirk Norton of Walla Walla appeared in a song concert at the home of Mrs. F. E. Judd in this city and music lovers were treated to one of the best musical programs ever rendered in Pendleton. Mrs. Norton has a most remarkable voice and throughout the evening its wonderful qualities had control of the audience. Mrs. Norton was accompanied by Miss Rowena Ludwigs of Walla Walla and much praise was bestowed upon her truly artistic playing. Before the program, Miss Bernice Crawford, also of the Garden City, sang a group of French songs which quite won her hearers. The following was the program rendered by Mrs. Norton: I—A Little Old Woman of Dorking Little Miss Muffett Coolidge Star Children Lehman A Birthday Cowen Shadows (by request) Bond II—My Heart is Weary—Aria from "Nadeschda"—Goring Thomas (By request.) III—Spring (by request) Hildach Pale Hands I Loved Finden Till I Wake Finden From "Indian Love Lyric" The Eagle Schneider In the Time of Roses. Reichardt IV—None But the Lonely Hart Quilter Lover's Call Ruchaut Thine Image (by request) Gertrude Normand Smith

A pretty Easteride wedding was celebrated at 8:30 p. m. yesterday, in St. Stephen's Protestant cathedral when Reverend H. M. Ramsey read the service which made Miss Lillian Rourke the bride of Charles Claire Perrin, of San Francisco. The church was attractive with Easter decorations of lilies and palms. Carl Denton played the wedding march and Mr. James Alexander Ellis sang before the ceremony. The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was gowned in white messaline with overdress of marquisette with chiffon roses centered with pearls. Her tulle veil was held in place with orange blossoms and her flowers were Bride roses. A pearl necklace, the gift of the groom, was her only ornament. Miss Abrahame Thatcher, the maid of honor, was in pink messaline and carried a shower of white carnations. Miss Bess Hammond and Miss Bertha Alexander of Pendleton, were the bridesmaids. Miss Hammond was gowned in corn colored messaline with trimmings of gold. Miss Alexander had on blue messaline with drape of blue marquisette and trimmings of French ribbon roses. Both wore dainty Priscilla caps of lace and carried showers of white carnations. Harold Thompson attended the groom and the ushers were Fred Vincent and Len Buck. After the service at the church a small reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Rourke, on Montgomery drive. In the dining room were Mrs. Thomas Halley, Mrs. E. E. Lytle and the Misses Frances and Queenie King. Miss Frances King caught the bride's bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Perrin left at once on their honeymoon trip after which they will be at home in San Francisco.—Portland Journal.

CANDIDATE NOMINATED FOR STATE REGENT

Pursuant to call, a meeting of Pendleton Chapter, A. W. L., was held in the Commercial club rooms last Monday afternoon for the purpose of nominating a candidate for state regent, Miss Ida Boyd being the choice of the chapter. The final election will be held June 1, 1911, and similar elections will be held in Arkansas, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, Ohio and Indiana, which states now have the required number of members. Mr. Lewis has taken personal charge of the field department and is working to raise the membership of the league to one million within the next five years. Pendleton chapter sent a telegram to him last Monday, promising assistance in this undertaking. With that end in view, the chapter would be glad to have any who are thinking of joining, call at 314 Water street, where the treasurer, Miss Boyd, is located, and thinks she may be able to secure a few more memberships in Founder's Chapter at old price.

The head office of the league has been trying, since last October, to find out who sent them a remittance to apply on a first note, due November 1. Four letters have been received about it. If any one has failed to get a receipt for such remittance, the treasurer would be pleased to hear from her.

America may have fewer aeroplanes than foreign nations but it has a nice lot of records.
