CATHOLIC BAZAAR IS GREAT SUCCESS

(Special Correspondence.)
Umatilla, Ore., April 22.—The Bazaar and Fancy sale given by the ladies of St. Patrick's church at Umatilla on Easter Monday was one of the most successful affairs ever held in the oldest town. The fancy and refreshment tables were tastefully decorated, as well as the hall, and with the many beautiful articles of fancy work on the tables and—well the hall looked like a fair in one of the largest cities. Dancing and other forms of amusement were indulged in during the evening and the drawings on the many articles on tickets made the affair one long to be remembered by all who attended. The drawing of the five grand or large prizes was conducted by M. H. Means, who was assisted by Sid Saylor and the genial Conductor Cheny of the motor car. The winners were as follows:
No. 27 won the quilt and was held by J. H. Rogers, The Dalles.
No. 113 won the fancy dress box held by Mrs. D. Hogan, Umatilla.
No. 69 won the hand embroidered pillow slips, held by Patrick Braniff, Walla Walla.
No. 118 won the fancy hand made dresser set, won by Ray Vose, Plymouth, Wn.
The queen doll was won by Little Miss Lennon, Umatilla, and a large number of cushions were won by local people too numerous to mention. The ladies at the fancy table did good work in their sales and the work they did in the good cause deserves the hearty approval of all. The refreshments were done up in fine style and the booth was in charge of Mrs. O'Connell and Mrs. Pound. The fancy tables were in charge of Mrs. W. H. Switzer, Mrs. Ubel, Mrs. W. W. Mappin, Mrs. J. Lennox, Mrs. Hakil, Mrs. Rohan and Mrs. R. Lingo and Miss Jewel Franklin. Mr. E. Pound had charge of the music and he deserves a great deal of credit for the manner in which it was carried. F. E. Rohan and Jas. O'Connell also did good work to make the dance a success. The net proceeds which will be about $175 will go toward paying off the church debt. The committee wish to thank all who so generously contributed to the success of the fair and especially must thank the sisters at Pendleton for their generous contributions, also the Umatilla social club who so generously gave free use of the hall for the evening.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.

Pendleton's favorite picture theatre. Very interesting program for Sunday's change.
1. "The Lonedale Operator." Biography. With this subject is presented without doubt the most thrilling melodramatic story ever produced. It tells of a young girl who, as operator at a lonely railroad station, is left in charge of a large money shipment. Tramps break into the place, but the quick-witted girl telegraphs for aid while she holds the thieves at bay with a nickel plated monkey wrench. An engine and crew are sent in and the railroad runs are most exciting.
2. "The Sea's Divide." Vitagraph. A dramatic idyl. Distance cannot separate those whose heart throbs beat in harmony and sweet accord, sounding through space, meeting in rhapsody of love and joining themselves in wedlock.
3. "Bridget and the Egg." Luban. Willis had a barrel of fun fooling his mother's new hired girl with a china egg but he had to "pay the fiddler" in the end and he got a richly deserved licking.
4. "The Spinster's Legacy." Luban. A comedy, which is at the same time a shrewd character study. Shows how the disinterested lover wins out over the fortune-hunters.
5. "Disinherited." Kosmik. Robert, the son of a wealthy factory owner, falls in love with Lillian, one of his father's employees. His parents, having already chosen a wife for him from among their circle of wealthy acquaintances, object to an alliance with the poor girl. Robert, however, marries Lillian and is driven from home. Through his mother's help Robert is enabled to establish a private fortune, while his father suffers greatly of loneliness, until an accidental meeting leads to reconciliation.

The Pastime.

The house of quality. A big feature picture for Sunday.
"A Thwarted Vengeance." Essanay. A highly sensational film depicting wild western scenes with a degree of realism that is fascinating. A girl with a degree of realism that is fascinating. A girl is kidnapped and trussed up to a tree in front of her lover's cabin, while the kidnapper goes in and finds the lover with the intention of murdering him. In this he is thwarted and is afterwards shot dead by the girl's lover. Although highly sensational in plot, this picture is made notable through acting of an excellence seldom seen in photoplays.
"Cupid's Conquest." Drama. A love story representing a father objecting to a wedding, but when a statue of Cupid comes to life and argues the matter with him, by showing him in reminiscence some of the scenes from his own younger days he relents. This picture has many pretty scenes.
"Who Gets the Order." Edison. Comedy. A breezy comedy, full of snap and go from start to finish and well calculated to make any audience laugh.
"The People of the Arabian Desert." Scenic. This picture introduces a magnificent collection of Arabian steeds, including the trained horses of the chiefs.
"The Baby Fortune Hunters." A novelty drama. Don't let the children miss this picture.
"The Gorges of the Bourne River France." Scenic.
