

SHE GOT WHAT SHE WANTED

This Woman Had to Insist Strongly, but it Paid

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a female weakness and stomach trouble, and I went to the store to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but the clerk did not want to let me have it—he said it was no good and wanted me to try something else, but knowing all about it I insisted and finally got it, and I am so glad I did, for it has cured me."

"I know of so many cases where women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I can say to every suffering woman if that medicine does not help her, there is nothing that will."—Mrs. JANETZKI, 2963 Arch St., Chicago, Ill.

This is the age of substitution, and women who want a cure should insist upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just as this woman did, and not accept something else on which the druggist can make a little more profit.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Indians—Lafave, p.; Lacourse, c.; Redford, 1b.; Vincent, 2b.; Cooley, 3b.; Narcisse, cf.; Shippentower, lf.; Oliver, rf.

Roundups .. 2 2 0 1 2 0 1 0 1—9
Indians 0 0 2 1 1 0 8 0 2—14

Stamy who was on the mound for the locals delivered the goods in great shape but was relieved in the seventh by Ellis.

It was at this particular part of the game that the fireworks started. Stamy went back into the box in the eighth and finished the game, holding his opponents down to two scores the remainder of the contest.

The excellent pitching of Lafave, the Indian twirler, was a feature of the contest, his benders being a puzzle to his opponents.

The game ended with the final count of 14 to 8 in favor of the Indians.
