PENDLETON, OREGON, FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 1911.

M'MANIGAL SAYS M'NAMARAS' WRECKED TIMES BUILDING

LEGAL BATTLE BEGINS SOON

Five Copies Will be Made of Confession Which Took Three Hours to Give

LETTERS THREATEN DEATH OF DETECTIVE BURNS

Prisoners Will Probably Be Arranged Wednesday and Preliminary Hearing Held a Week Later—Burns Positively Asserts That He Has Evidence That Will Convict Suspects.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 28.—Just when the legal battle for the conviction of or the acquittal of the McNamara brothers and McManigal will actually begin is still a matter of doubt. Wednesday they probably will be arraigned, and the preliminary hearing set a week later. No attempt will be made to secure the prisoners' release on habeas corpus, at least until after the arrival of Clarence Darrow, who has decided to act as their chief counsel. It is possible that he will ask for a change of venue.

McManigal Makes Confession. With details supplied them by McManigal, the district attorney's office today began the preparation of a case against John and James McNamara for dynamiting the Times and against McManigal for the explosion which partially destroyed the Llewellyn iron works. The stenographers are making five copies which took McManigal three hours to give out. He said that James McNamara placed the dynamite under the Times and then took a train and was four hours en route to San Francisco before the explosion. He said John furnished all the money for the Times plot and others. McManigal also gave a long list of crimes which he did alone, among them dynamiting the Henry residence in Portland.

Portland Story Denied. Portland, Ore., April 27.—The Charles Henry residence was not dynamited and no attempt was made. After Henry, who is a wealthy real estate man, and an open shop advocate, notified the police that an attempt had been made to dynamite his house, an investigation showed that three sticks of dynamite were found in a tree near the house which had been left by the foreman of the street repair gang. This was in October, 1910.

Burns Is Threatened. Chicago, April 28.—Letters threatening his death, he says, are pouring in on Detective Burns, who is responsible for the arrest of the two McNamaras and McManigal. It would not do any good to kill me, said Burns, "for all the evidence I have secured is in writing and safely in the hands of the officials. This means that the men who are guilty of the Times explosion will be convicted."

Says Burns Bribed McManigal. Los Angeles—Attorney Joe Harriman, a defense attorney declared that McManigal is in close touch with Burns and was paid money by Burns and given reward for confession, and promised he would be taken care of in court no matter what came up.

Burns Denies Charge. Chicago, April 28.—"It is an outrageous lie," shouted Burns contradicting the reports current that McManigal in confessing had agreed to furnish Burns with the details of plots he was carrying out. "It is a desperate effort of desperate men to cloud my reputation to save themselves," said Burns.

McManigal Refuses Defense. Los Angeles, April 28.—McManigal today repulses the effort of organized labor to defend him. When approached by Attorney Harriman, who has been retained to assist in the defense of the McNamaras he said: "I won't want to see you, Hilton or any other attorney. We will let matters take their course." When asked if he had been granted immunity McManigal turned his face to the wall and refused to talk further.

Los Angeles, April 28.—John Baker, superintendent of the Giant Powder company at Giant, California, arrived here today from San Francisco to determine whether James McNamara is James Bryce, the man who bought and signed for dynamite which it is said was used to blow up the Times. It is expected he will visit the jail this afternoon.

HUSBAND'S LOVE IS PLACED AT $9000

Seattle, April 28.—A valuation of $9000 is placed on a husband's love in Judge Ronald's court by a jury in awarding Mrs. Emma Richtl this judgment against Mrs. Florence Neal, a widow, whom she sued for alienation. The women were girlhood friends, but later Mrs. Richtl charged her former chum with stealing her husband's affections.

AVIATION MEETING IS GREAT SUCCESS

PENDLETON PEOPLE WITNESS EXHIBITION AT WALLA WALLA

Brookins and Willard Sail Through the Air Like Two Huge Birds—Have Perfect Control Over Machines.

According to Pendleton people who returned from Walla Walla this morning after witnessing the first day of the big aviation meet at that place, the exhibitions are a great success and are thrilling and sensational in the extreme. They declare that Walter Brookins and Charles Willard sailed through the air like two huge birds, soaring high above the crowd, then swooping suddenly down until within a few feet of the ground, when they would rise into the air again, darting, wheeling and turning with all the ease and grace of gigantic swallows.

Yesterday's program consisted of single and double flights, altitude flight, race against an automobile and other shorter exhibitions. Today's program includes the same events with a motorcycle thrown in the auto-aero race; a 10-mile race between the two aviators, bomb throwing from the aeroplanes to the outlined deck of an imaginary battleship, and several other interesting air stunts.

The crowd yesterday was large, but threatening weather made it smaller in the morning than it would otherwise have been. Good weather prevails today and the crowd should be a record breaker.

Many Go Over Today. Many Pendletonians went over to witness the birdmen today, some going on the train this morning and others making the trip in automobiles. Among the cars going over yesterday were the Taylor car, containing Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robinson; the Thompson car, containing Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bond; the Blakely car, containing W. M. Blakely and Rev. and Mrs. Frank Milnes; and the Smith car, containing Mr. and Mrs. Tom Vaughan, Miss Una Smith and Clarence Bishop. All made the trip today. Councilman T. G. Montgomery and wife returned in their car this morning. They were accompanied by the McNette sisters.

ARKANSAS ELOPER IS NEARLY CENTURY OLD. Little Rock, Ark., April 28.—Not waiting for June B. R. Bailey, aged 92, and Mrs. Martha Griffin, aged 48, of Sylvania, have eloped and become man and wife. A friend went to Mountainview and obtained the license, which the groom feared might be refused to him. Bailey is a well preserved man for 93 years, retaining his hearing and eyesight.

PENDLETON MAY GET G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

Pendleton may be the scene of the next annual encampment of the Oregon G. A. R., the decision resting between this city and Ashland, with this city the favorite. Commander John W. Wells of the local Kit Carson Post left this morning on the local to attend a meeting of the executive committee in Portland at which he will seek to have Pendleton named as the place of the 1911 encampment.

According to J. L. Carroll, well known veteran, a number of letters have been received from officers of the G. A. R., in which they expressed their belief that this city would be the one chosen and the local old soldiers have been using their utmost efforts to secure that end.

The convention this year is to be held on June 26, 27 and 28 and all members of these rapidly thinning ranks of old veterans will try to take a vacation at this time and, if Pendleton is selected, there will be many gray headed survivors of the civil war here on those three days.

SUITS STARTED AGAINST COAL CARRYING RAILROADS

Cleveland, Ohio, April 28.—As the first gun in a nation-wide crusade it is announced today that wholesale suits against coal carrying railroads will soon be started in the courts at Cleveland. At Washington today a department of justice agent declared they had every expectation of convicting Dan Hanna and others recently indicted in Cleveland for rebating. The evidence in the case is said to be remarkably complete.

LA FOLLETTE PROTESTS AGAINST TREATMENT

Washington, April 28.—On behalf of the progressive republicans, La Follette in the senate today read a protest against the treatment of his colleagues in awarding assignments on committees by the committee on committees. He declared the action of the regulars deprived millions of voters of representation on committees. The protest provoked no discussion and the committees as planned by the regulars were adopted without call.

FORT STEVENS GETS TWO CARLOADS OF ARTILLERY

Fort Stevens, Or., April 28.—Two carloads of field artillery have been received at Fort Stevens, esawllcmf received at Fort Stevens, as well as a number of automatic guns. Training of the troops stationed here in the use of these weapons is to be taken up immediately. This is the first time such methods of defense have been adopted at Fort Stevens and their arrival has aroused great interest. Field artillery guns are as great a mystery to a coast artillery man as a horse is to an infantryman.

COMMITTEE IS STILL BUSY INVESTIGATING

Behind closed doors in the office of Attorney Frederick Steiwer, the executive committee of the Umatilla County Bar association is still conducting its investigation of the St. Dennis vs. Watts case this afternoon with all indications pointing to the completion of the testimony by adjournment this evening. Members of that committee during the noon adjournment, avoided newspapermen like they would a leper and, when cornered, maintained a discreet silence as to the character of the testimony being introduced.

From unofficial sources, however, it was learned that some very interesting testimony has been submitted which testimony has exposed some practices that do not square at all with professional ethics. The testimony of Jerry St. Dennis, one of the plaintiffs in the suit, is said to be especially important in this revelation of improper methods of procedure.

The attorneys implicated in the investigation have also been quizzed to some extent. While the exact testimony is withheld from publication at the present time, its general nature is known. Watts is known to allege that Bailey and Perry influenced the St. Dennis heirs to begin the suit against him upon the representation that he was robbing them by withholding certain moneys and that they instigated the action out of personal malice because he (Watts) refused to pay them a certain fee of $300 to which they claimed they were entitled. He also alleges that they promised the heirs that it would not cost them a cent for attorney fees if they would consent to the suit.

It is also known that Perry and Bailey charged that Watts was robbing the heirs in question and furthermore that he robbed them by refusing to see them the above mentioned fee for certain services which they performed in the threatened contest of the St. Dennis will.

$20,000 IN WATCHES TAKEN.

Chicago Express Wagon Looted by Thief of Time. Chicago.—A trunk filled with gold watches, valued at $20,000, consigned to a manufacturer here from a Cincinnati house, was stolen from an express wagon today in the downtown streets.

While the driver was in an office building delivering packages, the robber boarded the wagon and drove away. An hour later the wagon was found several blocks away and later the trunk was found nearly six miles away. It had been broken open and rifled.

THREE ARRESTED FOR CONTEMPT

Edward Tilden and Bank Officials Released Under Bonds of $5000

HABEAS CORPUS WRITS ARE IMMEDIATELY ISSUED

Men Are Charged With Contempt of the Senate for Refusing to Produce Their Records During the Time of Lorimer's Fight for United States Senate.

Chicago, Ill., April 28.—Edward Tilden, president of the National packing company, and Benedict, cashier of the Drovers' Deposit bank, and Cummings, president of the Drovers' Trust Company, were arrested today charged with contempt of the senate for refusing to produce their records during the time of Lorimer's fight for the senatorship. Superior Judge Peit immediately issued three writs of habeas corpus returnable forthwith.

Released Under Bonds. Sergeant Hatfield with prisoners were overtaken and Tilden and his companions were taken to Judge Pettit's court and released under bonds of $5,000. The writs will be argued Monday. Hatfield asserts that as the writs were issued at 10:30 and he didn't arrest the men until 11 the writs are illegal.

SERIOUS UPRISING IS REPORTED AT CANTON

Hong Kong, April 28.—Reports of a serious uprising in Canton are received today. Armed with rifles and bombs, revolutionists attacked the official residence of the viceroy. The attack was anticipated and Admiral Li, commanding the government troops, routed the attacking party after several were killed. Later they returned, burned the viceroy's residence and again dispersed.

HIGH SCHOOLS MEET IN DEBATE TONIGHT

Fresh from their early season triumphs and anticipating retaliation upon Pendleton for past defeats, the Baker high school debating team, composed of Leland Finch, leader, James Donald, first colleague and John Jenkins, second colleague, and accompanied by Superintendent Church II, arrived in the city on No. 17 this afternoon and will meet the local high school debaters at the Methodist church this evening. Upon the result of this debate hinges the championship of eastern Oregon so that both teams will fight to the last ditch.

Pendleton has had such remarkable success during the past three years in forensics that there are many who have come to believe that Principal Hampton's silver tongues are invincible. However, the boys are handicapped in the debate this evening by being forced to take the negative side after having worked on the affirmative in the early season.

The debate will commence at 8 o'clock and will probably be finished by 9:30 as each speaker has but ten minutes in which to present his arguments.

LONDON APPROVES TAFT'S ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

London, April 28.—Taft's proposed arbitration agreement between Great Britain and the United States was approved here today at a big meeting in the Guild Hall in which the foremost Englishmen heartily approved the plan. The meeting was presided over by Lord Mayor Strong and Premier Asquith. Balfour and other men of note were prominent in the meeting. If the arbitration agreement is signed it means all matters will be settled without war.

ANGORA GOATS TO WORK FOR RAILROAD

Seattle, Wash.—Eighty Angora goats put to work by the Puget Sound Electric company in clearing its right of way between Seattle and Tacoma are making good progress. They are moving in the direction of Seattle at the rate of a mile a month, devouring the underbrush and attacking the roots of shrubbery along the right of way of the interurban system. The company put the army of Angora goats to work four months ago, and the experiment has proved an absolute success. Their work has been so thorough that they will not have to repeat the trip over the 26 miles of right of way. At the present rate at which they are grazing along the interurban road they should reach Seattle in about a year and a half.

RUMORED THAT KNOX WILL SOON RETIRE

He Also Asks to Be Allowed to Name Five Governors—Would Appoint Gomez Secretary of Interior—Wants to Be Assistant Secretary of Foreign Affairs.

Mexico City, April 28.—Authoritative information as to the demands which Madero made to insure peace were obtained here today. He asks to be allowed to name five governors of Mexican states which he is to designate; that the rebel army chiefs get corresponding rank in the Mexican army; that Gomez be appointed secretary of the interior; that Madero himself be made assistant secretary of foreign affairs, and that Diaz contract to pay Madero $20,000,000 to pay cost of revolution.

It is said Diaz is willing to pay $15,000,000 and the other terms are being considered.

Rebels on March. Washington, April 28.—Despite the fact that the Madero and Diaz representatives have extended the armistice another five days pending peace negotiations, near Juarez, Ambassador Wilson at Mexico City reports today that fighting in the territory contiguous to Juarez is progressing. It is reported that 5000 rebels have left Cuernavaca and are marching toward Mexico City.

FRANCE RUSHES MORE TROOPS TO MOROCCO

Paris, April 28.—With 30,000 French troops already in the field, the authorities today began preliminary plans to rush 60,000 more troops to Morocco to annihilate the adherents of Ismail Hafid and to uphold the rule of the sultan, Mulla Hafid. The greatest fears are felt here for the safety of Colonel Bremond's force, which is reported wiped out by the rebels near Fez.

INDIAN MONSTROSITY'S SKELETON DISCOVERED

Oklahoma City, Okla., April 28.—The body of an Indian boy with two heads, four arms and four legs, was discovered in a cave near Okmulgee, Okla., yesterday, by Emmens Love, a farmer boy, while he was hunting rabbits.

The body is nearly 5 feet tall. The flesh of the bones has dried with apparently no decay.

Old residents of the vicinity where the monstrosity was found remember such an Indian boy who has been missing 10 years. He was kept out of sight by other members of the tribe and is supposed to have wandered away and died in the cave.

Washington, April 28.—Postmaster General Hitchcock was roasted in the house today by Representative Cullom, democrat of Indiana who said: "If Hitchcock would pay more attention to business and less to politics there would not be so many complaints about the fax telepostoffice department is conducted. While most of the employees of the department are civil service men, they are persistently active in politics. It is reported that civil service officials in Hitchcock's department are especially assessed for republican campaigns and it is said even rural carriers must pay up or off goes their heads."

TAFT SPEAKS ON RECIPROCITY

President is Guest of Joint Banquet of Associated Press and Newspaper Publishers

MEASURE MUST BE ADOPTED NOW OR NEVER

Characterizes Talk of Annexation as "Bosh", and Says United States Now Has All Territory it Can Handle—Says Farmers Are Not Treated Unjustly.

Washington, D. C., April 28.—Worn out by his New York trip which included a large number of speeches and banquets, Taft returned to Washington today. He immediately went to the White House for a rest.

New York, April 28.—"Reciprocity with Canada must be adopted now or never, and must stand or fall by its own terms."

Amid tremendous applause and the waving of handkerchiefs, thus declared President Taft in an address in the Waldorf Astoria last night at the fourth annual joint banquet of the Associated Press and the American Newspaper Publishers' association.

His address was the first of a series in which he plans to evoke public sentiment in support of his policies, and he appealed to the company of editors and newspaper owners gathered from the length and breadth of the land to impress on the public mind that reciprocity should stand alone and "ought not to be affected in any regard by other amendments to the tariff law."

His recommendations were cheerfully accepted. All talk of annexation he characterized as "bosh" and said that the United States has all it can attend to with the territory it is now governing.

He praised the house of representatives for its passage of the agreement, declared that it would not injure the farmer nor any special class; answered in detail the objections raised to reciprocity, and begged for at least "a kind of test" to dispel the ghosts "exhibited to frighten the agricultural classes."

The other speakers of the evening were Manuel de Zamacoena, Mexican ambassador to the United States, who urged intelligent and deliberate consideration of the forces that have shaped the present insurrection; William Barton Northrup, king's counsel and a member of the dominion parliament, with reference to reciprocity; Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University and J. F. Mackay, president of the Canadian Press limited.

Osaid Garrison Villard, proprietor of the New York Evening Post, in introducing the president, praised Mr. Taft for his abstention from the "shorter and uglier" word in his characterization of those who differed with him and lauded his charity, his judgment and advocacy of international peace.

The signing of the pending treaty of arbitration with Great Britain—to be followed by the president had promised, by similar agreements with other nations—would inaugurate, he said, "a new era in United States history, if not in the world, with which your name, sir, will forever be most honorably and indissolubly connected."

"Yours is the privilege," he told the president, "of telling us to our faces just what you think is wrong with us, or of saying what you can in our behalf to a larger public, which some times has its doubts about us and our methods."

He then proposed the health of the president and Mrs. Taft, who was in the gallery; and the toast was drunk standing.

The president smiled broadly at Mr. Villard's invitation to criticize the press, but did not take advantage of it.

GILLETTE TO ACT IN FIVE PARTS TONIGHT

New York, April 28.—American playgoers will have their last opportunity tonight to see William Gillette the author-actor in roles his own creation which have made him internationally famous. He will appear this evening at the Empire in five different parts in scenes from as many plays. Tomorrow he will sail for Europe and he says that tonight's performance will be his last appearance in New York in these parts.

Nearly seventy actors will be employed in the various scenes of the farewell performance. The program opens with the first act of "The Social Secretary." This will be followed by the thrilling court martial scene from the first act of "Held by the Enemy." The second act of "Too Much Johnson" will follow, and the performance will close with the gas-house scene of "Sherlock Holmes," Gillette's greatest success.
