

S.S.S. NATURE'S CURE FOR BLOOD POISON

A great many medicines used in treating Contagious Blood Poison are composed largely of mercury and potash, and are intended to dry up or remove the humiliating outward symptoms. But such treatment cannot cure the disease, and its continued use will often so weaken and disease the stomach as to make a nervous wreck of the patient. And too, when these mineral medicines are left off the smoldering poison takes on new life, and soon the old symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, brown, scaly spots, itching hair, sores and ulcers, etc., return with increased virulence. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison by purifying the blood and keeping the stomach and digestive members in perfect condition all the while by its fine tonic effects. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, made entirely of roots, herbs and barks of recognized virtue as blood purifiers. S. S. S. cures on the principle that not only must the poison be removed from the blood, but also the circulation must be enriched and vitalized with nourishing powers. S. S. S. is known everywhere as the greatest of all blood purifiers and a safe, certain cure for Contagious Blood Poison. Home treatment Book and medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.

again pleased with the way of the world. By the score of 13 to 4, the Echo players were trounced and sent home to gnash their teeth in the celler, the epoch-making contest taking place at Roundup Park.

The game was lost for the Lizards by Lehman and won for the Buckaroos by Hollis. The Echo twirler had an off day and during the two innings which he occupied the mound, he allowed six hits, walked two men on balls and two more by hitting them all of which netted the locals eight runs. Hollis, on the other hand, proved an unsolved mystery to the boys in red. Twenty times he sent the leather pellet toward the Echo batters with such speed and curves that a strikeout was registered and during the whole nine innings, only two men out of the thirty-four who faced him were allowed to connect safely with the sphere.

Lehman was relieved by Phelps in the third inning, Hensleigh going in at the center field, and the slants of the new twirler proved difficult for the Bucks. For four innings he retired them without a hit or run, and had he been given the support to which he was entitled, Pendleton might not have made those additional five scores.

Story of the Game.
Echo could do nothing in the opening canto, Rhode whiffing the breezes and the second two men going out by easy grounders. Pendleton, however, started things off with a smash and at the end of the inning had rung four bells. Dickson, first up, drew a pass, and Nelson was hit by the pitcher. Bliss stepped to the plate, the first time he had faced a pitcher this year, and he made a hit with the fans by slashing out a clean single, scoring Dickson and advancing Nelson to third. Hollis laid the ball down to first and Nelson beat it to the plate. Ward was hit by one of Lehman's slants and Jones sent out a long fly to the right garden, Bliss beating the throw-in. Shaffer made an heroic swat for two bags, enabling Ward to complete the circuit. This ended the first as Weatherstone retired the side by striking out.

Four More in Second.
The second inning was a repetition of the first, Echo drawing a blank and Pendleton another four. Leonard reached first on an error by Rhode and took second on a wild pitch. Dickson was presented with another free ticket. Nelson whiffed the breezes for the first out. Bliss again distinguished himself by banging out a stiff two sacker, scoring two runs. Hollis followed with a single which sent Bliss to the platter and Ward also landed on the ball safely. Jones flew out to the field, but Shaffer registered Hollis with his second hit of the day, ending the scoring for the time being as Weatherstone popped out on a fly.

In the next two innings neither side could land a man home. The Lizards, six in number, fanned the ether while the Buckaroos were unable to connect safely with Phelps, who had succeeded Lehman on the mound. In the fifth Echo drew two. Lundwell fanned and Gilbert drew a walk and stole second. Hoskins bumped one to short and reached first before the ball, while Gilbert raced home on the throw. Hoskins stole second and came home a minute later on Norman's hit, the first which Hollis had allowed.

Finish Is Strong.
The locals added two more in the seventh. Shaffer reached first on an error by Rhode and purloined the next station. Shaffer reached first on an error by Rhode and purloined the next station. Weatherstone fanned. Leonard surprised the fans in to speechless amazement when he sent the ball over third base for three bags. A moment later he scored when Dickson sent out a sacrifice fly.

In the eighth three more big marks were made on the Buckaroos' board. Bliss, first up, got to first on his third hit of the day and Hollis followed with another single. Ward sent a hot one through the second baseman and Bliss scored. Jones then hit to short, Hollis scoring, but Ward being caught at third. Shaffer was hit by the pitcher. Weatherford bunted and Jones was caught at third. Leonard reached first on an error and Shaffer scored when Dickson laid down a bunt. This ended the scoring of the locals.

Echo got her last two in the ninth. Tighe got a clean hit and stole second and third, reaching home on a wild throw by Ward. A little later Gilbert was given a pass, stole the next two sacks and came home when Hoskins hit to first base.

MOUNTAINEERS MIX WITH BADE'S BEARS

Walla Walla, Wash., May 1.—The game in this city yesterday between Bade's Bears and the Weston Mountaineers ended in a fight and by mutual consent was called. In the eighth inning the score stood three to three when Hunky Shaw came to the bat and beat out an infield hit. At first he had an altercation with Al Nor Dean, the Weston first baseman, on account of the alleged elbowing tactics employed by the lanky player. Shaw stole second and spiked Blomgren, whereupon another fracas ensued and the fans rushed onto the field to protect Shaw. Manager Bade and Captain Keefe decided to call the game and to play it off some time during the week.

ROUND-UPS LOSE ANOTHER TO INDIANS

Errors at critical points in the game were responsible for the defeat of the Roundups by the Umatilla Indians at the reservation Sunday afternoon. The game, however, was the best that has yet been played between these two teams this season, the final score being 7 to 4.

Stamey and Hinman composed the battery for the local team and the former pitched an excellent game, allowing 11 hits and causing 11 of his opponents to fan the atmosphere. Hays was the star artist for the Redskins. Eleven hits were garnered off his delivery, but he had 13 strikeouts registered to his credit.
