MILTON IS SHUTOUT BY ATHENA MILLERS

FRUIT MEN FAIL

Frink Pitches First No Hit Game This Season-Final Score Is 9 to 0-Milton Players Make Many Errors.

Athena, Ore., April 30 .- Frink, pitching for Athena, showed the Milton-Freewater team and its fans how he could hand out a no-hit and norun game to them. Had it been for three errors on the Millers not a Milton player would have reached first, but three men got there and only one of them got a look at second. Niles, playing for Milton, tried to steal, but he was too fat and too slow and Pelland on second caught him 15 feet away from the bag. The Millers tapped Halgarth almost at will and Brown got a three base hit besides Pelland and Picard both hit a two-bagger. Five scores was the most made at any one inning and nine hits was all that Athena got off of Halgarth. In regard to errors, they should not be mentioned for it is a shame to tell how many Milton made and the Millers made three. It eemed that every time Milton got hold of the ball and started to throw it in a hurry they would toss the ball wild and somebody woul steal two bases or someone would score. The story of the game is something

Milton's first man struck out. Reser put a hard bee-liner over Clark's head and the little fellow on first made a high jump and caught it with one hand. Milton again struck

Owens started things off in his usual way by getting a hit right over third; was advanced to second by Clark on a bunt and Clarke beat out his bunt. Frink put a little fly to the pitcher and Clark was cought off of first. Pelland was put out on a grounder to the pitcher.

This inning is short and sweetthree men struck out, and Athena again came to the bar,

Pleard put a fast one to the pitcher, who only touched it and second failed to recover the detracted ball in time to put the runner out. Picard advanced to second on a sacrifice by Lleuallen. Bundy hit a fly to first and Picard stole third and made home on a bad throw to third by first.

ng out, Storm for Milton put a fly into Pelland's hands; Darling hit another to Owens and the next man struck out, thus closing the first of the third.

Depeatt knocked a long fly to Milton's one armed man in left field and was caught out. Owens went to first on a fumbled grounder at third and he then stole second. Clarke failed to beat out a missed third strike, but Owens stole third. Frink beat out a slow grounder to third and Owens scored on the same deal and Frink proceeded to second on a bad throw to the pitcher by the first basema strike, it being a low ball, and was advanced to second by a sacrifice hit of Lieuallen. Bundy struck out and Picard stole third. Brown got a hit out back of first which scored Picard. Depeatt fanned, With a strikeout and two grounders to Pelland on second, Milton again failed to reach first. Owens made first on an error of the shortstop and failed to reach second on grounder of Clarkes, but Clarke made it safe. He reached second on Frink's grounder and Frink made safe by an error. Clarke stole third and then home on a passed ball by pitcher and some bonehead throwing by Darling. Frink made second on the same errors and went to third on a hit by Pelland, but he was caught between third and home in an effort to steal home when Picara hit one on the ground and beat it out. He promptly went to second on a passed ball but died there as Lieuallen was retired on a grounder to Storm on second.

Storm struck out. Darling did the same, but Brown dropped the third strike and Clarke duplicated the play on first, so Darling reached the first bag, and it was the first bag Milton had seen. We heard that he was to receive a leather medal for being the first man to get to that first base. Darling should have two medals coming for he got to second on a sacrifice hit. Then the next man struck out, thus making three of them and the first of the sixth was Bundy hit one over short, was advanced to third by hit by Brown between first and second. Depeatt was retired by a grounder to pitcher. Owens made it to third all right on the same error and got home on another passed ball by Darling, Clarke got first on an error on third; Frink was retired on a grounder and Clarke stole second. Pelland was walked to first and scored on a two base hit by Picar. Lieuallen was put out on another grounder. Five scores was enough for one time. Fink really got a two base hit but his umps did not see it that way and called the drive a fowl, although it passed inside of the fowl line.

Reser started the seventh inning by being caught out on a fowl fly to Brown and the next two men struck Bundy put out a long fly to center, but brown rapped out a three base hit. Depeatt knocked one out to center and Brown scored on the fly. Owens was put out by another fly to rightfield.

Niles got first on an error by Depeat. The next peg up was caught out on a fowl fly and Storm struck out. Niles got cute, tried to steal secand and was caught very easily. Clarke made first and second on a
