BUCKAROOS TRIM BRAVE FIRE LADS

PRACTICE GAME RESULTS IN TO 9 TO 3 VICTORY

Snake Defers Put Up Great Exhibition But Fail to Annex Enough Scores—Some Has Been Here With the Big Mit.

The Buckaroos walked off the diamond at Roundup Park yesterday afternoon with the scalps of the local fire laddies dangling from their waist bands, but their triumph was not glorious. The score, according to the official marker, was 9 to 3, and the flame eaters are mighty proud of that three, which was written opposite their name.

The game was a practice affair for the leaguers and they were given a good workout. Milne, the little high school twirler, pitched for the pickups, while Bliss, the new southpaw artist, who distinguished himself at the bat last Sunday, heaved the sphere for the regulars. Both men were found at times by the opposing batters but performed very creditably. Milne struck out seven of the Buckaroo sluggers, while Bliss retired nine of the firemen clouters by the same route.

The pickup nine had some mighty good exponents of the game in its midst. The Penland brothers, three in number, proved that they have not forgotten how to pick up a ball despite the fact that they have been in retirement for some time. "Fat" Graham at first was a Rock of Gibraltar and stopped everything that came his way, runners included. Besides he was there with the bludgeon and slammed out a three bagger that would have been good for six bags if the fat one had been nimble of foot. Corby, at short, put up a big league article, rebelled at the indignities of over-exertion. Brandon, Coon and Finch were planted in the out gardens and they ate up everything that came their way besides wielding the bat right viciously.

Following is the score by innings:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Buckaroos ... 2 0 0 1 0 5 1 8 *9
Firemen ... 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 1 0-3

The farmers of this vicinity have a smile from ear to ear, because of the long need rain which has begun to fall.

Kelly vs. Morgan.
Chicago, May 4.—Spike Kelly and Jack Morgan of Indianapolis, are matched for a bout at South Bend, Ind., this evening. Although Kelly is only a welterweight, he has agreed to let Morgan make 154 pounds.

Featherweights to Fight.
New York, May 4.—Two rugged little featherweights, Patsy Kline of Newark and Battling Mantell, the local fighter, will fight ten rounds at the Longacre Athletic club's stag tonight. This will be Kline's first fight in several months, as he has been out of the ring owing to severe injuries to his eyes.

Wolgang to be Tried.
Los Angeles, Cal., May 4.—Ad Wolgang, lightweight champion of the world, and his manager, Tom Jones, will be tried here tomorrow on a charge of violating the laws regarding prizefighting. The two men are now free on bonds.

All Dogs Not Swell.
Oakland, Cal., May 4.—The largest of all the dog shows that have been held by the Oakland Kennel Club opened here today. While the best premiums go to thoroughbreds, there have been accepted for exhibition many fancy animals without pedigree for which there are special prizes.

ADAMS SCHOOL HAS A LETTER CONTEST

(Special Correspondence.)

Adams, Oregon, May 4.—The Adams Commercial association offered three prizes to each of the four rooms for the best letters written to eastern inquirers seeking information concerning eastern Oregon. First prize, 75 cents cash, second prize 50 cents cash, third prize 25 cents cash. The scale of merits was 50 for information, 30 for style, 20 for mechanical execution.

Forty-one presented letters for grading. Mrs. A. H. Olds, an ex-school teacher who had no children in the school graded the letters. Mrs. A. M. Coffey and G. O. Richardson awarded the prizes on her grading.

There were but two letters from Mr. Haley's room.

Miss Martha Lavandour received the first and Miss Mabel McIntyre the second.

Ten from Miss Beebe's room presented letters. Jessie Chestnut and Dan McIntyre each won firsts, Eugene Lavandour won second, Erwin Stockton third.

Miss Barne's pupils furnished thirteen letters. Rena Hales took first prize, Violet Picard second, and Ila Blak third.

Mrs. Stockton's little folks surprised us with seventeen letters. Harold Carlstrom received the first, Hellen Blake second, and Gheratine Winn the third prize.

The committee were so well pleased that they determined that every child who submitted a letter and did not receive a cash prize should have a sack of candy. The awards were made Thursday afternoon.

PLAN 55-STORY BUILDING.

New York City Will Have the Tallest Structure in the World.

New York—Plans were filed yesterday by the Broadway Park Place company, the construction at Broadway and Park place of the highest building in the world. From the curb to the apex of the tower it will stand 750 feet. There will be thirty stories in the main building and an additional twenty-five in the tower, fifty-five in all.

The highest building in the world now standing is the Metropolitan tower, 700 feet 3 inches, and the second highest is the Singer tower, 612 feet. The Eiffel tower, a skeleton steel structure, is not reckoned a building.
