Cedron Seed Plant. In Central America many natives are gathering the seeds of this plant, Cedron Seed, a rare medicine that has valuable curative powers. But few drug stores carry this seed, owing to the high cost of the article.

ROSE FESTIVAL MORE ELABORATE THAN EVER

Portland, Or.—Decorations for Portland's annual Rose Festival, June 5-10, will be more elaborate than ever before, according to plans now being made by the business houses for brightening up the downtown streets. The festival colors are leaf green and petal pink, but this year the national colors will be used extensively as well.

One department store will convert an entire block into a temporary rose garden. Large vases or jardiniere will be placed at short intervals along the curb entirely around the block and blooming rose bushes will be placed in them for the entire week. Lodges and various interests will have special designs, the Elks planning to weave the royal purple of Elksdom into the color scheme.

Confederates' Memorial Day. Raleigh, N. C., May 10.—Camps of United Confederate Veterans and Sons and Daughters of Confederates throughout North and South Carolina observed memorial day today.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

Lumberman Smiley Loses Father. Warren, Or. Mitchell J. Smiley, a prominent lawyer, who died in Chicago yesterday, was father of Edmund Smiley, a lumberman of Warren, Or.

Grand Ronde Rebekahs Meet. Elgin, Or.—The Rebekah lodge district convention met here last Saturday with a large attendance from Summerville, La Grande, Union and Cove and all other valley points.

Clackamas Recall Lags. Canby, Or.—The proposed recall of the Clackamas county court by dissatisfied residents in the north end of the county, is not meeting with any support in the south end of Clackamas. Judge Beattie and Commissioner Blair are the officials the recall of whom is sought.

Team Falls Into Cess Pool. Hood River, Or.—Two very valuable horses fell in a large cesspool while at work in a garden in the residence section of the city yesterday morning. The covering caved in under the weight. The horses belonged to the Transfer and Livery company. Considerable difficulty was experienced in getting them out.

Forest Grove to Pave. Forest Grove, Or.—The city council last evening ordered advertisements for bids for bituminous street paving for 13 city blocks. The bids are to be opened on May 24, and the contracts are to be signed within ten days after acceptance of the proposals. The work must be finished within 120 days from the date of the contract.

Two Perish on Steamer. Everett, Wash.—The 190-ton wooden steamer Whidby, which plied on Puget Sound from Seattle to Everett and Whidby and Camano Island points was burned at her wharf at Oak Harbor, Camano Island, early this morning, and Fireman Joseph Parker of Seattle, and Manuel Silva, a wharf hand, who were asleep in the hold, perished. The captain and purser, who slept on the upper deck, were saved.

Hoboes Pass Bad Checks. Hood River, Or.—Several hoboes made the rounds of the grocery stores and meat markets, attempting to do business on bogus checks. They were turned down at most places; however, they succeeded in securing a large ham at McGuire Bros., who took the bogus paper. After getting a good supply of eatables they proceeded to make their "mulligan" in the jungles. Chief of Police Lewis trailed them up the railroad track and found their deposit of grub, which had been half eaten by dogs.

Biggest Egg Yet. Albany, Or.—An Albany hen has broken all the records for big eggs boasted of in various parts of Oregon and Washington in the last two weeks. A hen belonging to A. S. Hart, of this city, yesterday laid an egg which measures 10 inches around one way and is eight inches in circumference. It weighs seven ounces. The egg has a soft shell with an unusually large hard-shelled egg inside of it.

Ships Sheep to Portland. Freewater, Or.—Frank Ickerson, a well-known Hudson Bay rancher, shipped this week a carload of sheep, 163 head, to Portland. This is the sixth carload he has shipped this season, but prices are running low and sheep owners are turning money. Ten years ago the Hudson Bay country was the wintering place for thousands of head, but ranchers are devoting more time to alfalfa raising.

Ability to Swim Saves 2. La Grande, Or.—What would have been a fatality had it not been for a knowledge of swimming occurred yesterday at Riverside Park, when a canoe in which were Miss Grace Carbine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Carbine, and her cousin, Warren Weight, suddenly upset. Both went into 10 feet of water. Mr. Weight can swim but slightly, though he reached shore in safety after a hard struggle. Miss Carbine tried to hang to the slippery canoe, but lost her hold and, though already chilled to the bone by her premature dip, struck out for the shore, some distance away, arriving there before another canoeing party could reach the scene.

"THE SPENDTHRIFT" AT OREGON TONIGHT

The new play by Porter Emerson Browne, "The Spendthrift," which Frederic Thompson will present tonight at the Oregon theater, has for its leading theme, the wasteful extravagance of the present generation. Theodore Roosevelt and Cardinal Gibbons, have presented their views in different articles. Mr. Browne presents his in the form of a drama. In his new play the author endeavors to show the conditions which obtain and the results which follow the latter day desire to "live up to position," when the wife is not a mother and the home is not a home in the full sense of the word.

A pretty little auxiliary love story between the wife's sister and the husband's brother proves the assertion that the home built on the cornerstone of true love and sacrifice will become the home of happiness.

Mr. Thompson has given the play a splendid production, and has selected an exceptionally strong cast of players to interpret the different roles, including Doris Mitchell, Lionel Adams, Mattie Ferguson, Albert Sackett, Gwendolyn Piers, Forrest Orr, Alice Kelly and William Sullivan.
