REBELS ORGANIZE TO START CAMPAIGN AGAINST CAPITAL

LARGE ARMY AT BUENA VISTA

Federals are Mounting Cannon and Man Fortifications to Defend City

RIOTING IS REPORTED IMMINENT IN JUAREZ

Generals Orozco and Villa Want to Shoot Navarro But Madero Says He Will Defend the General With His Life—Serious Trouble is Expected in Hanks Soon.

Mexico, May 13.—Ten thousand rebels are at Buena Vista, state of Guerrero, the central camp of the revolutionists, which is commanded by General Figueroa, according to reports arriving today. It is reported that they have completed an organization and intend to begin campaign with Mexico City as the goal. Hasty mounting of cannon at approaches to the palace and the manning of fortifications and increasing the garrison to 1,000 men, indicates that officials fear an early attack. Anticipating that they will probably be the first attacked in the event of an outbreak within the city, the foreigners are organizing and have sent most of the women and children from the city.

El Paso, May 13.—Rioting is reported to be imminent in Juarez today over the possession of the defeated Mexican General Navarro. Generals Orozco and Villa it is said want to shoot Navarro. Madero says they will have to shoot him before they harm Navarro. It is reported now that Orozco has started for Navarro and that serious trouble in rebel ranks may come soon.

Madero's Cabinet Resigns. El Paso, May 13.—It is reported that Madero was arrested by the Orozco faction but later released. It is said that Madero and cabinet has resigned, but this is also unconfirmed. Later dispatches confirm the arrest and release of Madero, and the resignation of the cabinet. The principal trouble was over money which Orozco's troops demanded. Madero agreed and this calmed things slightly. Turmoil reigns in Juarez this afternoon. It is impossible to say what the outcome of the factionalism will be.

The resignation of Madero's cabinet was demanded because of the dissatisfaction over their lack of action.

Cananea is Captured. Douglas.—Cananea, in northern Sonora, was captured by the rebels without shooting this morning. They surprised the federals who were asleep.

Ensenada Residents Flee. San Diego, May 13.—The steamer Bernardino Reyes, with 47 refugees from Ensenada, arrived today. It is reported that 200 more refugees would arrive on the steamer San Diego, due Monday. Ensenada people fear Pryce and rebels who captured Tia Juana, will attack Ensenada.

To Attack Nogales. Nogales, May 13.—Three hundred armed rebels climbed aboard and captured the Southern Pacific train that left Canaia this morning. It is announced that they intend to attack Nogales, Mexico, the only remaining point of entry along the boundary not in the rebels' hands. The residents are panic stricken and immediately began a rush across the line. It is expected that the garrison will make only a light resistance.

TAFT ATTEMPTS TO RECONCILE ROOSEVELT

Washington, May 13.—In the selection of Henry Stimson of New York as secretary of war, vice Dickinson, resigned, is seen here today as a move on Taft's part to attempt a reconciliation of Roosevelt and the old guard factions in New York state. It is believed that Taft consulted Roosevelt and Root before selecting Stimson. The reports that Dickinson resigned because of friction with Knox over the Mexican situation is discredited.

She was found unconscious in the bathroom of the house in which she lived. She will probably recover. Latson taught her and others who were influenced by his acclutism that there is no such a thing as death. When he died she said he merely changed his life's form and that she would rejoin him. Her rooms bore many notes and epigrams showing that she loved the doctor deeply. Despite her assertion that the doctor killed himself, it is certain that another hand sent the bullet into his brain.

BAD CHECK ARTISTS BECOMING NUMEROUS

No sooner do the local officers capture one forger than another passes a bad check to give them more work. Frank Weber was caught at Pasco yesterday after having secured money from Tom Swearingen and today the officers are looking for a man who forged the name of Virgil Moore, the well known farmer, to a check and cashed it at the Thacker grocery on West Webb street. Up until late this afternoon, he had not been apprehended. The man gave his name to Mr. Thacker as J. Conley and the check was made out in his favor on the American National bank for the sum of $7.50. The officers are handicapped in their efforts to locate him owing to the fact that Mr. Thacker is unable to give any clear description of the man and no one seems to know anyone by the name of Conley.

EARTH GOOD FOR ONLY 10,000 YEARS LONGER

Moline, Ill.—That the earth will become uninhabitable like the planet Mars was the prophecy made by Dr. Byvante Arrethenius of Stockholm, in a lecture last night at Augustana college. Dr. Arrethenius, who won the Noble prize in chemistry in 1903 because of his electrolytic dis-association theory, is regarded as the world's greatest cosmologist. Dr. Arrethenius declared that two causes are operating to bring about the extinction of life on the earth. Loss in heat generated by the sun is one of the dangers that threaten it, while diminution of carbonic acid in the atmosphere is the other menace. However, Dr. Arrethenius explained that the sun will probably continue to give out the same amount of heat for at least a billion more years. The exhaustion of carbonic acid was held forth as the more imminent catastrophe. Dr. Arrethenius figured that at the present rate with which it is entering into other chemical combinations it will cease to exist in the atmosphere in sufficient quantities to sustain vegetable life in 10,000 years.

MANY HEAR EX-GOV. FOLK

Prominent Missourian Entertains Large Audience at Methodist Church

PLEADS FOR ACTIVITY AGAINST LAWLESS ELEMENT

Subject of Address Was "The Era of Conscience"—Denounces Graft and Corruption in Business and Politics—Hearers Impressed With Speech.

Expounding the doctrine of clean government and civic righteousness, ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk of Missouri, one of the men mentioned most prominently as the democratic candidate for president spoke to a large audience at the Methodist church last evening as the last number on the Lyceum course in this city. Mr. Folk's subject was "The Era of Conscience," and his treatment consisted of a strong denunciation of graft and corruption in business and politics and a plea for an aggressive determined fight against these pernicious practices. "Fight" was the keynote of his address and he knew the meaning and value of the word. He declared his belief in the honesty of the majority of the citizens but he deplored the fact that this honesty is only passive and is helpless when pitted against the unremitting activity of the lawless element. It was the patriotism of peace that he pleaded for, the spirit which will fight to maintain the liberty and rights which were won in carnal battle. Governor Folk has a strong, clean face and delivers his message with a tense earnestness that can not be misnamed and which can not fail to impress his hearers. He was introduced to his audience last night by President R. P. Smythe of the Pendleton Commercial association who paid a strong tribute to the man who has accomplished so much for clean government and, when he was presented as "Missouri's candidate for president" he was greeted with hearty applause. On the platform with the distinguished guest, were President Smythe, Judge Stephen A. Lowell and Will M. Peterson. Responding to the speech of introduction, Governor Folk launched immediately upon his subject. The following is a part of his address.

What Folk Said.

There has been a great awakening on the subject of individual responsibility for the affairs of city, state and nation within the last few years. The public conscience has been aroused against evils and things are not tolerated now that a few years ago were submitted to in silence. Will the movement toward higher ideals go on? Will not the people soon forget? Have not the people already forgotten, and will not things be allowed to go on in the same old way as they were before the awakening of the people? These questions are being asked all over the country today.

A Revolution in Conscience.

Reforms sometimes die, but revolutions never go backward, and a revolution has been wrought in the conscience of men. The awakening is merely the determination to have the government of city, state and nation represent the public interest and not special privilege. In the battle against privileges some fights must be lost. With each fight lost we should not lose courage, but fight all the harder; with each fight won we should not become apathetic, and think all has been won. If the issue could be represented squarely between public rights and special privilege everywhere there would be no doubt as to the outcome. For the majority of the people here and everywhere will do right when they know right. The representatives of privilege are too shrewd to permit a plain issue between public rights and special privilege to go before the people. They adroitly manage to complicate the main issue with other questions so as to bewilder men of even the best intentions. By confusing the issue the representatives of privilege divide the forces in opposition. Those who object to reform do not usually put their protest upon the true ground, but they seek some other pretext. They ask why is not this or that done? If one examines the source of a complaint like this he will usually find that it is not because of a desire that reform be made more thorough, but to discredit what has been done. If one sincerely desires progress in the way of better things, instead of criticism he will give his help to the accomplishment of the things wished for. Reform always progresses by degrees—everything can not be done in a day.

Exposure Necessary.

One of the obstacles to the progress of righteousness everywhere is the mistaken view that it injures a city or state to prosecute wrong do-
