WILSON HITS CORRUPTION

Pays Compliment to Men who do Things But Says Things are Wrong

GOVERNOR ENCOURAGED BY ATTITUDE OF AUDITORS

New Jersey Executive Is Guest of Yale, Harvard and Princeton Clubs of San Francisco—Deplores the Power of Money in Politics and National Affairs.

San Francisco, May 16.—"It is an encouraging sign when I can attack certain things before the men who do these things and not only be put out of the room, but receive generous applause."

When Dr. Woodrow Wilson, governor of New Jersey, made the foregoing statement here last night as the guest of the Yale, Harvard and Princeton clubs of San Francisco, in an impromptu address in which he attacked political corruption, his hearers laughed and applauded. Dr. Wilson made the remark after declaring that men who do not take orders from those higher up are social and political outcasts. He deplored the power of money in politics, the sway of political corruptionists in national affairs and concluded by saying that recent events have demonstrated the fact "that things are wrong."

"The general debate as to whether things are wrong is settled," he said. "Things are wrong. Now we must get up a debate on how they may be righted. Since the progressives outnumber the conservatives, we will set the pace in the debate."

Dr. Wilson dwelt at length upon the uprooting of social and political traditions of recent years. "Party lines are so disturbed today," he said, "that what we are doing is conducting a campaign of identification. We have come into changed conditions where the old standards and old traditions do not fit. We have lost our standards in politics and we don't know where we are. America has concentrated her gaze upon material things, without lifting up her eyes for so long that now we are looking about we find that we have passed into strange surroundings."

"Why are the people now thinking of direct legislation? Because in most of the states representative government has represented a sinister set of influences an has not represented the sentiment of the community as a whole."

"You in California, as I understand it, are not tired of representative government. No community is ever tired of representative government, that represents the community, but we are all tired of the kind of government that represents certain interests."

"Take the issues of the initiative and referendum. Why do you wish to uproot representative institutions. This is the way to restore them. Reform processes are processes of reconstruction. Reform measures represent the renewal, not the destruction of representative institutions."

HOUSE UNANIMOUSLY PASSES STANLEY RESOLUTION

Washington, May 16.—The house today unanimously passed the Stanley resolution ordering a sweeping investigation of the steel trust.

LABOR UNIONS ARE DENOUNCED BY KIRBY

New York, May 16.—Vitriolic denunciation of labor unions in general and a flat declaration that he believed the destruction of the Los Angeles Times was a result of a general plot of labor leaders was made here today at the convention of the National Manufacturers' association by President Kirby. He said: "The American Federation of Labor is engaged in an open warfare on Christ and his principles. This irresponsible federation has been permitted to grow up uncurbed by law, unwhipped of justice although its purpose is to draw to common level all men and women."

Kirby continuing his assault on labor said: "I believe our constitution guarantees the protection of life and property which is being made almost inoperative by the labor leaders. I demand this organization to adopt resolutions favoring the uniform legislation against this labor conspiracy. I believe every officer of the American Federation from the president down intends the destruction of our system of government. We will be fortunate if we escape vicious class legislation at this session of congress."

WESTON PROJECT LOOKS LIKE SUCCESS

ESTIMATES ARE RIGHT AND MANY SIGN UP

G. W. Proebstel Hopeful Over Outlook for Watering Land Adjoining His Town—Contractor Reduces Cost.

The work of getting the farmers to sign up for water under the Pine creek project is now underway and the hopes for the success of the project are very bright according to G. W. Proebstel, well known hardware dealer of Weston who has been down today upon a business trip.

Estimates on the cost of the Pine creek project were secured some time ago and the engineers place the cost at a trifle over $60 per acre. This estimate "looks good" to the project enthusiasts who feel that the farmers may well afford to pay that price for having their land supplied with water any time it may be needed.

That the engineers have been conservative in estimating the cost of building the project is indicated by the fact that an intending contractor has written the promoters that he will be able to do the work for $100,000 less than the estimate.

The work of inducing the land owners to sign up for the water is progressing very well and according to those in charge there will be no difficulty in getting the desired acreage. But for obvious reasons it is desired to have all the land in a body if possible and some difficulty is being had in getting some of the owners to sign up. There are a few large owners who persist in remaining outside the fold and until these can be induced to sign for water or until more progressive people buy them out the project is being delayed.

HENDRICKS SUBMITS DEMURRER TO SUIT

A demurrer in the case of the State of Oregon vs. C. C. Hendricks et al was argued and submitted yesterday afternoon before Circuit Judge Phelps, Charles Carter appearing as counsel for the state and D. W. Bailey for the defendants. The demurrer alleged that the suit for the condemnation of the Hendricks ten acre tract west of the city for the branch asylum purposes was unconstitutional on three grounds, namely: first, that the act directing the state board to select grounds for the asylum did not state the object of the act sufficiently clear; second, that the state has no authority to condemn the ground because the act specifies nothing about acquiring land by condemnation or by exercise of the right of eminent domain; and third, that it is not sufficient that the state should allege in its complaint that it had failed to agree with Mr. Hendricks on the price of the land but must also allege that it had failed to agree with each of the other three defendants.

This is the suit by which the state seeks to gain possession of the Hendricks land, alleging that Hendricks had put an excessive price on his land when informed that the state needed it for asylum purposes.

L. C. Dickenson is a party to the suit as he holds a $4000 mortgage on the land and Pearl Bowman because he holds a claim of $40 against Hendricks. Frank Nudo is the fourth of the defendants, he having been employed by Hendricks to farm the land.

PEACE RESTS WITH MADERO

Attitude of Rebel Leader Will Decide Whether or Not War in Mexico Ends

SOMETHING DEFINITE WILL BE DONE IMMEDIATELY

It is Believed in View of Sweeping Victories of Insurgents That Madero Will Not Be Asked to Amend His Peace Terms Extensively—He Must Say Yes or No.

El Paso, May 16.—Peace in Mexico today hinges on the attitude of Provisional President Madero, according to Judge Carabial, Diaz' peace representative. The only thing that will block peace negotiations will be some impossible or arbitrary stand by Madero, said the judge. "Something definite will be done in thirty hours. We have passed the preliminaries and are now dealing with the proposition where Madero can say yes or no."

In the view of the recent sweeping victories of the rebels, and the announcement of the withdrawal of the federal forces from the state of Sonora, where there are millions in mining properties, it is believed here that Diaz won't ask the rebels to amend their terms extensively.

Rioting at Panchuca. Mexico City, May 16.—Following the surrender of Panchuca to the insurgents rioting and pillaging broke out there, according to today's advices. TROUBLE ENDS AMONG REBELS

Orozco Says Whole Matter Was Work of Political Adversaries—Swears Fealty

ARMY AT JUAREZ IS INCREASED TO 2500

General Figueroa is in Command of 12,000 Soldiers in Southern Mexico—Rebel Attack on Chihuahua is Now Expected—Two Thousand Insurrectos Approach Town.

El Paso, May 16.—General Orozco today applied a short ugly word to all newspaper men who published an account of his quarrel with Madero. In a letter to Madero, Orozco deplored the publicity and declared the whole matter was the "work of political adversaries." He swears eternal fealty to Madero and the revolution. This is believed ends all chances of trouble among the rebels at Juarez for a while.

Federals Escape Annihilation. Nogales.—A force of 200 federals under Colonel Diaz narrowly escaped annihilation by the rebels yesterday, according to ranchers arriving here today. The federals progress were cut off by the burned Southern Pacific bridges, and they were attacked by three times their number. They repaired to the track and hurried south to Guaymas leaving their dead behind. The casualties are unknown.

Juarez Army Increased. Juarez, Mexico, May 16.—General Villan and other advisers of provisional President Madero are preparing to try powder instead of salt as a sedative sprinkle for the fall of the weary doze of peace. Today preparations for a vigorous pushing of the revolution, were grimly evident. The war plans of the insurgents contemplate the capture of Chihuahua and then Mexico City.

The Madero army at Juarez has been increased to nearly 2500 men by heavy enlistment of volunteers. Most of the Juarez insurgent army of occupation will soon move southward as a part of the war plans. Telegrams received from General Figueroa, commanding the rebel forces around Mexico City and in southern Mexico, states the southern field has nearly 12,000 men in the field and that he will co-operate to the last with Provisional President Madero.

A party of American mining men, including D. E. Gilles, arrived at the border today from Chihuahua, and asserted that General Rabago's forces of federals had turned back when they received news of the fall of Juarez, and now is back in Chihuahua city. In spite of this move, continued preparations for sending a large force of insurgents under General Pascual Orozco southward to reinforce the rebels who have been watching the trails leading north are being made. The Americans also reported that the whole country was ablaze with revolt.

CHINAMAN CHARGED WITH BAD OFFENCE

Hang, a Chinaman who owns a track garden about two and a half miles east of the city, was placed under an arrest this morning on a warrant issued from the justice court charging him with polluting waters used for domestic purposes. As he had a wagon load of vegetables to peddle about the city he was allowed until 2 o'clock this afternoon to appear in court but as he had not arrived at that time, Chief of Police Tom Gurdane, who is also constable and deputy sheriff, started out to his farm to bring him in for trial.

The warrant was sworn to by Walter Wells, an employee of the city water department, who alleges that Hang has been dumping slops into the Umatilla river. Wells states that this practice has been going on for some time and that, for the past year and a half he has been attempting to detect the Celestial in the act but until yesterday was unsuccessful. The law under which he was arrested is a state law and is punishable by a fine of from ten to fifty dollars.

It is reported that there are several other residents on the river who have been making it an open sewer and the authorities intend to bring them to justice as soon as possible.

COMMISSION APPOINTED IN BUCK STOVE CASE

WILL DETERMINE GUILT OF FEDERATION OFFICERS

Justice Wright Will Base His Further Action in Noted Case on the Decision of the Commission.

Washington, May 15.—Justice Wright of the supreme court of the District of Columbia today appointed a commission to determine whether the American Federation were guilty of contempt of court. Upon the decision of the commission, Wright will base his further action in the noted case. Wright is proceeding under the decision of the United States supreme court which ordered the dismissal of the case yesterday. Wright says the decision left open a possibility of himself ordering the contempt proceedings against labor leaders because they disobeyed his injunction in the Buck stove case.

He held that the court dismissed the jail sentence on the ground that the action had been brought by the Buck company. In such an event only a fine could be imposed. Wright said he ordered the investigation so his court would be vindicated and sustained.

UMATILLA COUNTY IS BLESSED WITH RAIN

Umatilla county is being abundantly blessed with rain and the blessing is evenly distributed so that no one section will have the advantage over the other. Reports are that the rainfall in the vicinity of Echo has been heavier than about Pendleton and this means that the light lands of the county will produce a good crop this year. Moisture was needed badly in that section to insure a good yield.

According to the weather observer, the rainfall since yesterday afternoon has been .19 of an inch which brings the precipitation for the year up to 11 inches, approximately the normal. Some of the farmers are now complaining that they are getting too much rain, which goes to prove that there are no climatic conditions which will entirely please a farmer. They say that the heavy rains are producing a rank growth and causing the grain to fall down but the more optimistic only smile and declare they can't get enough rain to injure a crop in Umatilla county. Therefore, the prediction is freely made that the 1911 crop will be one of the largest in years.

MAY PROSECUTE OIL OFFICIALS

Government May Take Criminal Action as Result of Yesterday's Decision

COMPANY WILL OBEY DECREE BY DISOLVING

If Prosecution is Started Company Will Probably Claim Immunity on Account of the Statute of Limitations—Informal Conference is Held Today.

Washington, May 16.—A high government official today stated that criminal prosecutions of the Standard Oil officials may follow the decision. Attorney General Wickersham will consider the matter soon. Possible obstacles to the prosecution may confront the government as it is expected the officials will claim immunity on account of the statute of limitations. To offset this the government will take the position that a combination continued after the trust was ordered dissolved by the lower court.

Disgruntled with the supreme court decision in the Standard Oil case, the progressives at an informal conference today decided to urge an amendment to the Sherman anti-trust act reading, "No combination of trade shall be regarded as reasonable under the terms of this act."

Advances in Trade Expected. New York, May 16.—Higher prices for oil and its products, it is believed here will be the only real offset of the decision ordering the Standard Oil company to dissolve. Business men agree that immediate advances in the trade are certain as many investments were held off awaiting the decision.

Will Obey Decree.

M. F. Elliott chief counsel for the Standard Oil company in a statement issued today said the company would obey the courts decree and would immediately take steps to dissolve. Discussing the effects of the decision it is pointed out that the Standard Oil of New Jersey won't change its ownership of various plants. It will merely retransfer its property to original companies.

Newspaper Comment.

New York, May 16.—Newspapers commenting on the Standard decision are almost unanimous in the statement that the decision is good for business. The Sun says: "The rights of property will not and cannot be affected."

World: "If the corporations are violating the law they may purge themselves by reorganization after it is found illegal; they can proceed as before and the Sherman act will be a rope of sand."

Herald: "The country's business interests for the first time in years now knows what the law means and the path is free to normal activity and prosperity."

Times: "The decision of the supreme court and Justice White's illuminating opinion have freed the country from a terror that for so long has been paralyzing its energies."
