CLASS OF '11 SOON TO PASS INTO HISTORY

Baccalaureate Sermon Next Sunday. By Rev. Meldrum—Dr. Sheldon to Deliver Address—Twenty-two Graduates in Class This Year.

The last days of the Class of 1911 of the Pendleton high school are at hand. The "prep" days of the present seniors will soon exist in memory only. Yesterday began the last week but one of their four years life as high school students and the exercises which will mark their departure are being arranged.

Examinations will commence next Friday morning and will continue until Thursday of the following week. Sunday will begin commencement week and on that day Rev. A. MacKenzie Meldrum, formerly pastor of the First Christian church of this city but now in charge of the Athena church, will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the members of the graduating class. On Thursday will be given the class day exercises which will include, besides musical numbers, the class history, the class prophecy, the class poem and the class will. On Friday evening will occur the commencement exercises proper when a half dozen or more of the members will deliver their orations, and when Dr. H. D. Sheldon of the University of Oregon will deliver an address.

Just who will comprise the speakers at the two nights has not yet been determined but will be by the end of the week. Every member of the class has written an oration and has been required to practice it but only those who so desire, providing that number is at least twelve, will be asked to deliver their orations. According to the present estimate, the Class of 1911 will number 22 but there may be several others added to this number of them are successful in making up back work. This is a smaller class than that of last year but this conforms to the rule of the succession of graduation classes, namely that a small class follows a large one. The total number of graduates last year was 29, six of whom finished at the mid-year term. There was only one, Nat Kimball, who completed the course at the end of the first semester this year.

Class of 1911. Following are the 22 who are at present numbered on the list of graduates:

Louis F. Anderson, Jr., Nelly Fayre Anibal, Etta Mae Baker, Cressie Baker, Beatrice Brownell, William Dale Chessman, Elmer O. Dahlgren, Richard D. Devine, Grace Aura Fennell, Nathan Kimball, Arthur Jordan, Lynnwood H. Livermore, Clement Lee McCoy, Mollie Myrtle McDill, Harvey G. McPherson, Charles E. M'line, John G. Nolte, Emma Lillian Richardson, Ray C. Simpson, James Alfred Straughn, Henry Westbrook Dickson, James B. Hartwell.

Two Criminals Arraigned.

Frank Weber, the man who passed the bad check on Tom Sweringer, has been arraigned in the justice court and bound over under $350 bonds which he was unable to furnish. From statements made by Weber, the supposition is that he did not know that forgery was a felony in Oregon but he states that he intended to wire the sum of the check to the bank from North Yagma. Frank Harburt, who stole a pony from a Echo hitching rack, was placed under $500 bonds.

Lowell to Address Graduates.

Judge Stephen A. Lowell of this city one of the best orators in the state, has been selected to deliver the commencement address tomorrow night to the graduates of the Milton schools. Walter Pierce, formerly of this city, will deliver the address to the Weston students on May 25.

A cut lemon dipped in salt, will remove iron rust from marble, which should be washed thoroughly after it is used.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Track Scales About Ready.
The big steel track scales, for weighing cars, which the O. W. R. & N. company is installing in the local yards, is rapidly being rushed to completion by Foreman Joe Stegle.

Paul Gilmore Coming.
Paul Gilmore, the well known and popular actor, is booked to appear at the Oregon theater May 23 in "The Mummy and the Humming Bird."

Find Wood 12 Feet Down.
Workmen who have been making test holes on the federal building site to determine how far beneath the surface bedrock lay, yesterday found, upon striking the rock twelve feet down, large chunks of wood in a good state of preservation.

One Man Is Vagued.
John B. Ellis was given five days in jail by Police Judge Fitz Gerald this morning in which to reflect upon the ancient command, "by the sweat of thy brow shalt thou eat bread." He was arrested last night and charged with vagrancy.

O.-W. R. & N. Pay Day.

All O.-W. R. & N. employees are wearing smiles today owing to the fact that "the ghost walked" this morning. The local O.-W. R. & N. office handles several thousand dollars each month, as Pendleton is a central point for the distribution of paychecks.

Wilson Buried Today.

The body of Charles Wilson, who was killed in a runaway near Athena Sunday night, was laid to rest in the Athena cemetery at 1 o'clock this afternoon. A number of the local Redmen of Pendleton went up to attend the funeral, as the deceased was a member of the local tribe.

Band Rehearsal Tonight.

All members of the "Roundup Cowboy Band" as well as all bandmen will meet at Ralph Folsom's furniture store this evening for a rehearsal and business meeting. It is the intention of the band to enlarge its instrumentation; also to arrange for a permanent director.

River Is Up.

The Umatilla river took a sudden rise last night on account of the recent rains and has reached high water mark for this year. Trainmen from the east report a heavy rain with all streams on the rise from Huntington to Pendleton.

Phone Man Is Angler.

F. W. Welles, local manager for the Pacific Telephone company, is something of an angler from the looks of a string of trout on display today at the Ladow & Peterson hardware store. The fish were caught by Mr. Welles yesterday and one of the trout is a particularly fine beauty.

Change in Foremen.

H. W. Schaefer, O.-W. R. & N. section foreman at North Fork, is in the city to take charge of the Pendleton yards during the absence of Foreman DeFord, who goes to Kansas City for a visit. Martin McLaughlin will have charge of the North Fork section during Foreman Schaefer's stay at Pendleton.

Rev. Reeves to Take Charge.

The Presbyterian church of this city has arranged with Rev. John Reeves of the Southern Methodist church, to act as supply for the church until August 1, when arrangements will be made for the new pastor, who is expected to arrive by September 1. Mr. Reeves is well known in the city, having lived here now for nearly three years.

Change of Line Fenced.

The new track between Pendleton and Youkam is rapidly being fenced by the O.-W. R. & N. company. When this fence is finished, the change of line will be complete in every way with the exception of picking up some of the old rails that still remain on the old track. A ride over this 14 miles of new track, which cost over a million dollars, is indeed a pleasure to the traveling public.

Twenty Cars of Sheep.

A. A. Walker sent out twenty cars of sheep this morning over the Northern Pacific line to Cle Elum, Wash., where he will put them on the ranges of the Cascades. There were 6100 in the lot and all were yearlings purchased from the Doherty, Slusher and other flocks of the county. The recent dry weather has made them thin but Mr. Walker expects to have them rounded out before they have been on the ranges long.

Convocation Here Tonight.

The convocation of the Missionary district of eastern Oregon will meet at the Church of the Redeemer tonight at 7:30 o'clock with Bishop R. L. Paddock in charge. The Rev. Charles Puke of St. Paul's church, Walla Walla, came over this morning to attend the services. He is a great friend of Rev. Charles Quinney, the local minister, having been present at his ordination. Following the service a reception will be conducted by the ladies of the church and all members and friends of the church are invited.

A Crowing Hen.

M. S. Keys, well known drayman, is not a nature fakir but he has a freak in his chicken yard which he challenges anyone in the city to duplicate. He owns a Blue Andalusian hen which is a real suffragette, so much so that she is now emulating Sir Chanticleer by flapping her wings and sending out a lusty crow. Mr. Keys thinks she will be growing a comb and a pair of spurs next. The hen is aged about seven years and it may be that her crowing is only a result of her senility.

Baker Returns Home.

Tracey Baker, who recently signed a contract to finish the season with the Boston Americans, reached Pendleton this morning from Seattle, where he has been attending the University of Washington and will remain here to visit his parents until Monday, when he will leave for Boston. As he is now under contract with organized baseball he is barred from playing with the Buckaroos Sunday unless the other teams of the league give their permission. Inasmuch as there is a strong desire on the part of local fans to see Baker in action once again before he enters big company, Manager Nelson thinks the managers of the other teams will consent to his appearance in a Pendleton uniform.

Moves Old Ice House.

Ben L. Burroughs, the wood, coal and lumber man, today started a force of workmen to tearing down the old ice house on Main street just south of the main tracks of the O.-W. R. & N. and will have it rebuilt on the ground where the old depot stood when it blew down.

Real Estate Transactions.

W. H. Skinner to Tum-a-lum Lumber company, lots 7 and 8, block 2, city of Hermiston; Geary Kimbrell to John Kimbrell, quarter section west of Meacham for $400. E. E. Roth to A. C. Denny, property near Milton for $800.

Injunction Is Modified.

Judge Phelps today modified the injunction against the Appleburg Water company so that it is now permitted to take water on the eighty acres under controversy pending the settlement of the suit which was instituted over a year ago to interpret a contract between McManus and Henderson. Judge Bean formerly ordered a modification of the injunction but it seems that the terms were not clear and that Henderson was prohibiting the watering of the land.

Twenty-three on Black List.

There are twenty-three men in Pendleton and Umatilla county who will be given the 23 sign when they enter local saloons and ask for a drink to quench their thirst. The city authorities have prepared a black list upon which the names of habitual drunkards have been written and the saloonkeepers are forbidden to sell liquor to these men under penalty of having their licenses revoked. One of the men placed under the ban, a well known farmer, received a rude shock yesterday when after inviting a number of men to line up at the bar with him, was informed that his name was on the black list. With these men it is now a case of "Liquor, liquor, everywhere, nor any drop to drink," and the city to them must be as dry as the great Sahara.

Got a Free Bed, Anyway.

Thomas Royer, like the average American citizen, likes to stretch his manly form upon a bed when night falls and sink into the arms of Morpheus with the assurance of comfort which a $20 Oatemoor gives. Sometimes he is without sufficient coin of the realm wherewith to purchase a luxurious slumber, but, be it known, Royer is a very wide awake man when he is not asleep and he knows full well that there is more than one way to get over a fence. Last night he rolled into Pendleton, perhaps on a freight train, perhaps not, but his pockets were as free from cash as is a monk's head from hair. His eyes were heavy and his tired frame longed for a downy couch, therefore it was with a glad light in his optics that he saw a back entrance to the Bowman hotel. With all the stealth of a burglar he entered and climbed the stairs in search of that most precious of all blessings, sleep. He found an empty room and was soon transported into the land of sweet dreams. Alas for the sad awakening! Whether his snores attracted attention or not, he was discovered and forced by a blutcoated officer to change his place of lodging to the city jail. This morning he pleaded not guilty to the charge of disorderly conduct and will be forced to defend his actions in police court this afternoon.

CHAMPION DEBATERS MEET TOMORROW NIGHT

Champion will meet champion tomorrow night in this city when the debating teams of the Hood River and Pendleton high schools meet to decide which is the superior in argument. Hood River has won the championship in the Columbia river district. It now becomes necessary to determine which is the most fit to meet the team of the Grants Pass high school for the championship of the state and the contest tomorrow night is for that purpose.

The question to be debated is "Resolved, That national conservation of natural resources is preferable to state conservation." and the local boys will uphold states' rights. The judges have not yet been announced as they are selected by the committee at the University of Oregon.

The local team is composed of the same three men who have participated in the other contests of the year, James Hartwell, Claude Hampton and Chester Fee.

If some people had the power to fix prices at the ballot box they would buy automobiles at $1 each on time, without interest, and ride on street cars and railway trains for nothing, with meals thrown in.
