Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Boston Juveniles Here.
The Boston Juveniles, who have appeared in the local theatre several times in the past, came in on No. 5 last evening and left this afternoon for Passaic where they will show tonight.

Craven is Dallas Mayor.
J. R. Craven, formerly a resident of this city and who was a partner of A. J. Goodman in the Goodman hardware company, has been elected mayor of Dallas, Oregon, news of his election having just been received here by Rev. R. E. Storey, pastor of the Baptist church.

Two More Big Autos.
Frank Curl, the well known farmer, has just received his new six cylinder, model D, battleship gray, torpedo body Franklin automobile and it is certainly a thing of beauty. Antonio Vey, the big sheepman, has just purchased a six cylinder touring car of the same make and it will be here shortly.

To Arrange for Teachers' Meet.
County Superintendent Frank K. Welles is in receipt of a letter from Superintendent Churchill of Baker, who is chairman of the executive committee of the eastern division of the State Teachers' association, announcing that the committee of which Mr. Welles is a member, will hold a meeting in the near future to arrange for the next convention which will be held during Thanksgiving week.

Epworth League Elects Officers.
At the business meeting of the Epworth League held in the Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday evening the following officers were elected: President, Wm. E. Waters; first vice president, Jewell Rourke; second vice president, Ida Hinderman; third vice president, Mrs. Lettie Hunter; fourth vice president, Fannie Wylie; secretary, Flossie Kimbrell; treasurer, Edna Earle. Nine new members were added to the roll.

Long Session for Police Court.
Judge Fitz Gerald had an unusually long session this morning as he remained in his chair from 9 o'clock until 12. Besides hearing the trials of Walter Lindsey and Dan Downey for disorderly conduct and of George M. Howard for selling liquor without a license, he was confronted with four men who had been arrested while drunk. These men, Charles Wilson, Frank Daily, John Wallatze, and Wild Bill, the latter two Indians, all pleaded guilty and were given three days in jail with the exception of Wallatze who drew four.

Has Taken Reo Agency.
The Pendleton Auto Co. yesterday received a shipment of five new Reo autos of the latest models, having just accepted the agency for this make of car. They are a cheaper car than the Franklin, ranging in price from $1175 to $1550. Mr. McCormack's big garage, which at the time it was built, was considered by many to be far too large for this city, is now so crowded that it is with difficulty that room could be made for the new machines. An addition will probably be constructed in the rear before long and the shops moved into it.

Suffragette Hen Makes Call.
"Beauty," the crowing hen of M. E. Keys, made a call at this office this morning following her first appearance in print yesterday evening. She resented the imputation in the story yesterday that she was inferior to a rooster in that she did not have a big comb or a pair of spurs and exhibited splendid examples of these chantecleran characteristics. The spurs were fully an inch and three quarters in length and one was broken down as a result of the fight in which the unsexed hen has participated. Mr. Keys swears that she is not a rooster, for during the nine years of her life, he claims she has laid many dozens of eggs for his family. Mr. Keys intends to put her and her two daughters on exhibition at the next poultry show.

Fighters Are Given Trial.
Walter Lindsey and Dan Downey who were arrested the other day for fighting, were tried this morning in police court on a charge of disorderly conduct. Lindsey was fined ten dollars while sentence was suspended on Downey as the evidence plainly showed that the former was the aggressor. It seems that Lindsey is putting up a feed stable on West Webb street much to the annoyance of residents and that Downey has been circulating a petition of remonstrance. According to the testimony, Lindsey called Downey across the street and assaulted him with a scuffling whereupon Downey used his fists much to the damage of Lindsey's countenance. Lindsey testified he was drunk at the time.

Candle Almost Causes Fire.
Gray Bros. Grocery had a narrow escape from fire last night as a result of the guessing contest on the burning candle which is being conducted by that house. About 10:30 Clive Cheshire stopped at the window wherein the tallow was slowly melting away and while deeply engaged in mental calculations whereby he hoped to win a can of baking powder, a small bug flew into the flame and fell burning upon the paper covered stand which supported the candle. Major Moorhouse, who happened along at this juncture, went in search of Harry Gray, while Mr. Cheshire kept his eye on the little fire which was prevented from igniting the paper by the melted grease. The proprietor was nowhere to be found but Night Officer Sheer was summoned. By this time the paper had ignited and was blazing up quite freely. Unable to gain entrance through the door, the men hoisted young George Hackithorn over the transom, the door was unlocked and the fire was soon extinguished. But the candle was blown out also, which will afford grounds for a contested decision for disappointed guessers.

Revival Meetings.
The Free Methodists continue their meeting in the South Methodist church, corner of W. Webb and Aura streets every night at 8 p. m. Conference Evangelist M. L. Schooley preaches and Pastor Guy Donny of Athena leads the singing and devotional exercises. Do not confound the Free Methodists with either the South or M. E. churches. We have a distinct mission, and were we the same as either of the others, there would be no excuse for our existence. In the beginning, in 1860 our people were thrust out of the M. E. church because we insisted on standing by the landmarks of Methodism, from which the other church was drifting. As there was no other organization which held as we did the organization of this church became, and still continues, to be a necessity. We do not antagonize other churches, but hold to original Methodism. The discipline of this church is based on the M. E. Discipline of 1856. Our business is to "spread scriptural holiness over the lands." We hold that the religion of Jesus Christ demands "separation from the world," and vital experimental Godliness in heart and life. We do not resort to worldly and fleshly schemes for raising money, nor go into the amusement business to "hold our congregation." If you believe in old fashioned religion, come to this meeting.

COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD NAMED.
ision provided for by the new law. This would mean that a taxpayer would pay ten cents additional for every thousand dollars worth of taxable property.

"Most of the country districts contain much more taxable property in proportion to their expenses, than do the city districts, hence the special school taxes in the cities average four or five times as high as the levies made by the country districts. None of the larger towns levy less than five mills special tax every year. If all of the school districts outside of Pendleton levied as much for supervision, in proportion to their wealth, as Pendleton does, they would have about $2500 a year for supervision; a very much greater sum would be needed for this purpose.

Hopes for Much Good.
"If the school directors will work with the supervisors, the latter should be able to accomplish much good. Every schoolhouse will be cleaned and put in good condition for the opening of school. The many little things that are always needed in the school will be provided for the opening day. A suitable teacher will be employed early and there will be no delay in beginning the school. Many of the little duties for which the directors and district clerk are now responsible, can be performed by the supervisor, thus relieving the district officers of considerable responsibility and annoyance."

"The personnel of the new county board is a strong one, each of the four men selected being especially adapted by reason of previous experience for their position."
H. G. Newport,
"Colonel Newport is president of the Newport Land and Construction company and is one of the best known men in Umatilla county. Two years ago he was elected chairman of the county school board convention, and is known far and wide as a strong supporter of the public schools. He is a resident of Hermiston, is chairman of the local school board, and is closely identified with every movement for the advancement of that progressive community. Colonel Newport will represent the western portion of Umatilla county, including the five towns of Hermiston, Echo, Stanfield and Umatilla, and the progressive country district in that section."
J. B. Saylor,
"Mr. Saylor resides in Ferndale district in the eastern part of Umatilla county. He was formerly a resident of the Butter creek county near Echo where he still has extensive property interests. He is a director of the noted Ferndale school which is often referred to as the largest country

HIGH SCHOOLS MEET IN DEBATE TONIGHT

PENDLETON WILL OPPOSE HOOD RIVER TEAM

Result of the Debate Will Decide Who Will Meet Grants Pass in the Final Championship of the State.

One of the mooted questions of the country is to be threshed out tonight in the Methodist church when the debating teams of the Pendleton and Hood River high schools meet to argue on the methods of conserving our natural resources. The local team will uphold states rights, while the visitors will contend for national control.

The question reads, "Resolved, That national conservation of natural resources is preferable to state conservation." This is a new question for both teams and it will be a fair field with no favors. The judges for the debate will be Prof. Dunmore of Whitman college, Mr. Moffitt of Walla Walla and Edgar W. Smith of Vansycle.

In their way before they can reach that goal. Whichever way the debate goes it is certain that the audience will hear a clash of wit and argument well worth listening to. The debate is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock.

Mary's a Grand Old Name.
Anyone who doubts that the name Mary is not given to as many girl babies in the present generation as in the days of our ancestors only have to look at the title of a suit recently filed in the local circuit court to be convinced of their error. There are fourteen women named as defendants, thirteen of whom were christened Mary, the fourteenth being yelet Louise. The case is the one instituted by F. W. and J. G. Payne against the Milton, Freewater and Hudson Bay Irrigation company et al and the wives respectively of W. C. Gallager, M. O. Beauchamp, J. B. Krumbach, F. B. Smith, J. W. Jones, G. M. Lockwood, F. C. Morley, Fred Grelsler, R. E. Record, Herman Markman, W. F. Gentry, R. H. Wellman and F. J. Helhoff are called Mary, while the exception is the helpmeet of J. E. Boyer.

Work on New Bridge.
The first actual step towards constructing the new Main street bridge was taken today when an employe of the Coast Bridge company, which has the contract for constructing the bridge, began hauling sand for the abutments and pier. He is now hauling sand and dumping it near the north side approach to the bridge. The abutments and the pier will be placed within a short time and while the present bridge remains in place. The steel for the new bridge is not expected until July 1 and the bridge is to be complete and ready for travel August 15.

school in the state. Mr. Saylor was formerly a teacher, and has for many years been closely identified with the public schools. He is not only a good school man, but is an excellent business man as well, and is eminently fitted to fill the responsible position as a member of the county educational board."

Thomas Jaques
"Mr. Jaques is a well known contractor and hardware merchant of Pilot Rock. He is a public spirited citizen of that rapidly developing section of Umatilla county and has done much toward placing the local schools in the first rank. Although not a member of the school board at this time, he has formerly served in that capacity. Mr. Jaques takes a decid-
