EAST END GRANGES FAVOR MACADAM ROAD

Construction of a macadam road from Walla Walla to Freewater was the main theme of discussion at the "picnic" of the Ferrisdale and Hudson Bay grange, held in Freewater yesterday, says the Walla Walla Union. The rain and wind prevented the picnic being held out doors but the crowd gathered in the Odd Fellows' temple, and there held the meeting.

tion of those already contracted for. Oregon residents have a plan, proposed by Judge J. W. Maloney of Pendleton, and County Commissioner W. M. Cockburn of Umatilla county, whereby the county will pay half the labor and furnish the rock crusher, residents benefited to pay the other half of the work.

mitted and its construction will, in all probability, be made a matter of immediate action on both sides of the state line.
