

THAT AWFUL BACKACHE

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Morton's Gap, Kentucky.—"I suffered two years with female disorders, my health was very bad and I had a continual backache which was simply awful. I could not stand on my feet long enough to cook a meal's victuals without my back nearly killing me, and I would have such dragging sensations I could hardly bear it. I had soreness in each side, could not stand tight clothing, and was irregular. I was completely run down. On advice I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and an enjoying good health. It is now more than two years and I have not had an ache or pain since. I do all my own work, washing and everything, and never have the backache any more. I think your medicine is grand and I praise it to all my neighbors. If you think my testimony will help others you may publish it."—Mrs. OLLIE WOODALL, Morton's Gap, Kentucky.

Backache is a symptom of organic weakness or derangement. If you have backache don't neglect it. To get permanent relief you must reach the root of the trouble. Nothing we know of will do this so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for special advice. Your letter will be absolutely confidential, and the advice free.

S.S.S. RIDES THE SYSTEM OF CATARRH

Catarrh usually begins with irritated, inflamed membranes of the head, nose and throat, from which there is a constant and copious discharge of watery matter. Nature intends that these membranes shall be nourished by the blood, but waste matters and impurities deposited into these delicate parts, sets up inflammation and the discharge is a natural result. There is only one way to cure Catarrh, and that is to remove the cause by purifying the blood. Washes, sprays, inhalations, etc., do not reach the circulation, and therefore can only afford temporary relief. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter, and at the same time building up the system by its unequalled tonic effects. In other words S. S. S. cures Catarrh by purifying the blood so that the mucous surfaces and linings of the body are supplied with healthy nourishment instead of being continually irritated from the catarrhal impurities. Then the inflamed membranes heal, the discharge is checked, head noises cease, the stomach is toned up, and the throat is no longer clogged with mucus. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice desired, free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.

of the members of the house reveals the fact that out of the 298 representatives, delegates and commissioners, 246 are lawyers. Twenty-six members neglect to state the nature of their business, so this is not a complete census.

Next to lawyers, in point of number, come the farmers. There are 28 of them. Many are only agriculturists on the side, however. The bankers' list totals 22. Then come the newspaper men. There are 15 of these, besides one "journalist." Rep. Sherwood, dem., Ohio, and two "publishers," Utter, Representative and Underhill, dem., N. Y.

Ten members of the house of representatives are "manufacturers." Eight are lumbermen. Five were teachers, in school or college, up to the time of their being chosen representatives. There are several score others who formerly taught school, and later studied law.

Reps. Foster, dem., Ill., Wilson, dem., N. Y., Kindred, dem., N. Y., Faison, dem., N. C., and Barchfield, rep., Pa., are physicians. Rep. Diefenderfer, dem., Pa., is a practicing dentist. At least four members were court stenographers—Palmer, dem., Pa.; Byrnes, dem., S. C.; Kendall, rep., Iowa; and Aiken, dem., S. C. Three say they were commercial telegraphers—McDermott, dem., Ill.; Smith, dem., N. Y.; and Cary, rep., Wis. Representative Lee, dem., Pa., simply says he is a business man.

Five congressmen were at one time "knights of the road" and "drummed" in various sections. Three are real estate operators; three own coal colonies; one is a petroleum operator; three are authors—Edward W. Townsend, dem., N. J., of "Chimney Fadden" fame, Stephen B. Ayres, dem., N. Y., and Henry George, Jr., dem., N. Y.

In the miscellaneous class are Calder, rep., N. Y., builder; Fornes, dem., N. Y., woolen manufacturer; Hartman, rep., Pa., iron manufacturer; Lafean, rep., Pa., candy manufacturer, known as the "Chocolate King"; Howell, rep., Utah, merchant; Lindsay, dem., N. Y., hotel business; Mather, dem., N. Y., hat maker; Lewis, dem., Md., Daugherty, dem., Mo., and Cameron, rep., Ariz., are miners; Coyle, dem., Ill., is in the gas and electric lighting business; Gallagher, dem., Ill., is a hat dealer; Buchanan, dem., Ill., is a structural iron worker; Kennedy, rep., Iowa, is a nurseryman.

There are six members of the house who wore the confederate gray in the civil war—Rucker, dem., Cal., Estopinal, dem., La., Tabbot, dem., Md., Stedman, dem., N. C., Gordon, dem., Tenn., and Lamb, dem., Va. Five others served on the unlovely Thistlewood, rep., O., Bradley, rep., N. Y., Sherwood, dem., O., Bingham rep., Pa., and Hill rep., Conn. Bradley was awarded a medal for gallantry, and Sherwood and Bingham both advanced for conspicuous bravery.

Thirteen members served in the Spanish-American war, either in Cuba, the Philippines or in the camps in the United States. They were: Tibbon, rep., Conn.; Howard, dem., Ga.; Stone, dem., Ill.; Ames, rep., Mass.; Gardner, rep., Mass.; Murray, dem., Mass.; Weeks, rep., Mass.; Loud, rep., Mich.; Anderson, rep., Mich.; Harrison, dem., N. Y.; Howland, rep., O.; Crago, rep., Pa., and Aiken, dem., S. C.

Seven representatives record the fact that they were born abroad—Sabbath, dem., Ill.; in Bohemia; Kahn, rep., Cal., in Baden, Germany; Campbell, rep., Kan., in Nova Scotia; Berthold, dem., Mo., in Germany; Donohue, dem., Pa., in Ireland; Wilson, dem., Pa., in Scotland; and Berger, the Wisconsin socialist, in Austria-Hungary.

Two members of the house served in the United States navy, having been graduated from the Annapolis academy. Richmond Pearson Hobson, dem., Ala., who was the hero of the Merrimac, is one of these; Rep. Weeks, rep., Mass., the other.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Rep. Ezekiel Candler of Mississippi, who is a veteran member, says naively that his family "have been prominently identified with the history of the state from the days of the revolution up to and including the present."

Rep. James Alexander Daugherty, of Missouri, sets down the fact that he is regarded as one of the strong men in the Missouri delegation." Rep. J. J. Kindred declares in his sketch that he "has in no sense been a politician." Rep. Charles E. Patton of Pennsylvania declares that "his agricultural experiments have been of great benefit to the community."

An Alibi.

"She claims a perfect alibi." "What is her alibi?" "She says that she can prove that at the time the crime was committed her little girl was brushing her hair." "That proves an alibi for her hair, but how about herself?"—Houston Post.
