PERFORMED ERRAND AFTER 33 YEARS

Portland, Or.—An errand entrusted to her 33 years ago suddenly flashed into the mind of a Portland woman recently, by some strange trick of memory. She performed it and has just heard from the one who asked the favor so long ago.

Mrs. John H. Buck, 361 Vancouver Ave., who wasn't Mrs. Buck 33 years ago, was a music teacher in Robinson, Kansas, at that time and one of her pupils, Laura Kelly, gave her a dollar and asked her to buy two songs everybody was singing in those days, "Gates Ajar," and "Come Little Bird and Live With Us." The present Mrs. Buck agreed and forgot all about it.

The other day, when eating breakfast, some curious twist of recollection brought back the neglected errand and she recalled the errand given her and the names of the songs as well. "I'll go and see if I can get that music," she said jumping up from the table. She went down, hurried through the stock of one of the older music houses and was fortunate enough to pick up the very songs she wanted. She mailed them, together with a letter, to Miss Laura Kelly, Robinson, Kansas, hoping it might reach her former pupil. Miss Kelly had married and had children of her own but the postmaster at Robinson remembered her and she got the music and the letter. This week Mrs. Buck received a letter from the former Laura Kelly, now Mrs. Theodore Work. "I have given up my playing now," she wrote, "but I have a little girl who is just about where I was in music lessons when I wanted those pieces, so I will have her learn them and play them for me."

ROGERS PLEADS GUILTY TO KIDNAPING

Las Vegas, N. M., May 19.—Will Rogers pleaded guilty to the charge of kidnaping Waldo Rogers, the 3-year-old grandson of Judge Henry L. Waldo, the millionaire general solicitor of the Santa Fe railroad. George Wiggins, an ex-convict and alleged accomplice of Rogers, pleaded not guilty.

Rogers, it is understood, will not be sentenced until after the trial of Wiggins, in which he is expected to be the principal witness for the state. The indictment also charged Rogers and Wiggins with entering the home with intent to assault and threatening to murder Mrs. A. T. Rogers, mother of the kidnaped child, for the purpose of extorting from her $12,000 ransom. These charges were included in the indictment because there is no statute in New Mexico defining or providing punishment for the crime of kidnaping.

Little Waldo Rogers was stolen from the family home on the night of March 29 last and returned to his parents 24 hours later upon the payment of a ransom of $12,000. Will Rogers, who is 22 years old, is the uncle of the stolen child. The ransom money was recovered in the chimney of young Rogers' home.

There is a strong feeling in Las Vegas against the prisoners, and the utmost precaution is being taken to guard them from violence. They have been confined in the state penitentiary at Santa Fe since their arrest two weeks after the commission of the crime.

SPOKANE WILL HOLD EGG-LAYING CONGRESS

BEGINS NEXT NOVEMBER CONTINUES 12 MONTHS

Problems of Continent-Wide Interest Are to Be Solved—Will Have Two Entries of Six Chickens From Each State.

Spokane, Wash.—Problems of continent-wide interest are to be solved at the first American egg-laying congress in Spokane, beginning next November and continuing 12 months. It is free and open to the world. Plans are to have at least two entries of six chickens each from every state and territory in the union and province in Canada. Among other things this information is sought:

- Will 200 chickens support an average family?
- What breeds are best for commercial eggs?
- What is the actual cost of producing eggs?
- What are the prime requisites for successful egg culture?
- What state, province or territory produces the best layers?
- John C. Lee, a former newspaper man, now a poultry rancher at Hillary, Wash., who originated the congress idea, has submitted tentative plans to A. C. Ware, chairman of the poultry and game committee of the Spokane chamber of commerce, for formal discussion and action at the next monthly meeting of that body early in June.

"This is not to be a competitive exposition for fancy breeds or feathers nor a money-making scheme," Mr. Lee said, "but an educational affair in the best sense of the term. There will be no medals or cash prizes, though diplomas and ribbons may be awarded for the best producers. Primarily, we are seeking accurate information which is not now available through regular channels.

"Present plans are to set aside a tract of land near Spokane and erect the necessary buildings for the care of the fowls. Experts will be placed in charge and a record kept of every pen, the money returns going to the owners. We believe we can accomplish good results here, as we have an even climate and none of the diseases common to the chicken family, such as cholera and gapes."

GOSSIP OF GOTHAM.

New York, May 20.—Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the "heliophone," has arrived in New York after completing a tour of the world. His return was signalized by a great triumph for the telephone, by the inaugural of the longest line in the world, 2,030 miles, connecting New York and Denver. Three talking circuits are now in successful operation between the nation's metropolis and the Colorado capital. Talk is far from being cheap over this line however, as the tariff is $11.25 for three minutes of conversation. It is predicted that within another year or two New York and San Francisco will be connected by telephone wires. Mr. Bell spent some time in China and reports that the machine of his invention is becoming increasingly popular in the Empire of the Dragon.

Another returned globe-trotter is Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox, the poetess of passion, who arrived in New York this week after completing a circuit of the world. Although in her fifty-sixth year, Mrs. Wilcox retains her youthful appearance to a remarkable degree and bids fair to rival Mme. Bernhardt as an exponent of perpetual girlhood. Among the articles acquired abroad the poetess has a Brahmin priest's robe which is a century old and which she has had made into a gown. It is a deep golden brown in color and is embroidered with minute inset circular mirrors. A novel wedding has just been solemnized in Brooklyn, when two daughters of a clergyman were simultaneously united to two ministers. The brides were Misses Frances Eugene and Nemo Price, daughters of the Rev. Thomas L. Price, pastor of the Epworth Methodist church in Brooklyn. The former is now the wife of the Rev. Arthur H. Bradford, pastor of the First Congregational church of Springfield, Mass., while the latter is the bride of the Rev. Walter Hendricks, who was recently appointed to a pastorate at Laramie, Wyo.

Dr. Cook's nemesis, Prof. Herchell C. Parker, adjunct professor of physics at Columbia University, today married Miss Evelyn Naegle, daughter of Charles F. Naegle, the portrait painter. Rear Admiral Peary was one of the guests at the ceremony. Prof. Parker and his bride will spend their honeymoon in Alaska, and the professor expects to make another attempt to scale the heights of Mt. McKinley. On a previous expedition to that region Prof. Parker secured a great deal of evidence tending to disprove the claim of Dr. Cook, the imaginative explorer, that he had ascended Mt. McKinley to its summit.

A blare of bands, the harsh appeal of barkers, the cries of merry-makers and the continual rattling of press agents' typewriters were among the multitudinous sounds that ascended today from Coney Island, marking the inaugural of another season at that popular resort of the millions. Although the usual claim is made that "everything is new but the ocean" it is a very familiar Coney Island that greets the eye of the visitor. There are numerous new variations of old "thrillers" however, including an automobile saucer track, monoplane carrying ten passengers each, and a ride known as the "Egg Nogg," in which the cars are shaped like eggs. At the completion of the trip it is claimed, the passenger will feel very much like a scrambled egg.

Apply Ballard's Snow Liniment according to directions right away and it will relieve the pain and heal the trouble. Price 25c, 50c and $1. A. C. Koeppen & Bros.

DETECTIVES SAID TO HAVE USED DYNAMITE

Pittsburg, May 19.—James Elliott, a structural iron worker of this city, appeared before labor leaders here last night and made an alleged confession in which he charged officers of the National Erectors association and detectives employed by it with wrecking buildings throughout the country constructed by non-union labor.

The alleged confession was made to William Kelly, president of the Iron City Trades Council; A. L. Collins, secretary of the Structural Iron Workers' Union, and H. W. Legleitner, vice president of the International association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers. It was sworn to before a notary. The labor leaders then turned Elliott over to the police, who are holding him for further investigation.

The affidavit was not given out, but in his statement to the police Elliott said he had made the confession because he was not paid for information he furnished the Erectors Association, and for which he was promised $1,000.
