Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Echo Graduates Are "Shot."
Principal O. A. Cannon of the Echo schools brought the graduating class to Pendleton this morning to have their pictures taken. The final exercises were held last night.

Roundups to Play Adams.
The Roundups will go to Adams Sunday and cross bats with the baseball aggregation at that place. Manager John Carroll has recently strengthened the local team and expects to bring home the bacon tomorrow.

Party of Girls to Athena.
A party of young ladies was made up yesterday afternoon and left this morning for Athena where they will celebrate with the Caledonians. The party was composed of the Misses Mary Zurecher, Edna Storie, Gertrude Campbell, Ida and Ina Cherry and Nona Johnson.

Moore School Votes Bonds.
County School Superintendent Frank K. Welles today received a notification from D. Cheesman, clerk of the Moore school three miles north of Freewater, that that district had voted bonds for a new school house by the vote of 13 to 3.

N. P. Buys Furnish Lands.
By two deeds recorded today the Northern Pacific company has acquired possession of the ne 1-4 of sec. 14 and the sw 1-4 of sec 27, twp. 4, N. R. 29, and the e 1-2 of the ne 1-4 of sec. 22, same township and range, from W. J. Furnish. The consideration for the two pieces is about $3500.

Murphy Loses His Dog.
Joe Murphy is mourning the loss of his little cockerel spaniel which he was forced to kill because it was subject to violent fits. The dog was a blooded one and was valued by Mr. Murphy quite highly. Its father was owned by a saloonman and its mother by a preacher but Mr. Murphy declares the cross was fine.

Court Meets Monday.
A special session of the circuit court will commence Monday morning for the purpose of cleaning up the docket. There are six cases set for trial one of which is the condemnation suit which the state has instituted against C. C. Hendricks. There are several criminal cases which will be investigated by the grand jury.

More Jobs for Sutherland.
George H. Sutherland of Walla Walla, who secured the contract for extending the water mains to the asylum grounds and who will enter a bid for the construction of the gravity system recently voted, has just been notified that he has been awarded the contract for building a 40,000 feet of sewer in La Grande and for installing a water system in Haines. The former job involves $42,000 and the latter $15,473.

Walsh Grocery Attached.
An announcement was made in this paper yesterday that the Walsh grocery in the Temple building had closed its doors. Later in the day Sheriff Taylor served attachment papers upon the proprietor for Lang & Co., of Portland, to whom the grocery was indebted about $600. It is understood that the store is heavily involved, there being a number of other large creditors. There is much regret felt for Mr. Walsh's misfortune as he had built up a nice trade.

A Very Short Runaway.
The big bay team attached to the wagon of the Columbia Produce company, started on a mad dash this morning about 11 o'clock but came to a stop in a heap very abruptly. They attempted to make their way down the alley between the Frazier Book Store and the Alexander Department store, but the wagon collided with the buildings and threw the horses, one on top of the other. Considerable difficulty was experienced in liberating the horses from the tangle but this was finally accomplished with several narrow escapes from flying heels. No damage was done to horses or wagon.

Reward Check Exhibited.
Jeweler A. L. Schaefer is today exhibiting in his window the check he received from the Jewelers' Security Alliance to pay as a reward for the capture and conviction of Ivan Rinsdahl, the thief who broke the window of the Schaefer Jewelry store and stole therefrom several articles of jewelry. The check is for $100 and will be turned over to Sheriff T. D. Taylor and Chief T. B. Gurdane, who effected the capture, and Mr. Schaefer feels that the money was well earned as the officers went to work without a clew. The Security Alliance has a membership of over 5500 jewelers throughout the country each one of which displays the brass shield in his window offering a reward for the arrest and conviction of any person breaking into the store. Over $14,000 has been paid out in rewards by this company and thieves are getting so they steer clear of a store exhibiting a brass shield.

School Picnic Held.
County School Superintendent Welles and wife returned today from Hermiston where they attended the graduating exercises last night. During the day they were present at the joint picnic of the Nolin and Yoakum schools in a grove near Yoakum. A fine program was rendered, the speakers being Mr. Welles, Prin. L. F. Johnson of Nolin, and J. F. Fisher, Prin. J. A. Hawks of Yoakum, presided.

Pendleton Farmer Robbed.
J. A. Cresswell, a farmer of Pendleton, reported to the police last night that he had been robbed of $500, but he was unable to give any of the circumstances. He admitted he had been in many saloons drinking and he thinks the money was taken from him in one of them. He came here to take care of a shipment of grain. He has a brother-in-law, C. H. Cable, at 1173 Rodney avenue, where he has been staying.—Portland Telegraph.

Disorderlies in Police Court.
Floyd Heathman, Ralph Peel and Click Humphrey were booked in the police court this morning on charges of disorderly conduct, the first pleading guilty but the third declaring his intention of standing trial. Up until press time, the trial had not been held. It seems that the three men became engaged in a fight for which they were arrested. Vaughan Finch and Chris Blum were also booked on the charge of using obscene language on the street and will also stand trial. Three drunks completed the docket. Joe Randolph and Henry Lemme drawing three days in jail and Charley Mox Mox paying his fine of five dollars.

PLAN MASKED REVELRY FOR ROSE FESTIVAL
Portland, Or.—Masked revelry will prevail at the coming Portland Rose Festival. At least one night will be given over to fun and frolic in which masked merry-makers may disport to their hearts content.

Sections of Sixth and Seventh streets will be set apart for these festivities and at alternate street intersections bands will be stationed to add to the attractiveness of the occasion. The streets will be specially decorated and illuminated so that with the gaily dressed masqueraders, the scene will resemble fairyland.

Secret and fraternal orders of the city are expected to take an interest in this feature of the festival and they may appear wearing the insignia of their lodges. One such organization promises to appear in trappings of old feudal days. Other societies will put on burlesque stunts or special drills and dances.

The public generally, however, may join in these exercises that will be dedicated to Momus, the presiding deity of the mask, and to Comus, god of revels. Women of the city may appear in gay festal garb which is one of the attractive features of floral carnival abroad.

HENRY DALTON CONTINUES WORK AT HIS OFFICE
his office as though he were in Oakland, Calif., May 20.—Working in his office as though nothing had happened, Henry Dalton, assessor of Alameda county, today declined to discuss the charges that he had accepted and solicited a $5000 bribe from the Spring Valley Water company to reduce the assessments. He is out on $40000 bail.

Games for Tomorrow.

Milton at Pendleton.
Echo at Weston.
Athena at Walla Walla.

With a number of new players in uniform, among them Tracy Baker, first baseman-elect of the Boston Americans, the Pendleton Buckaroos will present the strongest line-up of the season when they enter the lists with the Milton team tomorrow at Roundup park. Manager Nelson and all his cohorts confidently expect to emerge from the battle of bats victorious and triumphant. They have not forgotten that terrible drubbing they received in the fruit town some several weeks ago and they will not be inclined to exercise any mercy towards the visitors.

The Milton fans, on the other hand, declare there will be no quarters asked by them except the quarters which make up the dollars they intend to take home in their spacious pockets after the game. So sure are they that their team will "bring home the bacon" that they have sent an advance installment of greenbacks, it is said, with which to cover any bets that local fans may want to make.

The fact that Baker is to play first in the game is arousing much interest locally for this may be the last game he plays in the west for a number of years. Also the appearance of a new pitcher, a new catcher and a new shortstop is lending an element of curiosity and speculation to the game. The following will be the lineup of the team tomorrow: Snooks, c; Berger, p; Baker 1b; Nevins 2b; Dickson, 3b; Monroe, ss; Bliss, lf; Shaffer, cf; and Nelson, rf.

WINS WIDOW WITH $50,000.

Romance in Courtship of the "Oregon Apple King."
Los Angeles.—When Henry O. Sproat, the "Oregon Apple King" offered Mrs. Frances Rosenblatt, an attractive widow, niece of the late Nelson Morris, millionaire packer of Chicago, $50,000 to marry him she accepted, but just to see if Sproat was in earnest. Now they are to be married in June and Mrs. Rosenblatt will get the money in advance.

The romantic story of Sproat's courtship, his money offer and persistence was confirmed by both parties to the agreement today in Venice, where both are visiting.

Not many months ago Sproat came to the Southern California beaches to recover from the shock of his wife's death. A short time later Mrs. Rosenblatt arrived from Chicago with her family, among whom was her brother. She had just lost her husband and was trying to forget her bereavement.

Sproat is an ardent angler. So is Mrs. Rosenblatt's brother, Sproat saw the dashing widow, fell in love with her and finally managed to be introduced to her by the brother. Then began an ardent wooing.

The very first night Sproat met the widow he asked for her hand. She refused that night as she did on many succeeding days and nights. One day recently he stopped in the middle of a flow of sentiment and said:

"I'll give you $50,000 if you'll marry me."

"Before the ceremony?" asked the widow.

"Yes," replied Sproat.

"Then I'll marry you."

A woman will do anything for love, and man will do anything for a woman, so there hadn't ought to be many things left undone in this world.

MAUSOLEUM FOR A DOG.

Canine's Body Shipped Far in Costly Coffin.

Denver, Colo.—Disinterment of the embalmed body of a fox hound from a secret grave in Denver, where it was placed eight months ago in a costly hermetically sealed coffin, along with a gold bracelet once worn by an eastern woman, and the shipment to New Hampshire, where they have just been deposited in the marble mausoleum of a wealthy New England family in Nopier Knightley, brings to light a remarkable life story it is the story of an educated, brilliant ambitions man.

Because of an alleged disappointment in love, Mr. Knightley became a recluse, his dog becoming his sole and inseparable companion in aimless travels over two continents. While here he was known as a man who sought no friends.

When after fifteen years the dog died the body was embalmed and buried in a coffin with a woman's bracelet. Mr. Knightley removed to Charleston S. C., recently, and soon afterwards had the dog's body exhumed.

BOYS PLAN TO ROB A SAFE.

Leslie Turner, 14 Years Old, Tells of a Plot.

Seattle.—To rob the Fremont bank by blowing the safe with "soup" they had made themselves and then off to Mexico with the loot. This was the scheme of four Capitol Hill boys students at the Longfellow school, according to the statement made to the police by Leslie Turner, 14 years old, one of the members of the gang, shortly after his arrest as he was prowling about Pike street just before day-break. The boy was armed with a big revolver.

A story of which the police are skeptical, however, is that several members of the gang were responsible for a series of safe blowing jobs in Fremont about 18 months ago. This part of the statement by Turner, the police believe, was simply told him by his confederates to impress their wicked character on him in becoming a member of the gang.
