Years of Suffering

Catarrh and Blood Disease—Doctors Failed to Cure.

Miss Mabel F. Dawkins, 1214 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Ind., writes: "For three years I was troubled with catarrh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took two bottles of this medicine and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suffering from catarrh."

OFFICIAL MOUNCER MASHES HIGH SCHOOL MASHER

Granite City, Ill.—Two hundred pounds of masculine brawn, hired especially by the Granite City school board of "bounce" Courtney Gonterman, 17 years old, son of a jeweler, the richest man in Granite City, has made good. Young Gonterman has been ejected from the senior classroom, but it took four days of the most lively warfare, replete with daily rough and tumble scrimmages.

Gonterman is the odious of the high school and is accused of "mashing." By reason of his third suspension by Principal J. H. Frohart he was expelled by vote of the board. T. E. Gonterman, Courtney's father, ordered the son to ignore the manifesto and attend classes.

He did for ten or fifteen minutes at a time until Principal Frohart and Norman Gudder, truant officer, pounced upon him and by dint of utmost effort dragged him from the building.

Sixty pupils last Friday morning witnessed the first battle. Gonterman was routed, but was back again in the afternoon. He was ousted again, but returned the following morning. The following two days witnessed the lightest hostilities. Principal Frohart and Gudder tired of the job and appealed to the board. Leonard Graham was appointed "official bouncer."

Gonterman accepted the deft and slid into his accustomed seat this morning. There was a conference of the educational clans and Graham marched on his 145 pound foe, Gonterman was dragged down a flight of stairs, across the green and dumped bodily over a hedge fence.

The board justified its action in expelling Gonterman on the charge he was the high school masher, who just could not make his eyes behave.

ATHLETES HOLD TRACK MEET TOMORROW

The last high school athletic event of the season will be pulled off tomorrow afternoon at Roundup Park when the juniors enter the lists against the other three classes in a combined track and field meet. In the recent interclass meet, the juniors carried off the largest number of points, but whether they can take more than the other three combined is a question which the morrow will solve.

During the recent trip to Eugene and Corvallis, the track team incurred considerable expense and came back with a deficit which it is hoped will be wiped out by the gate receipts tomorrow so that the management next year will not start under a handicap.

The juniors certainly have some star point winners among their number. Captain Gordon is a junior, as are also Fee, Chapman, C. Jordan, Taylor and Hampton, all sure placers. Then there are a number of others who may pick up some second and thirds, among them Haw, Carroll, Strain and Hinderman.

The other classes are relying principally on Boylen, Devine, A. Jordan, Dickson and Pinnell, although they have other point getters in Sturdvant, Straughn Jarvis, Terry and Dorsey.

WHY SHE DIDN'T WAIT

William Loeb, Jr., at a dinner in New York, said of certain customs doggers:

"They do very incriminating things, then they claim that these things are mistakes. Granting them to be mistakes, they are suspicious—as suspicious as the business man's wife."

"The wife of a young business man got a wire from her husband the other evening that said: 'I shall dine with Milly Brown, an old gal of mine. Will be late. Don't wait for me.'"

"When the business man reached home at midnight, his wife met him in the hall."

"Don't wait for you!" she sneered. "Why, I would'n't wait for the best man that ever lived. Let alone you!"

"Why, my dear—" he stammered. "Then bursting into tears, she handed him the telegram and in a jiffy he explained that what he had really wired was: 'I shall dine with Billy Brown, an old pal of mine. Will be late. Don't wait for me.'"—Washington Star.

BUCKAROOS DEFEAT HOLDMAN 19 TO 1

By the overwhelming score of 19 to 1, the Buckaroos yesterday afternoon shattered the hopes of the Holdman team which came to this city to take the measure of the leaguers. As can be easily deduced from the ill proportioned score, the contest was not particularly thrilling from the spectators' point of view, but the visitors gave the locals a good workout, nevertheless. The Holdman boys have a good team for a rural community but could not put up the article of ball necessary to make a showing against the Buckaroos.

Milne and Sturdvant formed the battery for the locals and they performed in a very creditable manner although they made no attempt to retire the Holdman players at the bat. They were allowed to hit the ball in order to give the fielders a chance for practice.

Tomorrow the Buckaroos will get a stiffer workout for they will play the Weston team at the Pioneer picnic.

WANTS WAGONS AND MULES

Army in Texas Crippled by a Lack of Wagons and Mules.

Houston, Tex.—Commissary officers as well as line officers in Brig. Gen. Miles' command at Galveston are much exercised over what they declare a serious shortage of train wagons and mules in both divisions of the army now in rendezvous in Texas on the Mexican border.

It is said the troops in Texas are short about 200 wagons, 1200 mules and about 7,000 men to complete the organization of the first division. All the stations have been enlisting recruits and hurrying them to Texas, but there is no addition to the mule and wagon equipment.

The officers in deploring the state of affairs of the first division would be sadly handicapped should it suddenly be ordered on a forced march with genuine action injected enroute.

Draft on the commissary train, they say, would be necessary to make up ammunition trains which would in consequence cripple the commissary department. Reliance on commercial wagons drafted into the service, they say, would disclose the commercial wagon not up to the standard and which would collapse with a heavy load on a long forced march.

TWO OF A KIND

Ripley Hitchcock, the critic, was talking at the Authors' club in New York about a well known publisher.

"He took up a young writer last year," said Mr. Hitchcock, "who, as it turned out, missed fire. But he expected great things of the young man, and, while his first book was in the press, he made him a present of a cheap motor car. "Some months later the two met in Broadway. They shook hands cordially. Then the author said: "Look here, you know that car you gave me? Well it won't go." "Neither will your book," hissed the publisher, as he hurried on."—New York Press. Do you read the East Oregonian?

A Helpless Invalid

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

A woman who is sick and suffering, and won't at least try a medicine which has the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is, it would almost seem, to blame for her own wretchedness. Read what this woman says:

Richmond, Mo. — "When my second daughter was eighteen months old I was pronounced a hopeless invalid by specialists. I had a consultation of doctors and they said I had a severe case of ulceration. I was in bed for ten weeks, had sinking spells, and was pronounced to be in a dangerous condition. My father insisted that we try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and brought me six bottles. I soon began to improve, and before it had all been taken I was as well and strong as ever—my friends hardly recognized me so great was the change."—Mrs. Woodson Branstetter, Richmond, Mo.

There are literally hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering.

Read what another woman says:— Jonesboro, Texas. — "I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for myself and daughter, and consider it unequalled for all female diseases. I would not be without it for anything. I wish every mother in America could be persuaded to use it as there would be less suffering among our sex then. I am always glad to speak a word of praise for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and you are at liberty to use this testimonial."—Mrs. James T. Lawrence, Jonesboro, Texas.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering from the same trouble?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.
