

MILTON WOMAN TAKES FIVE DAYS SLEEP

HORSE SHOW SATURDAY WAS GRAND SUCCESS

Large Parade is Held and Many Fine Horses Were on Exhibition—Mrs. Bert Miller Wins First Prize for Best Driving Horse.

(Special Correspondence.)
Milton, Ore., May 20.—A strange case of epilepsy or trance developed in this city this week in the case of Mrs. Stoddard, on the corner of George street, opposite the Christian church.
Wednesday morning an uncle, with whom Mrs. Stoddard lives with her four young boys, returned from up town and found his niece lying on the bed asleep. He endeavored to awaken her, but did not succeed. Dr. Gowen was called but could not awaken the sleeper, who continued in that state for almost five days, awaking Sunday afternoon. During the sleeping period she was fed broth and soups and would open her eyes but was seemingly unconscious, her eyes being perfectly blank. She made no complaint and did not appear to suffer at any time during her unconsciousness. When she awoke Sunday she was in perfect health and did not know what had happened during the interval. Dr. Montgomery of Walla Walla was called in during the time, but failed to arouse the sleeping woman.

Horse Show Success.
The horse show held in this city Saturday was the best ever held here. The parade was a large one and many fine horses were shown and nearly all won blue ribbons. Mrs. Bert Miller carried off first prize for the best driving horse and Mrs. W. E. Miller secured second prize. The carnival company left for Elgin Sunday evening. Strawberry day was spoiled by the rain, notwithstanding which several hundred boxes of berries were given away.

Personal Mention.
Mrs. C. T. Godwin came down from Baker, Ore., to attend the carnival and will be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Phelps for the next two months.

Mrs. Ed. McKenzie and baby were the guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McKenzie.

A large number of people, mostly members of the Farmers' Union, are preparing to go to Wallowa lake to attend the farmers' picnic which will be held at the lake next week. Among those is a party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEwen, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Sikes, Mrs. L. J. Pierce and daughter Ada, and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cockburn. The most of the party will go overland as far as Elgin, taking the train from there. They will be gone about a week.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. King Saturday evening. Mr. King is proprietor of the Milton garage.

Mrs. W. R. Craig of Ellensburg, formerly Miss Lina Coe of this city, is the guest of her relatives and friends here. Mrs. J. F. Campbell of La Grande, a sister, is also a guest at the S. K. Coe home.

Mrs. Ruth Swain, a teacher in the public schools, leaves this week for Enterprise where she will attend the summer institute for teachers. Her sister, Mrs. Simokum of Union county, will keep house for her during her absence.

Mrs. Tucker arrived in the city from La Grande last evening and will be the guest this summer of Mrs. J. Cherry. Mrs. Tucker has been engaged as one of the high school teachers for the Milton schools next year.

Roy Black went to Portland Sunday evening on a business trip for the C. P. Collins drug store. Mr. Black expects to be gone a week.

A ball game between the Milton and Freewater fire ladders will take place Thursday afternoon on the Peacock mill diamond.

S. A. Miller has purchased two lots in the Black addition to Milton at a cost of $750.

The Bulldogs and Whitman ball teams will cross bats on the Peacock diamond Tuesday afternoon.

UNKNOWN MAN DEAD IN YAKIMA MORGUE

North Yakima, Wash.—"I ain't dead that I know of," said H. H. Dingson today, as he walked into the office of Coroner Fred Shaw and denied that the dead man picked up on the Northern Pacific tracks last week was he. "Somebody has been too officious. They decided that this dead man was me and began telegraphing to my sisters in Missouri. I'm glad they didn't know what my name is, it is Dingson, J. J. Dingson, and they say the receipt in the pockets of this dead man had the name of H. A. Dennis."

Coroner Shaw also has on hand the body of a man killed on the railroad near Mabton last night or this morning and that of a man found at the bottom of the Yakima river near Selah last night, supposed to be a logger. Both are unidentified.

The companion of the man killed at Mabton is in the hospital seriously injured, but he refuses to tell more about the dead man.

Suitor—If you refuse me I shall never love another.
Sulted—Does that hold good if I accept you?—Chicago News.

NAVAL ACADEMY REUNION COMMENCES TODAY

Washington, May 20.—Members of the naval academy class of 1881 commenced a reunion today with a steamer trip down the Potomac to the day's entertainment feature. Tomorrow there will be a visit to the White House to pay respects to President Taft, and on Thursday the class will go to Annapolis to attend the business meeting of the Graduates' association and the alumni dinner. The naval academy graduation exercises will follow on Friday.

Among the members of the class of 1881 were Yoshitomo Inouye and Sotokichi Uru, both vice admirals in the Japanese navy. Congressman J. W. Weeks of Massachusetts, and W. W. Russell, of the diplomatic service, were among the middies of thirty years ago who abandoned the bounding billows for a life on shore.

ECZEMA CURE A BEAUTY WASH.

Although D. D. D. Prescription has been recognized for years as the one remedy for eczema, psoriasis and all other forms of skin diseases, it is now known that there is no other wash, even those used by the beauty specialists, that can compare with this mild liquid for cleansing the skin of pimples, blackheads, rash, and all similar skin affections.

For this reason alone, a bottle of D. D. D. should be kept on hand in every household. A trial 25c bottle will show you the merits of this great remedy as a complexion wash.

D. D. D. seems to remove the cause whatever the trouble may be cleansing the skin and leaving it as soft, as smooth and clear as that of a healthy child.

Get a 25c bottle today and keep it in the house.

SIZE OF TIPS.

(Ohio State Journal.)
A professional waiter at a big Chicago hotel has sailed with his wife to do Europe, to give out in tips some of the money that he got in the same way. In a talk with a reporter this waiter told him of the size of tips, as follows:

AGENTS FOR KNOX,
MERIT,
"SMILE"
AND

EDWIN CLAPP
AND
KON-QUEROR
SHOES

The Smartest "Air" and Longest Wear Are Found in Bond Brothers Clothes

Did you notice the best dressed men at the ball game, the nattily attired ones whom you admired not only for their looks, but also for their good judgment?

Their Clothes Bear the BOND Label!

When you think of clothes of dignity, quality and style, read the score board

BOND BROTHERS

PENDLETON'S LEADING CLOTHIERS

When dining alone, 10 cents.
When dining with a woman, 25 cents.
When entertaining a party, 50 cents or more.
When in doubt, 10 per cent of the bill. Deduct accordingly when the waiter refuses to smile.

So here is an authoritative list of prices, and it will no doubt be interesting to many people, for whether they believe in giving tips or not, most people do. It may not be generally known, but the tip has become so thoroughly imbedded in American custom that the federal laws recognize it as a legitimate expense in an officer's traveling account. But that doesn't make it right. Federal custom is a good deal European.

He—Good night, dear. We must not kiss or you would take my cold.
She—Never mind—I can pass it on.

Sorry—Fitznoodle—Who is that strange looking man who stares at me so much.
She—Oh, that's Mr. Mancegga, the eminent insanity expert.

It is proposed to stop the flow of gold and girls to Europe by putting an export tax on heiresses.
